THIS WAS MY FIRST ATTEMPT, HOW WAS IT?

I found myself with a ton of pictures I wanted to draw and a lot of ideas for books that I wanted to make. As it is though, I prefer making shorter stories over longer ones because I don't find them too hard to finish... so overall the idea for this series seemed like it would be a good fit for me. Even if it didn't work out, I felt like I wanted to try it out anyway, so I did. I spent two weeks on it with it coming out just under 28 pages long. So far I find it really promising and I'm hoping I get to make more. I've got a lot of colored pages and more stories to go with them, both erotic and otherwise. I want to make something with variety. Eventually I might release all the stories one at a time, but for now going in to the summer I'm just planning one or two more volumes like this one. So with that, thank you and please enjoy this and future releases of "Shounen Zoom".

Abandoned buildings + Shotas

This story kind of developed out of wanting to draw a lot of shotas in abandoned places. I originally imagined it as a small full-color story, but When I was putting together Shounen Zoom I thought that the length of the stories and its style really fit. So I decided to include it. This particular chapter is set in an abandoned railroad car. I tried to couple it with a conversation between two characters after their first 'gay experience' together. Realistically the idea of doing those things in such a dusty place probably isn't a very good one, but the concept is fun so I was happy to do it.

BOIGRAPH

By the way, for those who didn't notice... The photographer in this story is from a previous work I released titled "Motorcycles". He's The lead character, Kurosawa-kun.

I hadnt intended to include any characters from that book. with that said, unloading characters I had planned for that story isn't really the purpose of this series. Including him doesn't really have anything to do with 'shotacon' but Its too late now. (lol) Though, now that I added him, I have a reason to center this series around illustrations included at the beginning of each volume.

Erotic & Bittersweet

Sugiyama-Senpai & Amano-kun

Boys in Badminton Club

This story is supposed to be happy, sad, heartwarming, and slightly erotic all at the same time. I kind of want it to be more 'erotic' and not 'pornographic' but I'm finding that pretty hard to do. I'm gonna keep trying to draw characters who seem like they actually belong in a badminton club. You don't really see a lot of shota comics about kids in badminton club, so I'm having to reference my own past experiences

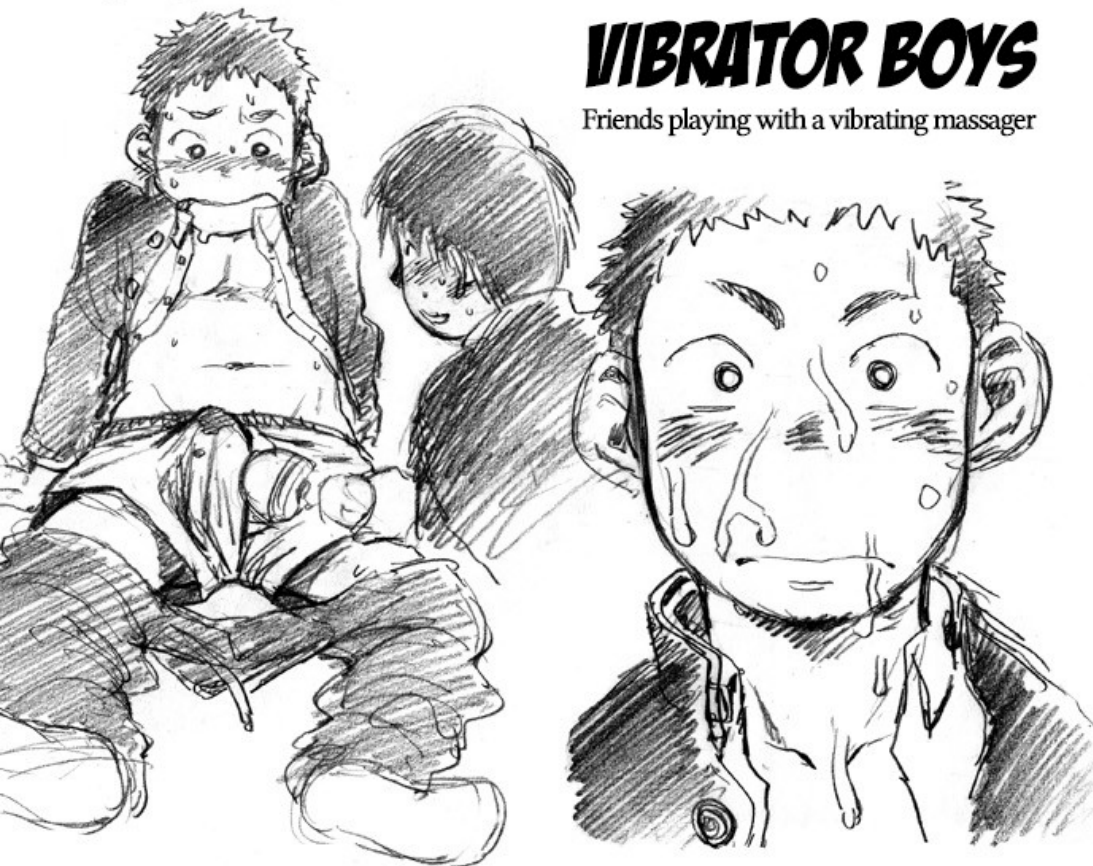

If I had to say anything else I'd say that it does eventually get easier for kids who are as unathletic as Amano-kun.

Well, lets see how this story develops!

A Relatively Daily Release

This story originally started out as something I was posting on twitter. During my lunch-breaks at work I would draw a frame and post it online. At the time I wasn't really planning on making a proper manga out of it, but after I started this project, I reconsidered. It was originally drawn in pencil and didnt have much 'atmosphere', so I worked to improve that along with its overall quality.

I focused heavily on their school uniforms, boxers, and facial expressions. I've really started liking the look of doing stuff like this in a school uniform. It looks so cool, right? School uniforms... Ahh School uniforms!! I've really started to have a fetish for clothing.

Shounen Zoom

I'm not sure if I'm ready for a series that I work on everyday. Of course, I'll still post updates and sketches on Twitter though. I'll also still post draft pages and stuff on Pixiv, so definitely check that out too. I'm in the process of setting up a blog specifically for 'Shounen Zoom' but there are still some changes I want to make to get it just right.

So with that, I think that's about it for this book. To everyone who follows me on Pixiv, and everyone who has helped me get this far, thank you so much. I hope you've enjoyed Shounen Zoom. Vol.2 will be coming soon. I can't wait to hear your thoughts.
