...it's a very limited room.

A room where you can't leave unless you show someone you're peeing

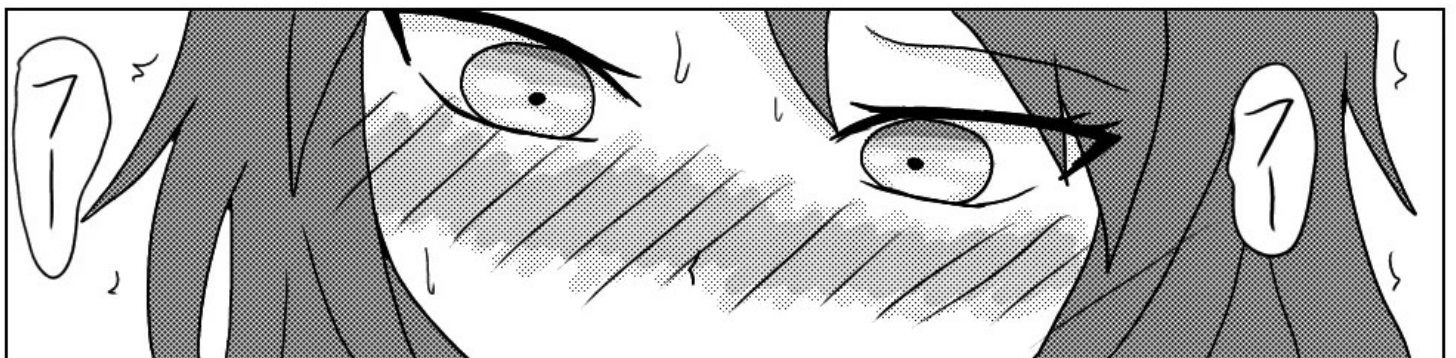

You have to pee!
I want to leave early!

No, I don't want to pee like that right now either...

I see...

I wiiiiiiiiiiii never show you!

