This truly unique creature reaches the peak of its fertility only once a year on the eve of a full moon.

Thought to be primarily female, they have formed a symbiotic relationship between themselves and their human male counterparts in which they engage in intercourse for the perpetuation of their own species.

This creature -a chimera of sorts- was born of interbreeding between humans and bats.

Seen here, the female entices a male human to breed.

FOR AS LONG AS ANYONE CAN REMEMBER, THIS TOWN'S HAD THIS TRADITION...

THAT WHEN THAT DAY COMES, YOU CAN FUCK 'EM AS MUCH AS YOU WANT!

UM...

ははは

Quite astoundingly, they seem to have evolved to the point that they enter their estrous cycles simultaneously, perhaps as a result of environmental pressures that favor their own survival.

WILL YOU... MATE WITH ME?

HOLY SHIT!

DAMN STRAIGHT WE WILL!

DRIP !

The female enters the male stronghold willingly, and the mating ritual begins.

HEHE... THIS IS GONNA BE FUN.

THE GIRL THIS YEAR IS A TOTAL HOTTIE, TOO!

WOW...

THIS AIN'T A SCAM, RIGHT?

THERE'S SO MANY OF THEM...

Scientists believe this kind of man possesses a much higher concentration of pheromones.

Owing to their keen sense of smell, they are easily attracted to men with a particularly pungent scent.

SOUNDS GOOD TO ME!

Scientists have yet to explain how the pupils of these creatures metamorphose into heart-like shapes when they are aroused.

I had fun doing this.

The goal of this release for April Fools, was to try and inject some fun with narration boxes. Only a few of the boxes present (mainly the ones on the first 3 pages) are actually present in the raws.

I was inspired by ragdoll's bogan translation and wanted to do something similar, without being too intrusive with my trolling. Everything is translated correctly, and you can simply ignore the narration boxes if you want.

That was refreshing.

It was more a commentary than a rewrite, if that's what some people thought it was. We're all for the giggles, and this was fun to work on.
