● Character Introduction ●

The Immoral Series

Because of his parents' circumstances, Tonegawa Masato was forced to move to a new area, and after transferring to a new school, had an encounter with fate. That encounter was with the scion of an adult shop, and future AV director Tsuda Yoshimasa.

"You've got the makings of an M slave."

From his first day at his new school his virgity was mercilessly snatched away, and Masato was caught up in numerous dirty acts. Just as Yoshimasa said, bondage, enemas, AV shooting, secret play in the middle of class, and being on the receiving end of rape many times waited for him. The feast of obscenities expanded to the entire class, the entire school, even to the entire region; the circle of male bonding spread everywhere.

All the men's penises in the world relished this flowery theater, and now the curtain will rise on this rape drama once again...

Which is to say this is a gag manga.

インモラルシリーズとは

とゆうギャグ漫画です。

Tsuda Yoshimasa
One of the story's main characters, though his acts mark him as a villain. His strike zone ranges from little boys to young men to old people. In time will become the manager of his parents' in-home adult shop, and his specialties are sex toy use and bondage.

Tonegawa Masato
One of the story's main characters and vital sexual assault participant. Has a reputation for having the highest level of adaptability, having lost all sense of wonder about unfettered play. "Ah yeah, I'm used to their irresponsibility"

Kitano Daigorou
Though he has a human form, in reality he is a mysterious life form. Lived on an uninhabited island, but left for human lands in order to pursue his courtship of Yamashita Ikumi. A relatively normal person.

Yamashita Ikumi
An existence born for the purpose of being violated. Is not at all accustomed to these deeds, which only invites more rape. He himself is a pussy, who thinks he wants to find love, and has received a marriage proposal from a (male) creature outside the human species.

Pierre Takada Sergeivich
Mixed race child with a good command of mysterious dialects. Is aroused by wearing embarrassing clothes. Loves perversion very much!

Kitano Francois
Daigorou's little brother. A mysterious life form raised as a pet in Pierre's house. Endlessly pursues the asses of young men. Dreams of the future where he deflowers every last man. Secretly respects Yoshimasa.

