MYSTERYMEAT3 TRANSLATIONS
-NO COMMISSIONS-
-NO DONATIONS-
-JUST FAP-

Seems like a pretty clever business tactic to me. Just gotta be sure to film it. Remember, selling sex isn't illegal (where I live), as long as you film it! I mean, if I saw an elf trap like that, I'd probably hunt whatever it asked me to. I really love settings like this.

The translation was really easy. Half of it was just single sounds and the rest was extremely recognizable (thanks, jrpgs). I guess I should note that I sort of romanized the names. Lucia and Eckse were originally "Rushia" and "Ekuse", respectively.

The editing was so easy it doesn't get its own section. I have a list of stuff to go through and translate (some of them are entire anthologies that I liked, but those probably won't be until last), but I'm not sure what'll be next. There's a catboy one, a foxboy one, a few where the traps are actually dominant. Just a whole bunch of good stuff. The fox one is so easy I could probably do it in less than an hour, so that might be next. Until next time.

HAPPY FAPPING!
