AFTERWORD

Hello, Rocket Monkey here.
Thank you very much for picking up Girigiri Idol 2!

This is my second doujin since I started, and from the title you can guess it's a continuation of my previous one, [Girigiri Idol].

How was it? I'm feeling the producer's existence has gotten too weak. For those who haven't read the first one and think that too, go pick and read my previous work! (publicity!!) Toranoana has the volumes, please help if you can.

Later on Twitter I'll be making a very short story about Girigiri Idol so drop by if you can.

After the Twitter, I think I'll be drawing next about Ayane and the producer's relationship, but in the end she'll be having sex with other guys haha.

But it's really tough, a lot of things have piled up, like moving out to another house. Really, the hardest thing to do after changing the environment is picking up the pace again.

But well, I'm still writing, the sleepiness is getting serious so I'll be taking my leave here...

From now on I'm counting on your support!
