FORGET ABOUT THAT FOR NOW! JUST FIND ANYTHING THAT WE CAN USE AS A BARRICADE!

A hand is shown reaching for a DVD in a store aisle. The shelves are filled with various zombie-themed media, including 'Night of the Living Dead' and 'Zombieland'. The background is a perspective view of the aisle, with shelves on both sides. The lighting is dramatic, with a spotlight effect on the hand and the DVD being reached for. The overall color palette is dominated by reds, yellows, and blues.
