

Lately, he's been struggling with insomnia.

Yoshimura Hajime.

*For some reason, he gets sleepy at work!

Thanks to that, his performance reviews are on an all time low.

he will see the morning sun creeping through his window before he's had a chance to even catch a wink

But more often than not,

"Sleep! Sleep!" he chants in his head while laying on his bed caving in and masturbating anyway.

not masturbating,

masturbating,

relaxing with ambient music and aromatherapy,

getting into bed an hour before bedtime,

Exercising before going to bed,

He's tried everything to help him get to sleep.

And it all resulted in...

Replaced his onahole.

He researched mattresses that could be a better match for him.

Every time he got wind that there was a new model, he'd rush out to buy it.

Especially his pillow.

He even changed the bedding.

very soft...

very...

It doesn't necessarily have to be a pillow.

It just needs to be somewhat similar.

Get your act together, Yoshimura!

a completely...

Something very soft...

that he has yet to try...

I'd have to get one with industrial grade softness though.

...It has to be the pillow...

Maybe if I got a body-pillow...?

That means it's ok, right?!

...Understand?

If it was okay with you, I'd love to make you my wife right now!

I am!

A-Are you... serious?

I wasn't joking...!

I said I'd take responsibility, didn't I...?!

Huh?!

...What if I get pregnant...?!

...I'm going to cum inside, alright...?!

bigger... aga-...!

Auh!

Inside me...It's getting...

I'm cumming!

I'm cumming!

Nh!

Inside you, Hatsumi...!

...Nh!

Hatsumi...! I'm cumming!!

I'm-!

Nnh!
