SEX with a Snake Demon

One of the many planes bordering the material world, the Boundless Hell.

From that darkness comes forth the dark sex demon lord, Pai=Rji=Chell.

Her beautiful futanari torso and great serpent lower body. Dark toned skin that glimmers as though coated in oil, as though her body were made of burnished bronze.

Pai's goal is to lure in futanari and seduce them, and by raising their lust to an uncontrollable level, take their soul as her prisoner. Her velvety skin caresses them as she holds them with her six arms, gently squeezing the life from them with her powerful tail.

Demon Lord
Pai=Rii=Chell

Lavi is renowned as a high level sorceress (a magic user that is able to use magic naturally) in the desert town. This beautiful sorceress in her twenties, with her large breasts, long blonde hair, and rapidly growing sexual appetite, has found herself no longer satisfied with the futanari girls she can find in town.

She decides to use her summoning magics, her strongest field of magic, to call forth a succubus to be her sex slave.

But! With a flash of flame and the stench of sulfur, the demon that appeared with its glimmering skin opened its six arms wide. That's right, Lavi summoned a demon far beyond her ability, the demon lord herself, Pai!

Sorceress Lavi

Lavi expected to be ripped to pieces by the demon lord instantly, but Pai instead said thusly,

"My name is Pai=Rji=Chell.... Now, Magister Lavi, tell me what it is you desire...."

The demon lord smiled faintly and swayed from side to side gently. The flames of the summoning made light dance across her skin, and the two penises under her arms swayed in the air. Below them, the virgin-like, lightly pierced vagina drew Lavi's eye. Before she could think, she...

"Uh... Um... Well... I wanted... I wanted to have sex" Lavi said, holding her penis that was already ready to cum from just looking at Pai.

Lavi knew that sex with a demon would likely make her lose her hold on her soul, but she could not stop the words.

She felt as though if she didn't have sex with this demon now, she would regret it for the rest of her life.

"Very well... The only ones that we futanari demons will deal with is futanari girls... So I will accept your request."

Pai then shattered the spell holding her, and in so doing, shattered the protective shield that had surrounded Lavi. She then lifted Lavi in her tail.

"Get excited, girl... bring forth your semen. I'll accept your seed and bear your children. I'll add your offspring to my flock of half-demon spawn..."

Uh... Um...
Well... I
wanted...
I wanted to have sex

Fufufu...
how is it?
This is what a real tit fuck feels like...

The moment that Pai placed Lavi's penis between her breasts, Lavi felt the strength leave her body.

The softness of her skin was not of this world. It glimmered as though coated in oil and slid across her penis as it was squeezed between Pai's breasts. It was as though her skin had been coated in the finest lotion, although it was completely dry.

And her breasts were so firm, and yet yielding, and clung to her penis without Pai doing anything with her hands.

These breasts were made for this. All Pai had to do was breathe and Lavi was already on the verge of cumming. But just before she could do so, Pai changed...

With her dick squeezed between Pai's breasts, all Lavi could think about was ejaculating as she cried out pathetically for release.

However, Pai had used some sort of magic... with a flash of Pai's right eye, Lavi found herself unable to cum. The sensation of lingering on the brink of bliss drove Lavi mad.

"We can't go wasting your semen, now can we? Let's let it get nice and thick, until your soul itself will come bursting out of you with it..."

At last Pai used her tail to guide Lavi's penis down towards her vagina. It looked like a human's vagina, but when Lavi considered the thick muscles of the snake body that lay behind it, she felt her excitement build further.

And slowly Lavi's penis inched into the snake's vagina, which was so thickly muscled that it felt as though her penis was being devoured in a ball of muscle.

As Pai slowly drove Lavi into her body, Lavi became so desperate for pleasure that her hands reached out across the demon lord's body.

Just by placing her hands onto the demon's breasts, Lavi felt herself so flooded with pleasure that it seemed she would orgasm instantly.

Lavi rubbed the breasts that she was so proud of against Pai's muscles as additional waves of ecstasy rained down onto her mind.

Pai's tail gradually began to squeeze tighter as it drove Lavi's penis forward with building speed.

Lavi's penis was buried deep in an otherworldly vessel designed specifically to stimulate her with multiple layers of thick muscle. It writhed and wriggled, teasing the most sensitive parts of Lavi's penis, and the snake body's vagina continually gulped the penis hungrily inwards.

