Kind Older Sister
Congratulations

Seriously, this is so boring...
I should go to the infirmary after all...

Alright, let's start the fun class

Today, it's just classes that give me a headache

The school that's always the same

Come on in

Starting today, you guys will be taking care of pets for the class on animal husbandry

Each person is responsible for one, so take good care of them!

Huh?

Daily life changes

Hey! Wait a minute...

Huh? Am I the only one who thinks this is weird?

You're number 32

Pets? What nonsense are you talking about?

...Hey

Hanamura, you're number 21

Alright, that's a good match

Wait, it's the girls from our class, right?

Chosen by the "master"?

Since you've been chosen by the "master," you better pull yourself together!

Wow! Nat-suki, is that you?!

Why have you been ignoring me since earlier!

Come on... I've already prepared everything, so let's get this over with quickly!

Huh? What are you planning to do...

Scram!

It's decided that the "master" will be the one to "deflower" us!

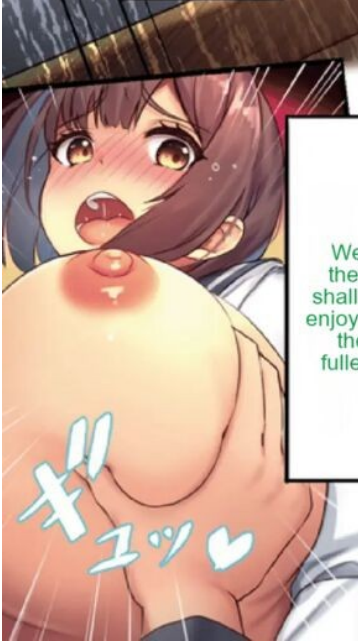

No way... with that Nat-suki-chan?

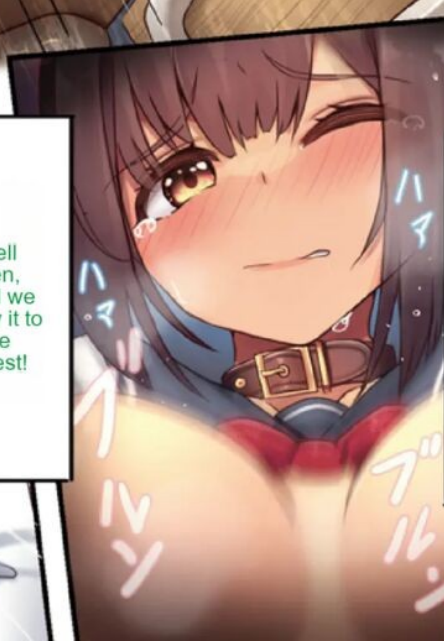

Wow... so big... Yuki is cheeky for his age...
Oh... look, it's moving!

Being able to do this...!

Well then, shall we enjoy it to the fullest!

This dream is amazing! Feels damn good.

Ah... is this a dream...?

... Seems like it's not a dream after all... ♪

... Please take care of me from now on, my master... ♡♡

Ouch...

... I just came so hard... ♡

Even if you say that!

Hey,
focus on the class a bit.

I still can't get used to this change.

This will also be on the test,
so...

One day,
my "ordinary" life
changed
completely.

Isn't this common sense when attending a class?

Even if you call it
"common sense"...

So,
you
see...

Everyday life
needs to change.

We "pets"
are broadly
divided into two types!

This person who lacks
common
sense!

Um, the types of "pets" and such are a bit...

Sorry... I was lost in thought for a moment.

In public facilities, you know

Although it's not generally allowed to have one

But there are places where you can rent them

Yeah

First, they are considered "public pets"

They are managed by the country and placed in public facilities

And apparently, when they get pregnant, they are sent to a "ranch" for management

Listen carefully!

I'm not squeezing them!

Mako

Um... I appreciate the explanation, but please don't squeeze my thigh...

Above
all, it adds color to your life
♥

Next is
"dedicated
pet,"
right?

You can dress it up and train it
as you like.

Depending on how you train
it, it can even support your daily life.

Of course, there are drawbacks, it costs
money to raise and you have to take responsibility for disposal, but I still think having one or not makes a huge difference... like the early morning alarm...

Hey, your hips!
They're
moving! Oh
no...!!

Y-yes.

Alright, I'll bring them now, so sit tight and wait.

Hey, over here, over here.

I wonder if the old man is waiting.

Is this... the right park?

Hello, I'm tatapopo. Thank you very much for picking up "Gaming Out!" this time!

Every time I challenge myself and experiment with various things, I'm drawing while trying out different things. I'm still nervous and haven't fully realized that I'm publishing my first tankobon. I want to continue growing and do my best in my own way while fantasizing about sexy girls! Thank you for your continued support.
