Afterword

Thank you for purchasing "Kaa-san Will Wear Anything" ...
I mean "Kaa-san Will Do Anything, Round 1".

This issue is composed of scenes and situations that had to be cut out or couldn't fit into the main story of "Nine to Five Lover". Quite some time has passed since the last "Nine to Five" volume, and well, from last year's spring there were all sorts of things like "Unmoor!! Yamato Depart!!!" and "Pantzer Vor!!!!" ...Well, I guess recent events are not something to talk about. ♪

In any case, I decided to create a new series where I could put in things like previously drawn scenes that were rejected, play that was cut out, things that were drawn without regard to the time sequence, anime cosplay which made Kaa-san cry that it was more embarrassing than being naked, play and situations that I've yet to draw or that can't be put into the main work because of consistency. By doing this, I can rediscover the heroine's charm and get MY motivation up and going!

But when I showed an unannounced draft to a few people, I got things like "XYZ might be trouble", "I feel some resistance to prostate massage", "Not interested in titty fucking", "Why is there so much magical-milf cosplay?", "Maternity dress, you say?!", etc. Once it got announced, various complaints came again and there were problematic plays and situations, so you might say that how far this series is going to be able to continue expanding depends on "the passionate support from every open-minded adult" that "finds any situation and play to be yummy♪"

If you say nothing but "don't need this" and "don't need that", there will simply be no sequel at all and nobody's going to benefit. If that happens... there's only Yamato left for me, and then there's "Sailor Moon" starting in autumn, so it'll be a farewell to Kaa-san for some time!

...well, I think it's about time to cut it out, but these days I'm thinking that I'd like to go on by giving a modest effort and somehow maintain a motivation to write a sequel.
