In order to cooperate the Pluto science researchers further, Philana accepted philter injection voluntarily within the safe dose to show different style of graceful bearing of earth female. This activity would be conducted in Philana's bedroom secretly. Any medium wouldn't be allowed to report it live. ----- Planet Daily

The ambassador's private note: The Philter contained special drugs, she wouldn't get orgasm within 12 hours. I must make the bitch to taste some bitterness!
----- The ambassador

The ambassador's private note: In the bedroom, the bitch played the same old trick again. She exposed her gigantic, thickly-hairy female genitalia, trying to flirt scientific researchers. However nobody reacted to her this time. After the effects of the drug began, she masturbated.

----- The ambassador

The ambassador's private note: Four hours passed, Philana has masturbated 28 times. During the masturbation, she kept wailing, but her expressions were very jolly. In madness, she placed scientific researchers on her labia without permission. She was even gonna stuff the researchers into her vagina! That right gave me the veil of punishing her further... ----- The ambassador

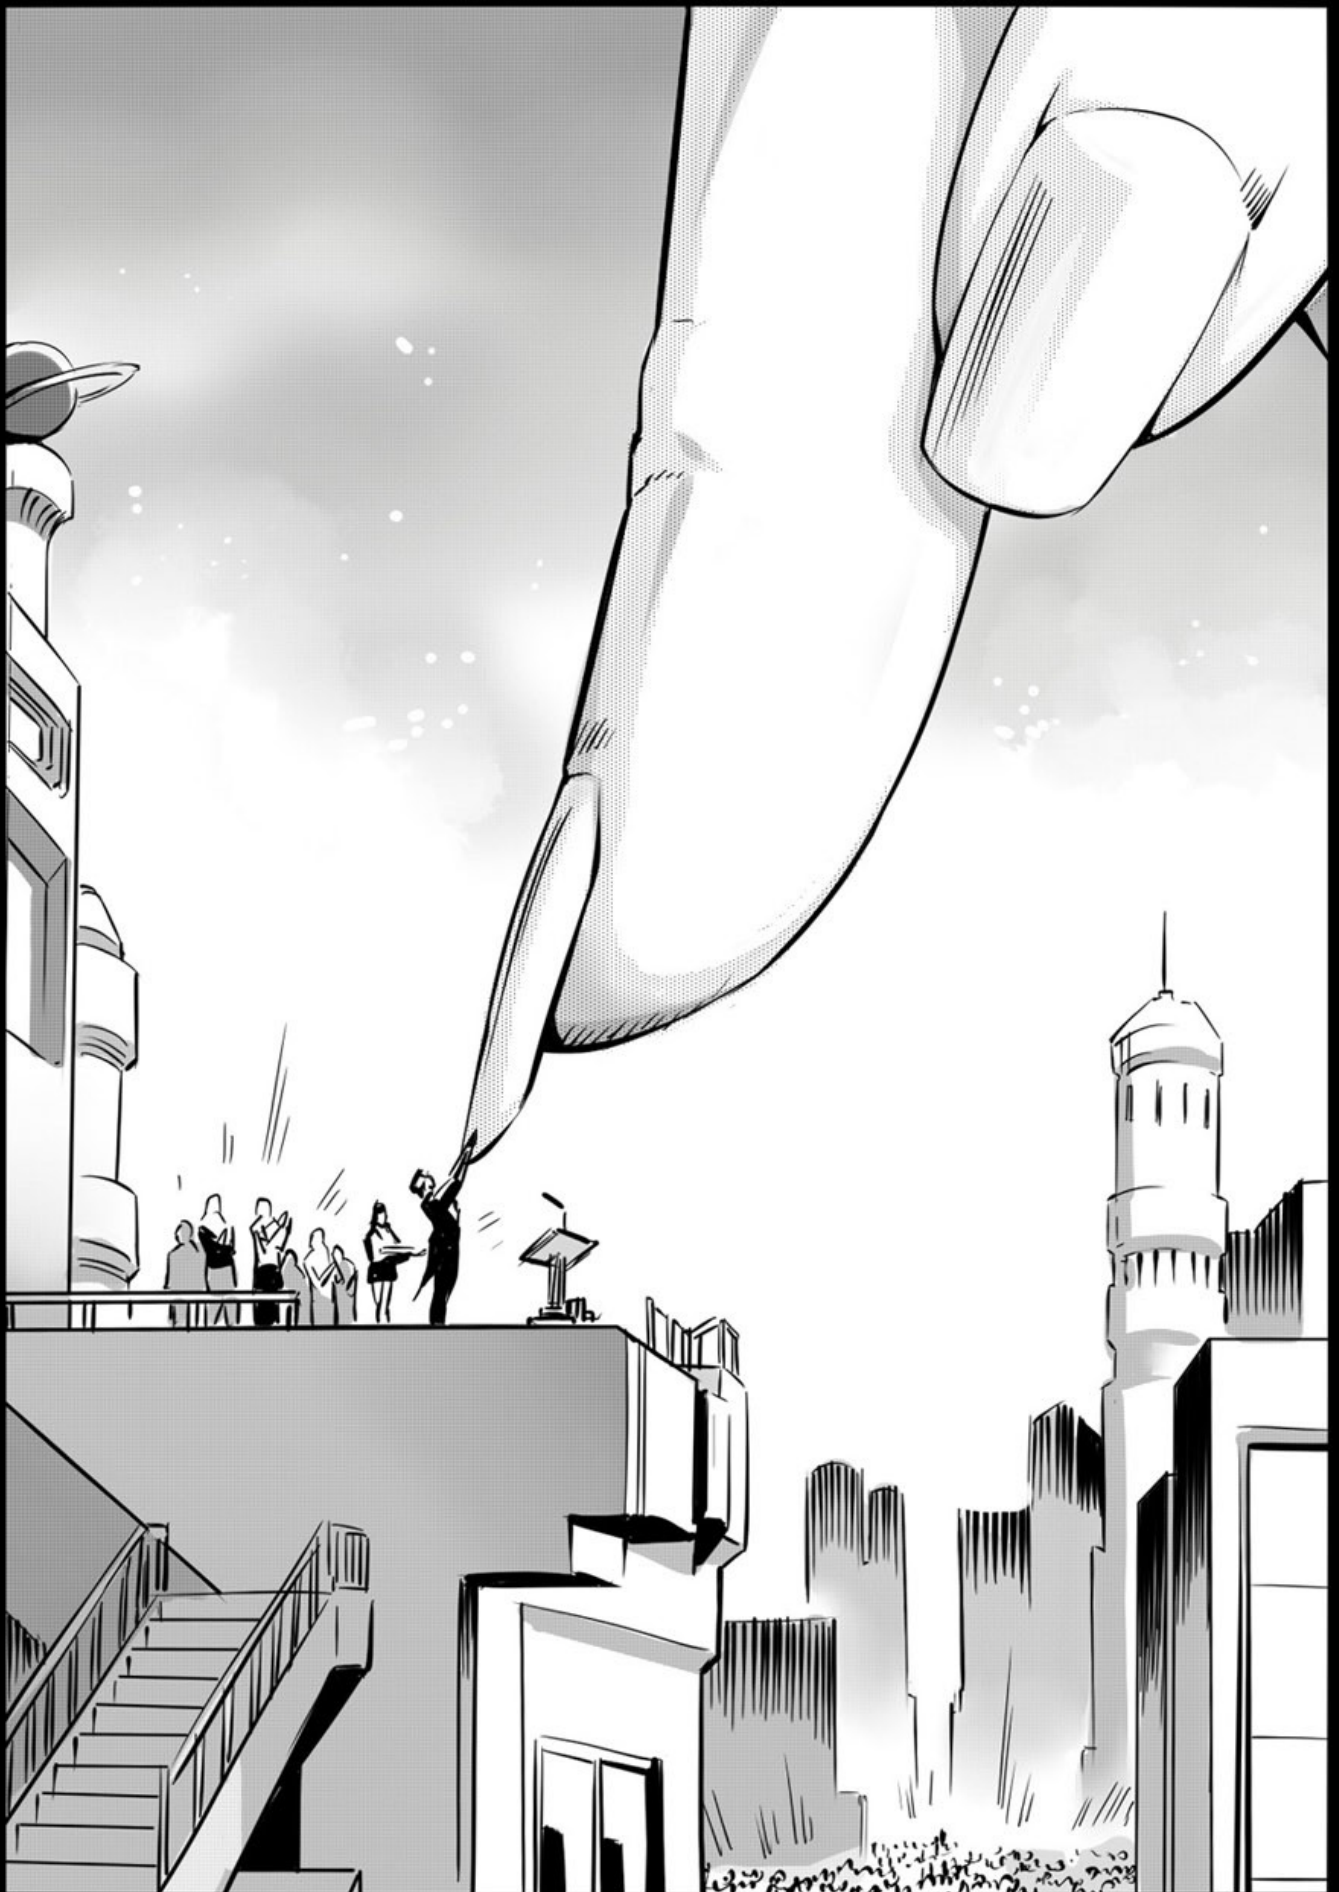

The ambassador's private note: Received the weft from our embassy, the earthman personnel controlled Philana and apologized to us. Afterwards, they punished her with electric-shock stick. The electric torment went on for half an hour, and it ended in Philana's roars, which are mixed with pain and excitement. I was very satisfied of earthmen's deeds. ----- The ambassador

started the interplanetary friendly visit. ----- Planet Daily

August 30th, Philana reached Pluto. She showed earthmen's sex activities to Pluto populace. The authorities granted her special laurel of using the local landmark as her masturbating tool! The best performance of getting orgasm in duration of 12 hours long brought her high recognition from the local populace. The earth side also stated that they would still send her to visit Pluto in the future to boost the friendship among interplanetary residents. ----- Planet Daily

August 31st, after finishing interaction with dozens of Pluto civilians, Philana was granted of honorary citizen and countess. The federation ambassador declared this interplanetary friendly visit completed perfectly. It was reported that Philana would return next day before dawn by spaceship. ----- Planet Daily