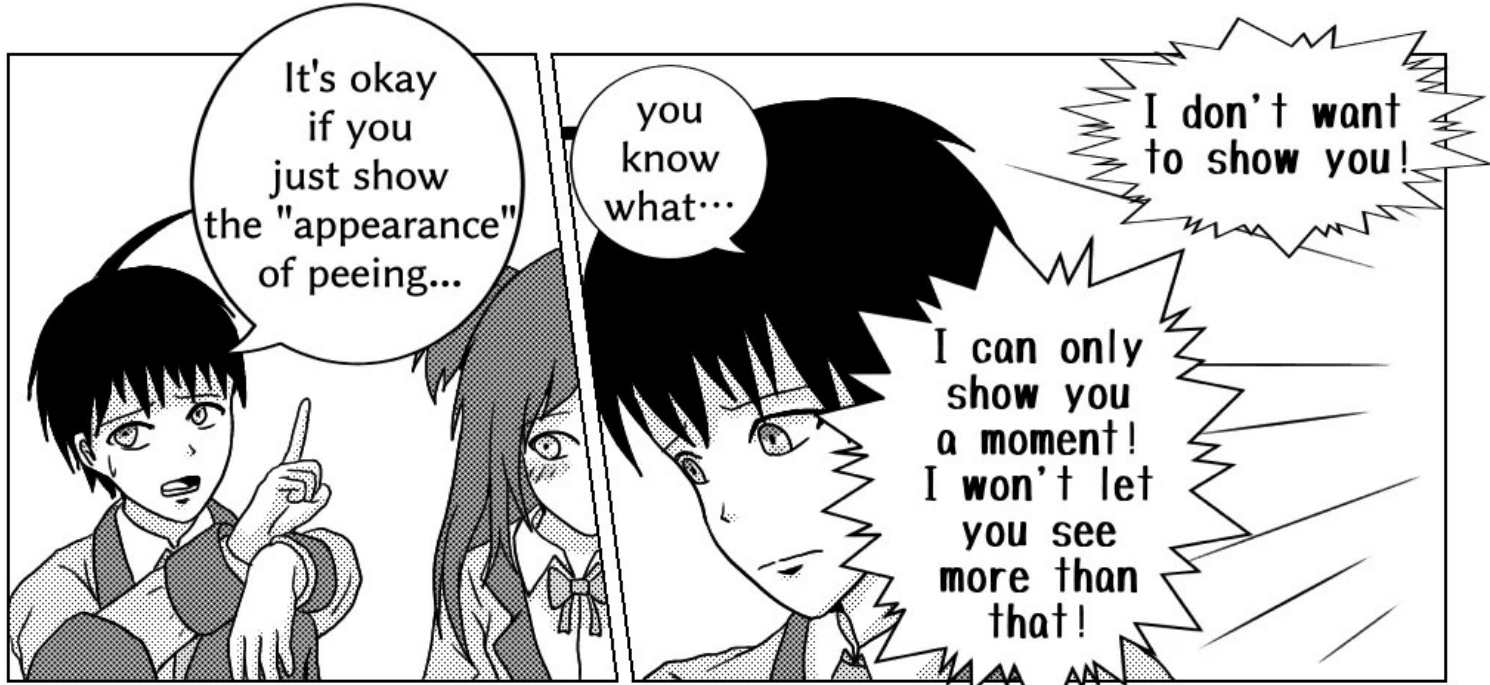

This is an empty room. so...

I can't even take water in a hurry...

Hey!? Are you really going to pee!?

It's better than being stuck in the room like this!

It's okay if you just show the "appearance" of peeing...

you know what...

I don't want to show you!

I can only show you a moment! I won't let you see more than that!