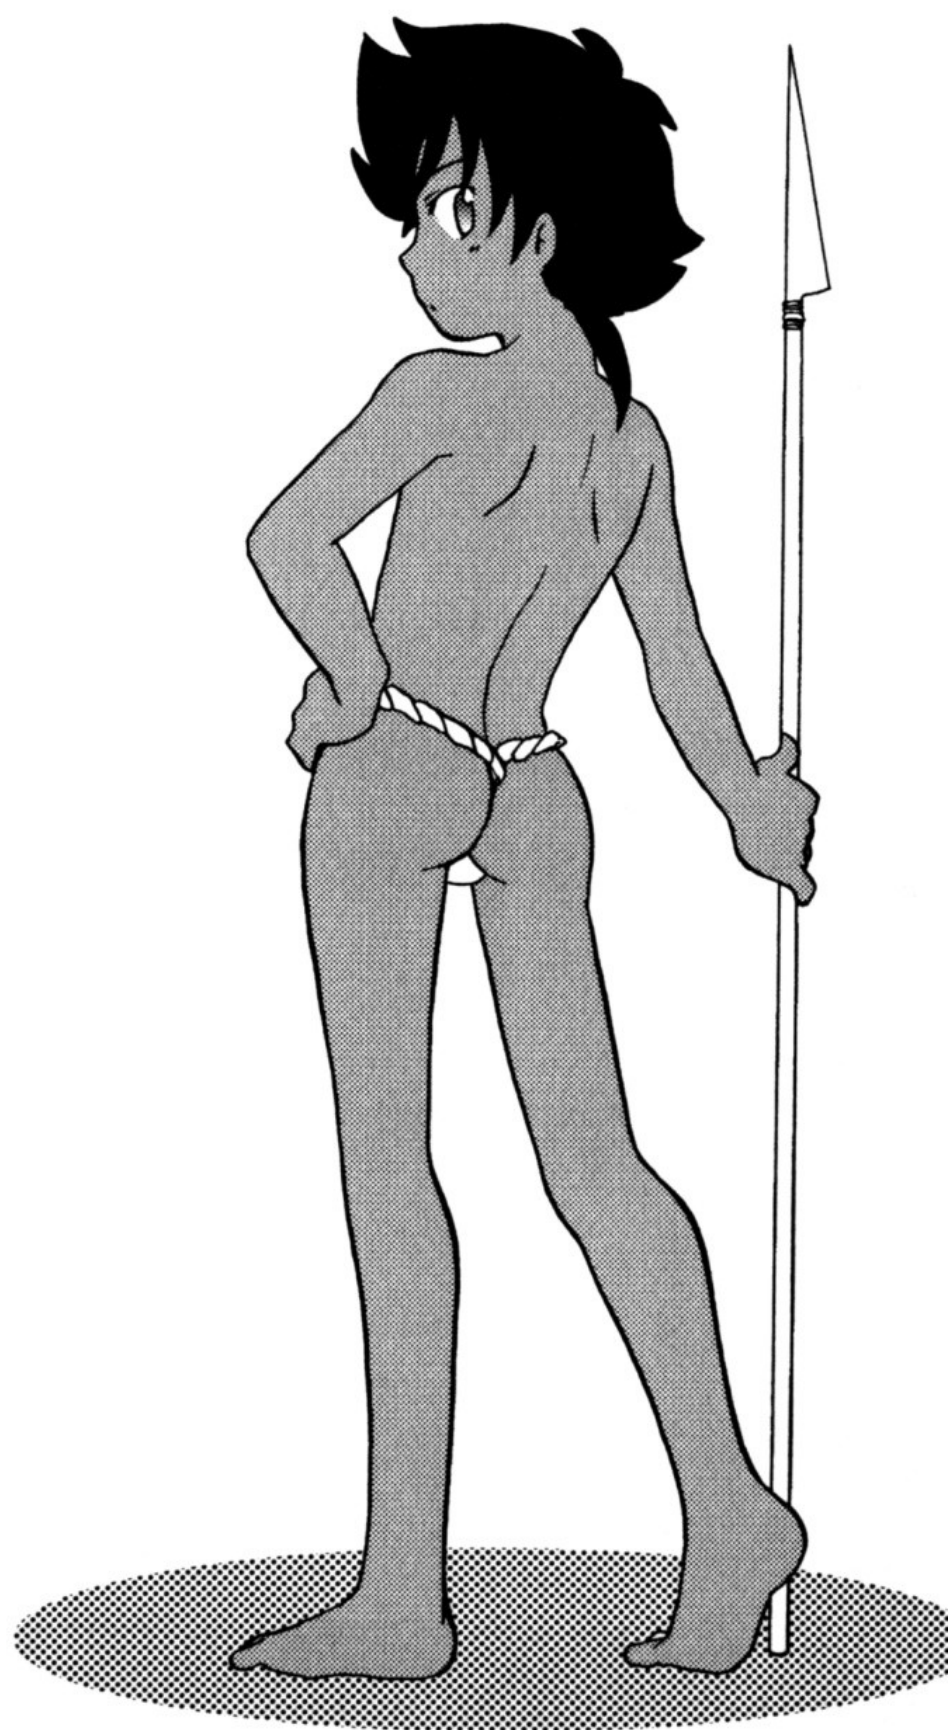

Kobayashi Ryou
The boys' homeroom teacher. The absolute lowest member of the hierarchy, with Headmaster-sensei on the top, his ass being targeted by the house of sodomy and receiving sexual harassment on a daily basis. Can't take his eyes off his students without them coupling up, leading to endless stomach aches. Wracks his brain over what the worth of all the dildos he's confiscated is. As a bride, is generally... very appealing.

Tsuda Hirofumi
Yoshimasa's older brother. Job: AV actor. Lives with no regards to gender. Becomes erect for all targets. Kobayashi-sensei's childhood friend. They got to this point when he stole Kobayashi's virginity as a child, and even now constantly watches for opportunities to prey on Kobayashi's ass.

T/N: The ??? was originally a circle placed over the kanji that would have said if they were in middle school or elementary. However, since Masato doesn't wear a uniform in the last panel they seem to be in elementary, so this takes place well before the final chapter in Immoral Kids. (I say as if any of you even care about continuity)
