And here we have the beginning of a legend. This is the first book in the Elf Brothel series, and is probably rivaled only by the other entries in the series. Lala is seriously fucking cute, the art is great, the coloring is done really well, and even the dialogue is pretty good. How anyone could have the patience to draw and color a 28 page book is beyond me...though I guess the one I did before this was even longer. They must be some sort of sprites or something.

As for translation, it wasn't hard. There were irritating parts where I had to decipher handwritten words, but it was pretty obvious what they were to begin with. I do have a note, however, and that's about why he feels like a "horrible person" on page 27. I have no clue why. I'm certain that's what he's saying, but I'm not sure why. It just comes out of nowhere. Maybe he feels bad because he said all those things about living together and meeting again and now he knows he can't? That doesn't really seem mean to me, but whatever. I guess I'm just emotionally dead inside. Also, that "lol" was in the raw.

Yes, I do plan on doing the other two of this series that are out right now. I'll probably do Lolo next, though I'm not a huge fan of his. However, the 4th one is over 100 pages, so that one will be a while. I'm talking like multiple weeks. Also, I might do some shorter doujin in between to balance it out, because I don't feel ambitious currently. I'll see how it goes. Until next time!

HAPPY FAPPING!