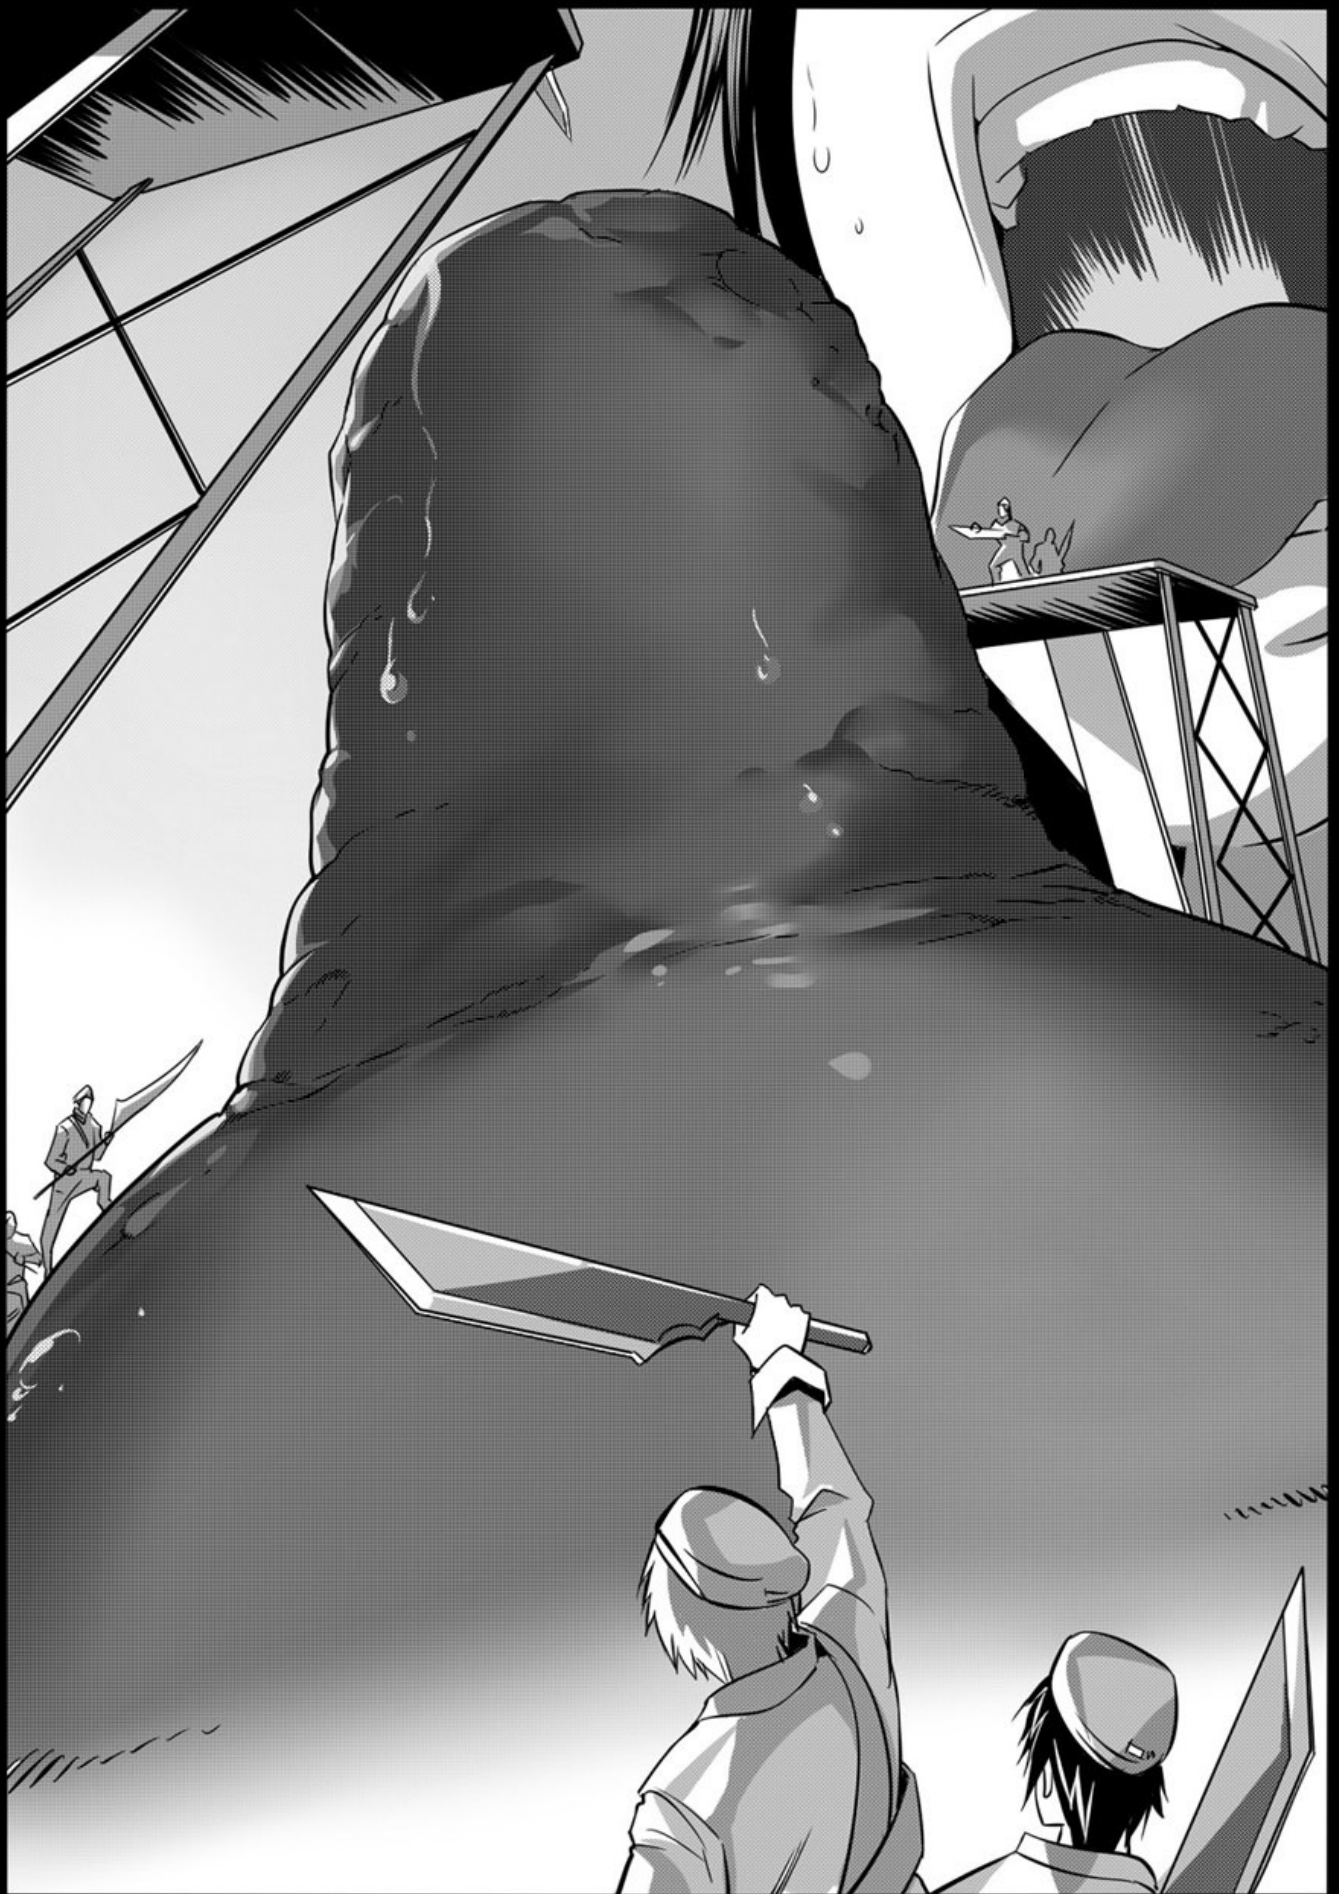

Wee hours, September 1st, comrade Philana's spaceship encountered Radical organization's block and was forced to land, while passing Uranus. She was humiliated afterwards. Pluto government army got to the local spot to rescue her right after the event happened, sadly they met severe resistance. The battle has continued two days, and the two sides are still fighting at present! Subsequent news will be reported by our news channel in time. ----- Planet Daily

