It isn't big.

Ayame-chan.

We're here.

...

It was because I couldn't leave you with your delicate health in a place where the air was so bad.

...

It's so obvious.

and the mansion in Tokyo would be yours.

I mean, after Grandmother passed away, all you had to do was drive me out.

Uncle?

Now I won't be in your way, will I.

and I can go to school for the meeting by myself.

I'll greet the manager of the villa myself.

so good-bye.

...Traitor.

You didn't have to go out of your way to drive me here.

I'll be all right on my own now.

so don't worry about it.

I'm also making an inspection.

...Since the company's plant is close by.

which I had gotten used to living in, by my uncle.

and I was tactfully driven out of the house in Tokyo,

After my parents died, my Grandmother, who had raised me, passed away,

It was when I was little that my health was delicate. I'm completely fine now.

The manager's house is connected to this place by a corridor.

All this way in the country.

It's a pleasure to meet you. I am Kisaragi Ayame.

I'm old already.

I don't feel like having anything to do with anyone...

Even if they receive me this warmly, it's only troubling.

it's a girl's school, and the building is also very beautiful.

I've lived here for over a hundred years already.

The first time I entered it, there was

My grandfather built this villa in the village where he was born.

We also know that your health is delicate.

for your school transfer.

Your uncle has sent all the documents

all of the girls in my class were also so kind it was almost creepy.

Yes.

The teachers seem nice too.

It's a good school isn't it, Ayame?

I'm sure Uncle asked them to be like that or something.

It feels like I'm being watched and it gives me the creeps...

That school

Though it wasn't like we ever said it clearly with words...

when I was still a girl,

I don't dislike it.

It's pleasant.

How come?

We were always together,

When we felt cold or lonely,

we warmed each other.

I can't forget the look she had on her face

I lied and said I came from a neighboring village.

Did that girl

there is a need for us to take in animals—

Although we don't have to do it frequently,

she simply looked like she had seen a being different from herself.

There's no need for me to go out of my way to comfort her.

...But,

...Ginka?

I thought I had decided not to have anything more to do with anyone than I had to anymore...

I thought Shino had been reincarnated and had come to meet me...

Because you are so much like her,

remember anything after all, do you?

...You don't

But there's no way I could know if that is true.

No...

What...?

Relax.

so it might just be that Shino and I are related.

Thank you very much for reading.

Most of the things I'd done recently were light comedies, so when I tried drawing something serious again, it was very embarrassing...

"Ero but with a focus on story, longish, Japanese style, kind of like a romance, and OneLoli!"

This manga I drew with an idea like that became, in the end, just a syrupy sweet LoveEro that looked like it was serious.

Also, for some reason, when I draw Oneesan x Loli girl, the younger one becomes kind of an S.

When I didn't have time (it was my fault for increasing the number of pages too much), I drew just with momentum and not having been able to refine the story a little more is something I regret but it would be great if you enjoyed it even a little.
