MATSU TAKESHI
CORRESPONDENCE 360

'09 WINTER EDITION

Hi everyone, this is Matsu Takeshi. The fourth issue of Shokadou is set to be out soon! I truly believe that this is all due to everyone's support, so thank you all very much.

This time in GO WEST, the extra story of Motto Motto, I created a parody of Journey to the West. At first, I was thinking "I want to draw a manga about my favourite Journey to the West!" But there are already plenty of great Journey to the West stories and parodies out there, right? I realised that a week before the deadline. (I'm slow)

In any case, I prepared a tentative gag manga for the time being, and I settled on that in the end. Sorry about the bad work. Next time, I think it'll be great if I could depict a world with a mix of the demons and monsters in Journey to the West that I originally liked.

As for "Motto motto", I've thought a few times about bringing it to a conclusion, but with new characters making an appearance and all, the story just kept getting longer. How will all this turn out, I wonder?

Once this is done, it will be a new year yet again. I'm starting to feel that a year passes by really quickly.

Take care everyone, and cheers to a great year ahead!

Hope to see you again next time!