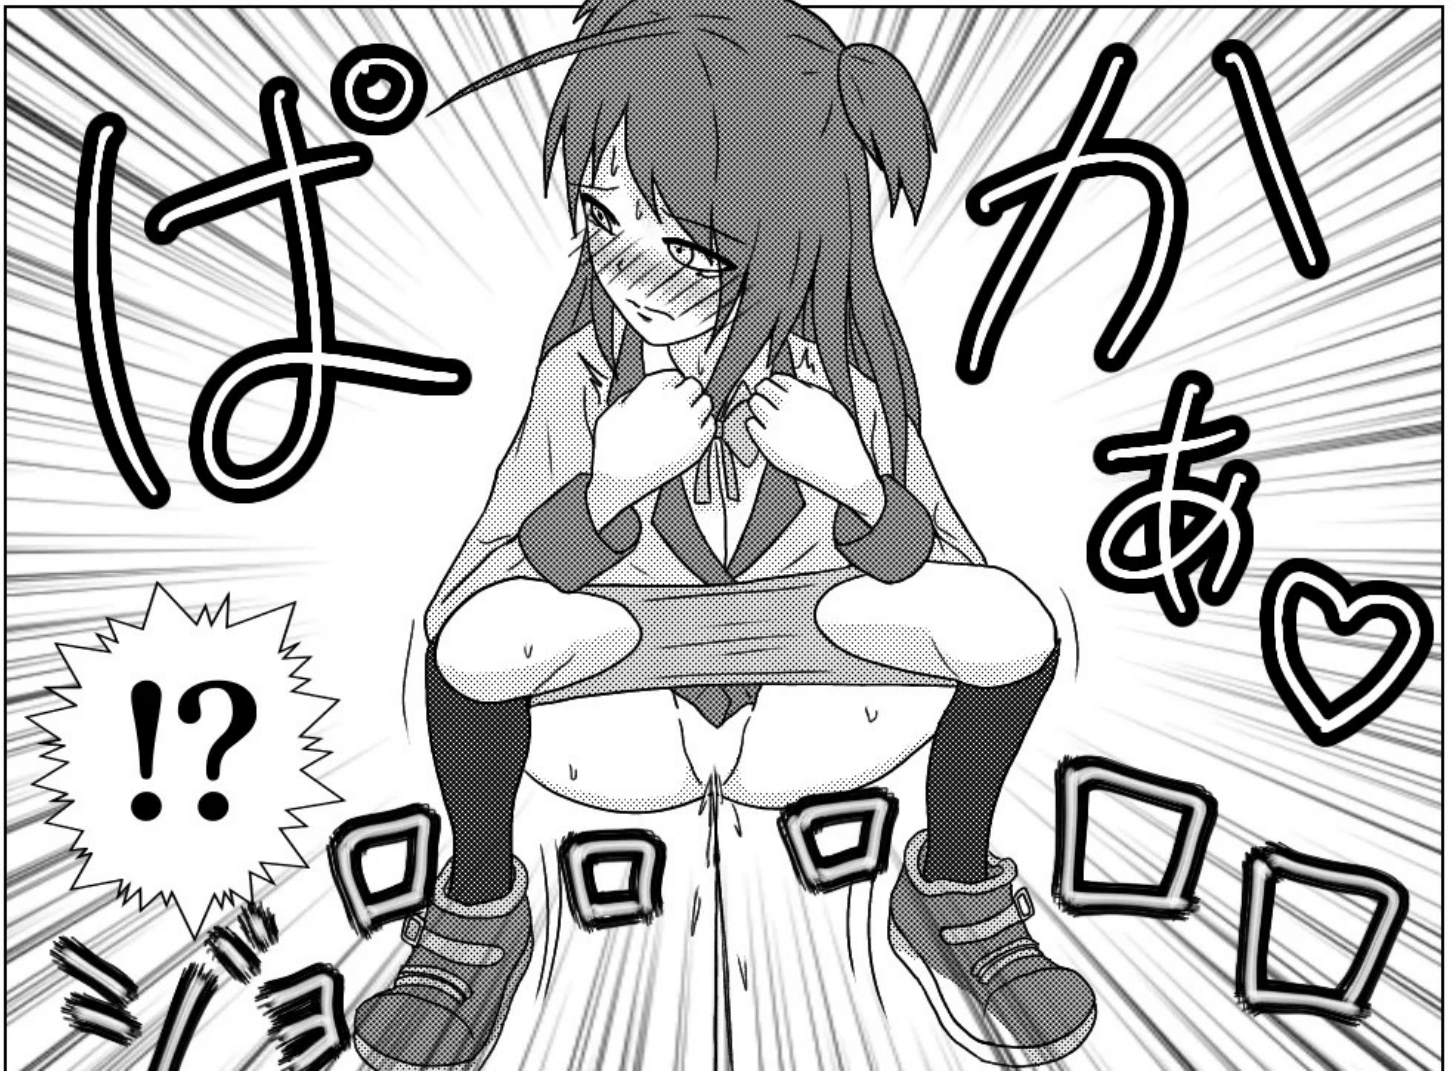

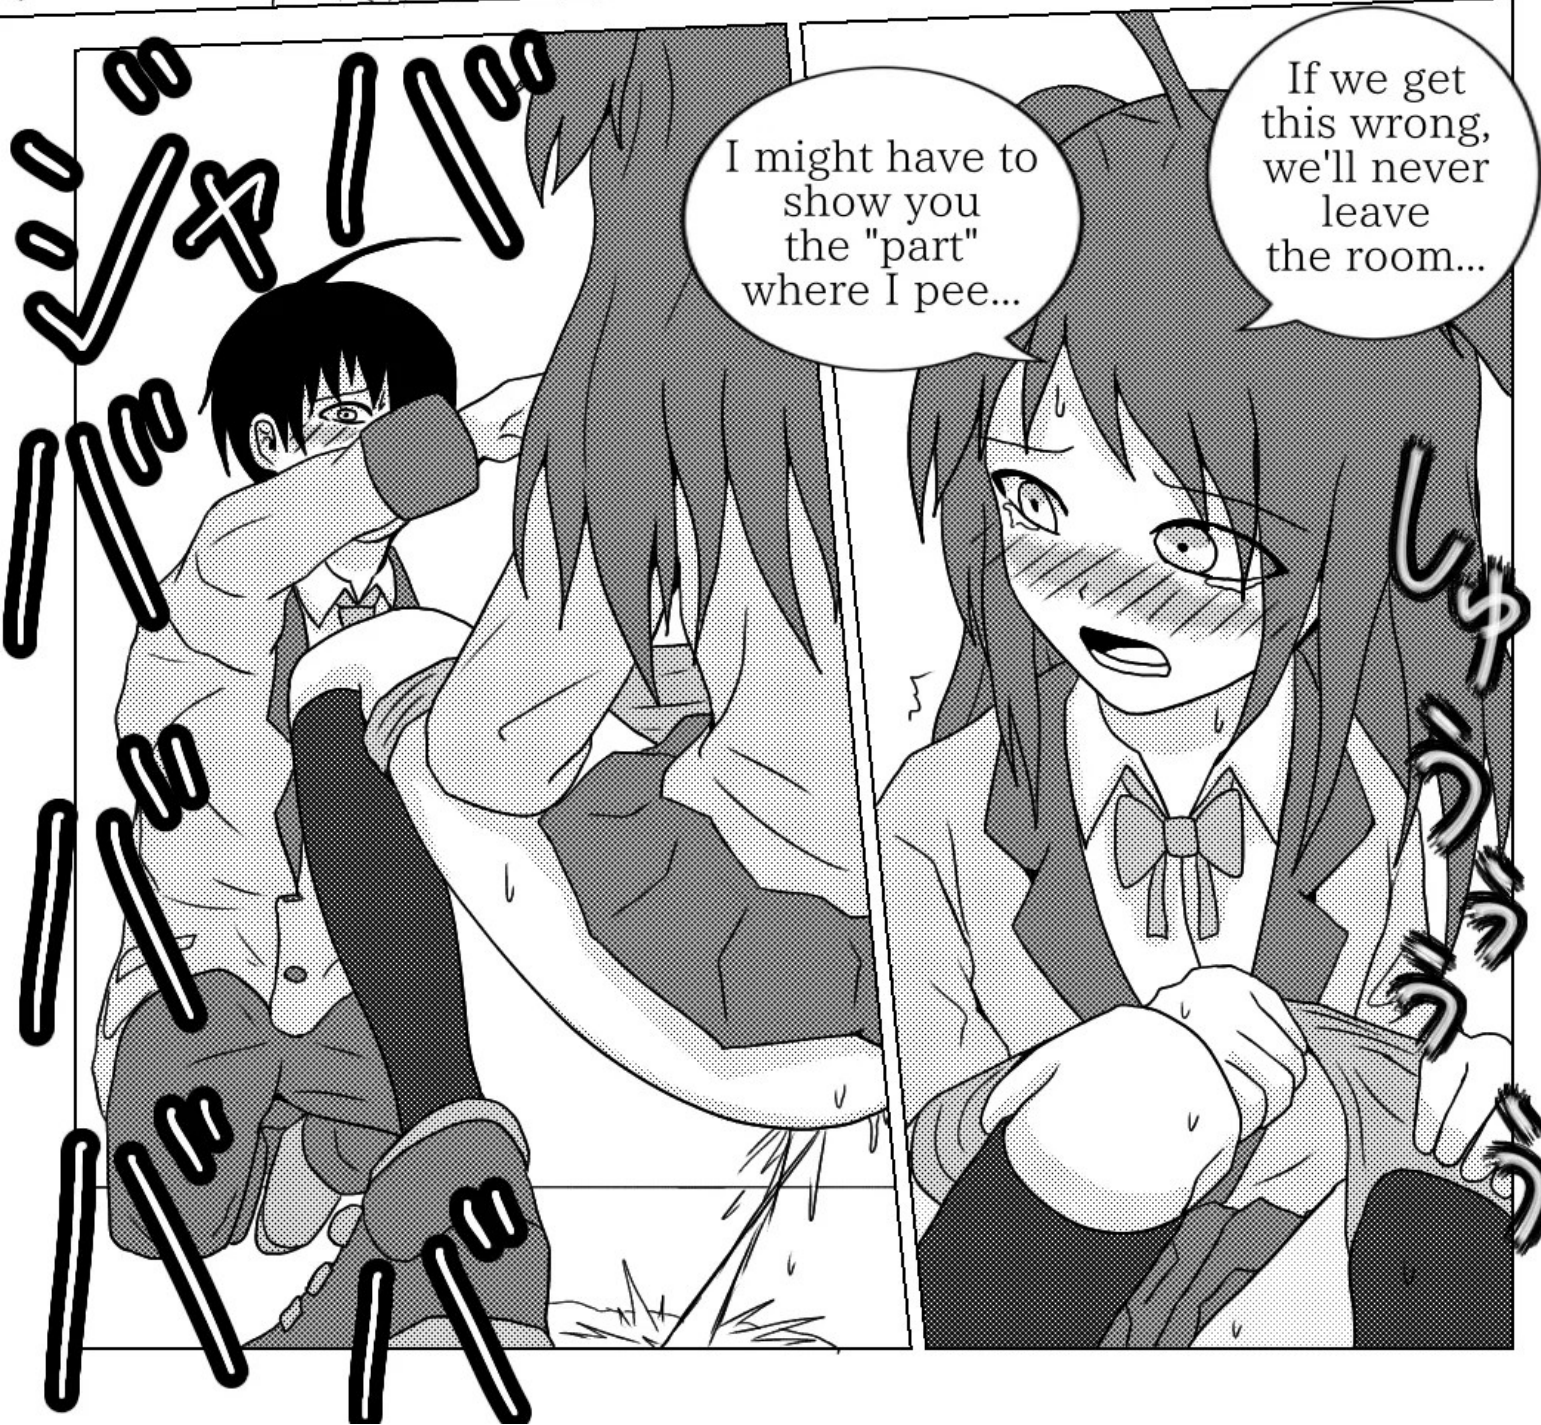

In other words, I don't have to show the "part" where pee is coming out!

Really!

I'm still embarrassed to death, but...