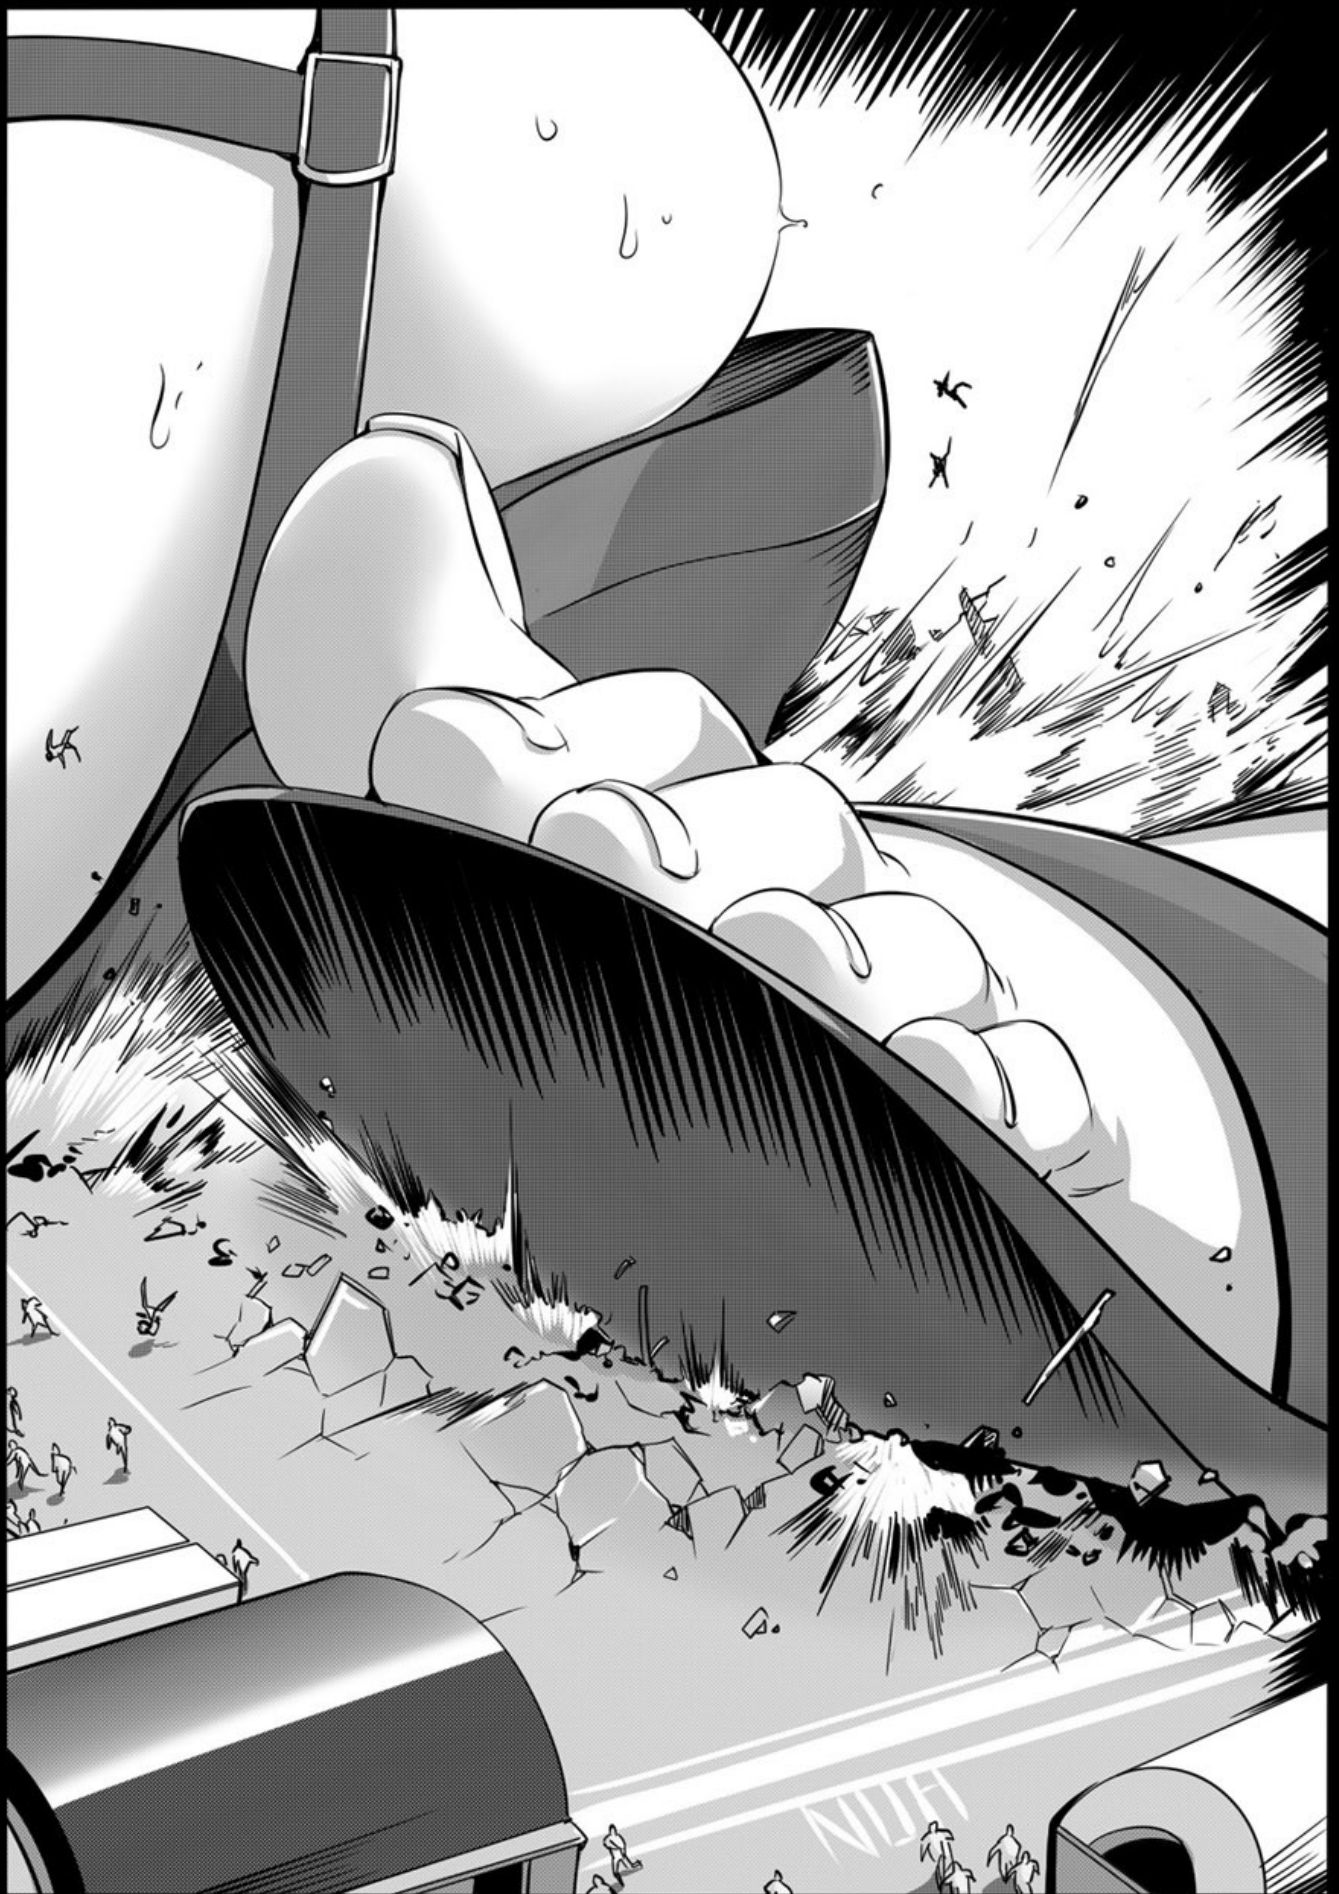

At 18:40 PM September 4th , Pluto government army had to retreat under fierce firepower of the radical organization and Uranus rebels. After that, the radicals injected Philana with overdosed A516, so that Philana is lewdized completely by now. Pluto government had contacted earth side before our reporting. The two sides will carry out combined rescue action.

----- Planet Daily

“ Trying to torture her further, which was chopping off her tits, was really the biggest mistake in our lives! We have now calmed down.... No doubt! She was waiting for a chance, and we provided it for her stupidly...”

----- Pluto radicals

We were thinking her to be merely a lascivious bitch, so we relaxed vigilance to her... Thus, when we were attempting to cut her tits and she went ballistic to destroy our base, everybody didn't reacted to realize what's up. Those warrior who gathered on her breasts were crushed into powder in a split second. How horrible it was! Earth female warriors are too scary....." ----- Pluto radicals

Please forgive our mistake, earth folks... I have to say that comrade Philana is the most powerful and most wise female warrior as far as I know in my whole life. Not only did she defuse the efficacy of A516, but also she removed the radicals' base very easily while masturbating. That's indeed...
