MYSTERYMEAT3 TRANSLATIONS

-NO COMMISSIONS-

-JUST FAP-

And another chapter of OnKH 11 is done. I really like Naokichi's art, so it was pretty fun. Also extremely easy to do, so that was a pretty big bonus as well.

As for the translation, onigiri, if you don't already know, are balls of rice. Michiru's way of talking that I noted was that she was using the "もん" ending (mon). It's pretty childish or cute. Naokichi really knows how to moe. Anyway, another note is that when I said the swimsuit was "professional", what it really said was a phrase that means "to become experienced (usually after practice)." "Professional", I felt, was an accurate way to translate that. He basically said that the Michiru wasn't experienced enough to wear the swimsuit, while also implying it was old. Finally, there was some floating handwritten text that I didn't translate. Some of it I could kind of make out, and some of it I had no fucking idea what was going on. None of it was important, so I left it all as-is. I thought it looked better than half-translated, half-raw.

The editing was easy. Not really much else to say about that.

I already completely cleaned a Cannibas one, so that might be next. It's a bit longer though, so it might take some extra time. Until then.

HAPPY FAPPING!
