

Lately, he's been struggling with insomnia.

Yoshimura Hajime.

「はくはく」

Wake up!

Yoshi-mura!

Ha!

*For some reason, he gets sleepy at work!

Thanks to that, his performance reviews are on an all time low.

he will see the morning sun creeping through his window before he's had a chance to even catch a wink

But more often than not,

"Sleep! Sleep!" he chants in his head while laying on his bed caving in and masturbating anyway.

not masturbating,

masturbating,

relaxing with ambient music and aromatherapy,

getting into bed an hour before bedtime,

Exercising before going to bed,

He's tried everything to help him get to sleep.

And it all resulted in...

Replaced his onahole.

He researched mattresses that could be a better match for him.

Every time he got wind that there was a new model, he'd rush out to buy it.

Especially his pillow.

He even changed the bedding.

very soft...

It doesn't necessarily have to be a pillow.

It just needs to be somewhat similar.

Get your act together, Yoshimura!

a completely...

Something very soft...

that he has yet to try...

I'd have to get one with industrial grade softness though.

...It has to be the pillow...

Maybe if I got a body-pillow...?

very...

All of it...!

Yeah...

Fuh!

...It's coming out inside me...?

I'm pouring all of my semen inside you, Hatsumi!

How many more times do I need to say it...?

Fuh!

Were you seriously... serious...?

I know, but... you're always so half-hearted that I just can't tell when you're serious...

He's already asleep? Stupid Nii?

I think... I can sleep now...

Huh?!

...Ah! I got really sleepy all of a sudden...

Huh?!

Hey...?

Uuh!

Uh!

It's twitching...

Nh...!

Ah...

Oof!

Oh!
