Kamemushi's Tentacle Dictionary "Tentacle Desk" "Black Magic"

A desk becomes a catalyst of communicating with the spirit world, and is linked to that through it's openings (such as drawers).

...However, in order to actually communicate with the spirit world, very complicated procedures are necessary.

A supply of magical power with a steady output, a "dark fiber" connection to the spirit world, interdimensional LAN connection, a contract with an ISP demon, etc...

The drawing of a magic square itself is for nothing but acquiring an ID, so in a case of no preparations, nothing will usually happen.

However, since there are also situations like this where a witch sets up a trap, ordinary people should refrain from recklessly attempting to communicate with the spirit world...

Afterword

Thank you very much! Kaminaru Fuyu here. Bare feet are my absolute favourite kind of feet. They are better than knee highs or anything else.

But... Keeping women healthy is more important than that. Therefore, you don't have to endure the cold and reveal your legs during winter...

I want to say "Put on black stockings!"

This time I was able to draw such beloved black stockings and made a winter time book.

Oh yeah, that's right, I tried producing some LINE stamps, so if you don't mind, please try to look for them in the creators' stamps section.

Thank you very much for reading this far!

Although I'm just recently getting into WIXOSS, Green has many cute characters, and it's fun.

Well then, let's meet again!