Lavi gripped onto Pai's bronzed skin and continued to thrust wildly, her mind already going white from bliss. She was caught in the ecstasy that comes just before ejaculation, a constant cycle of a purely female orgasm. Pai wrapped the tip of her tail around and slid it into Lavi's vagina, intensifying her need to ejaculate. And then, as Lavi drowned in the flesh of the demon, Pai's eye again shimmered with light and the magic that enveloped Lavi fell away.

I'm cumming...!
Uwaa!! What
the hell...! So much is cumming out!

Okay... I want
you to cum now,
cum so hard that
the life flies from your body, the best and last ejaculation of your life...

Ejaculating such a thick load of semen
was agonizing.

It was dragged from
her in a solid mass,
massaged forth by Pai's muscles. Lavi cried out and clung to Pai as the strength fled her body.
She came for such a long time that it felt as though she had been cast into an eternal hell. Lavi's magic allowed her to feel her semen flooding into Pai
and fertilizing the eggs
within her womb...

She didn't know how long she stayed like that, held in Pai's snake tail. Demons are only summoned to perform a single task, which meant that the time had come for Pai to return to hell. Lavi's soul screamed out with unfulfilled wishes to be with Pai for longer, to be controlled like that again, and of course the demon lord did not fail to notice those desires....

"Here, take a look... Snakes actually have two vaginas, you see, and this one is completely different from the first. Don't you want to see what it feels like..?"

Her snake body lifted up, her large, round ass swaying gently from side to side. And just as she said, between the soft mounds of her flesh was another pristine vagina. It glimmered with love juices, and a single golden piercing adorned it.

Lavi of course understood what it was that Pai was offering.

"Yes, you get it, don't you? If you offer me your soul, you can have me any time you want, for all of eternity. You can fuck my front, my back, my breasts too, even my ass."

Lavi's ability to reason shattered. Her penis was once again painfully erect and moving ever towards Pai's ass.

"Yes! I... I offer you my soul..! So please, let me put my semen in you, Pai!"

Intoning the oath that no human should ever make, Lavi began to thrust her hips forward.

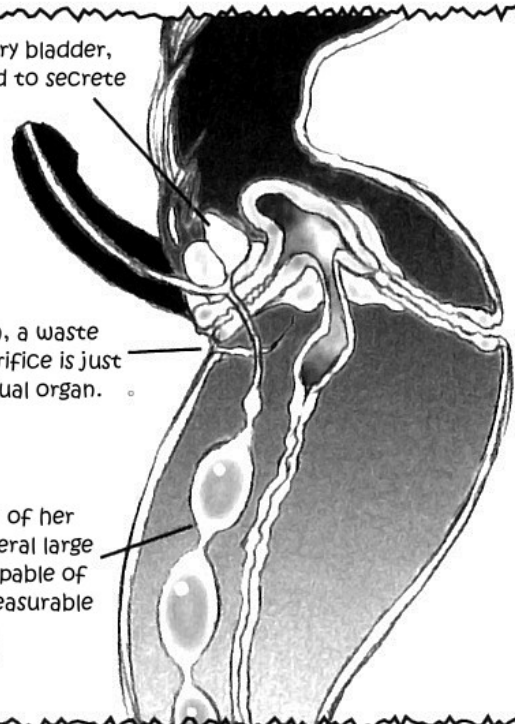

Pai's Anatomy

The great sex demon Pai=Rji=Chell has an anatomy like that of a snake's. Her two vaginas join to share a single womb which spreads downward into her tail which serves as a birth canal. With that said, the tip of the tail connects to this birth canal, meaning that the entire tail itself could be used to accept an exceptionally large penis...or other things.

This is not a urinary bladder, but is instead used to secrete sexual fluids.

For a demon, a waste excretion orifice is just another sexual organ.

The snake portion of her body contains several large testes that are capable of producing an immeasurable amount of semen.

With just a simple motion, Pai's soft, supple flesh would bounce and sway enough to stimulate Lavi's penis. Pai had not used her enchantment on Lavi, so she would cum every few thrusts, immediately continuing once she finished ejaculating as she drowned in pleasure.

As Lavi seemed to be pouring her life into her semen, Pai too was enjoying womanly bliss. Her breasts were being crushed under their weight as vast quantities of milk gushed forth.

Eventually they began to descend from the material plane, passing through the spirit realm and into hell. The still living Lavi spent her days continuing to pour semen into Pai, creating a constant stream of demon children.

Even if her life as a human should end, Pai had hold of her soul. Lavi was bound to Pai for eternity as her sex slave.

And thus Lavi's adventure came to an end.