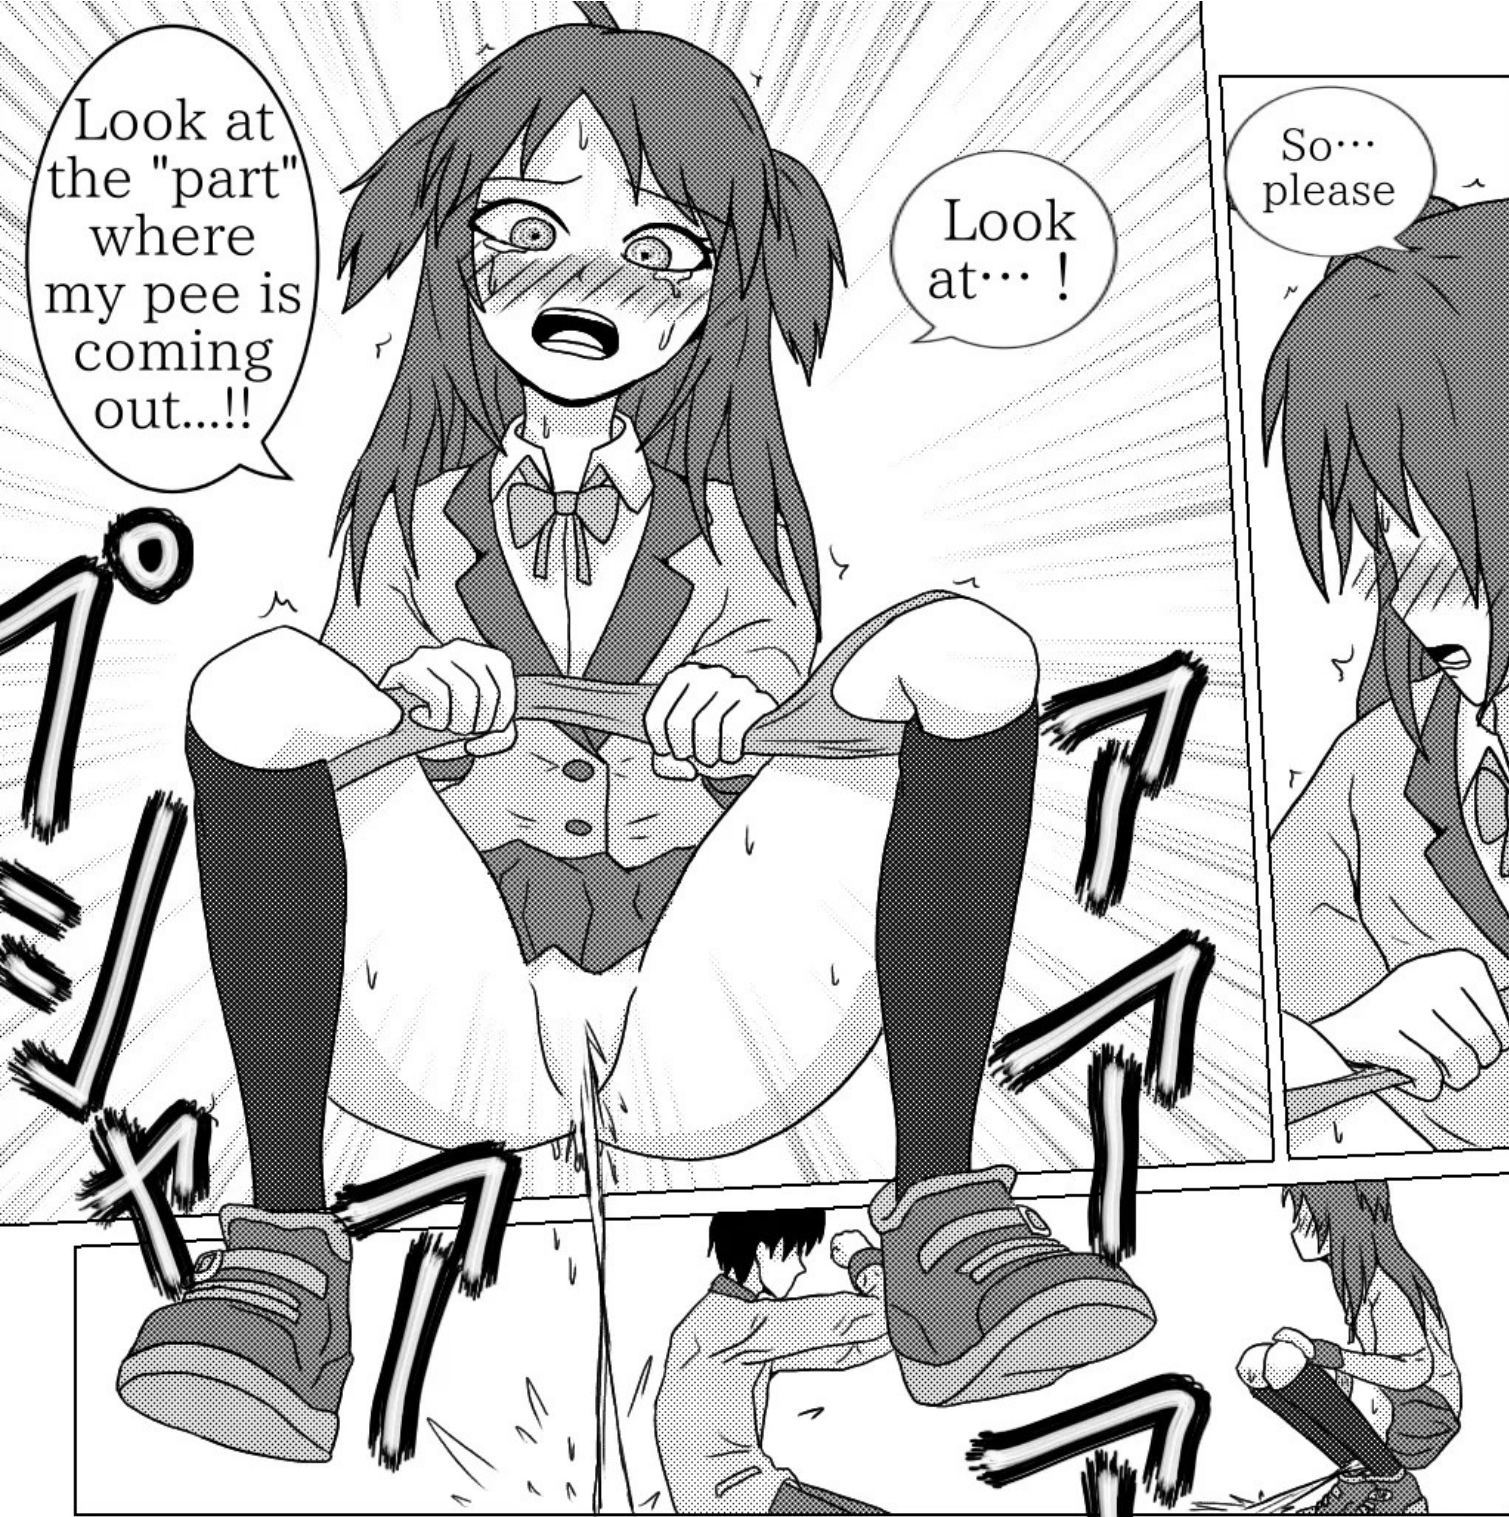

Look at the "part" where my pee is coming out...!!

Look at...!

So... please

...The key is open, but we didn't feel like going out for a while
