

There are many re-searches about child brain develop-ment--

From Piaget theory, we can conclude that childrens' brains can rec-ognize sur-rounding con-versations which leads to language acknowl-edge-ment. children can absorb --

Excuse me

Uh.. May I go out to eat something please~?

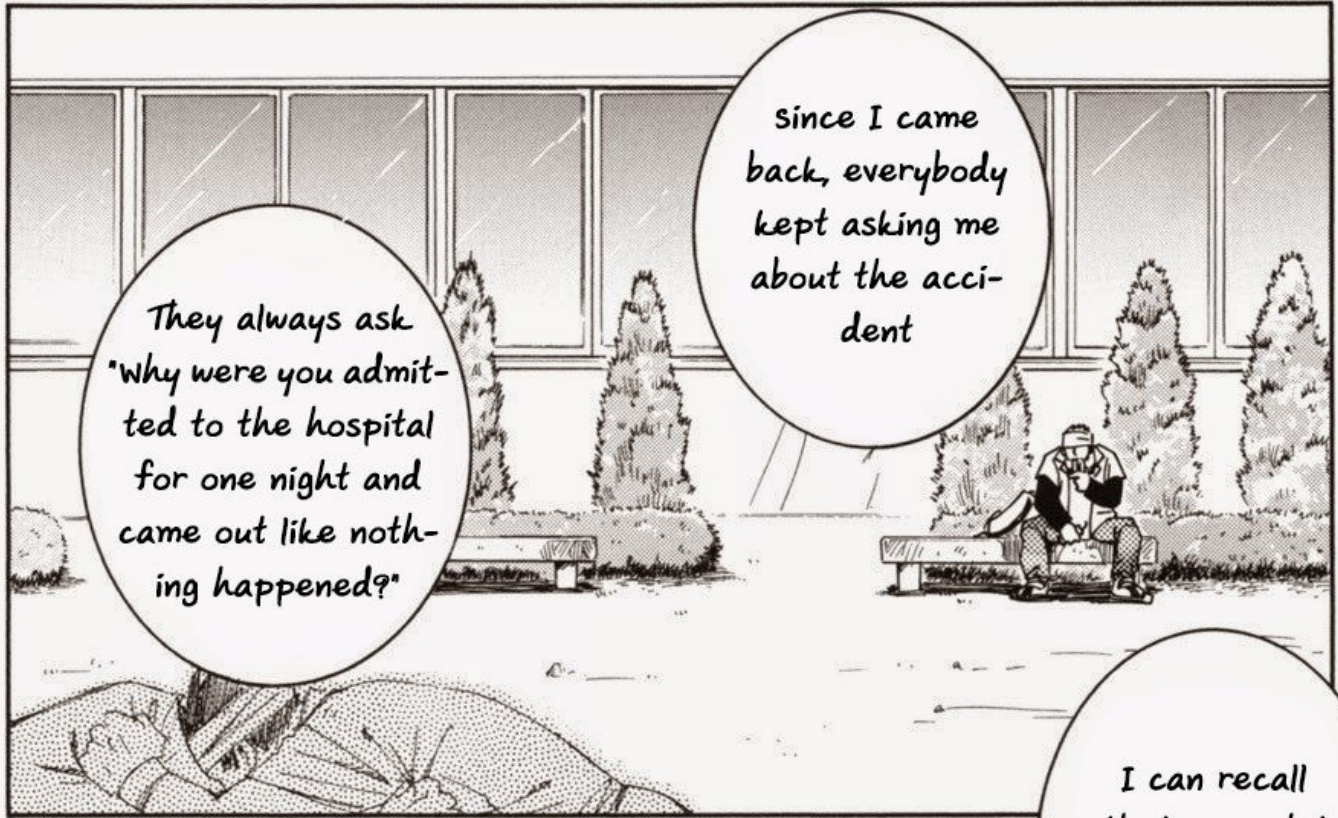

Next time carry a canteen drink.

And did some tapeworm in a nearby child's abdomen not absorb food enough?

Did you skip your breakfast?

They always ask "why were you admitted to the hospital for one night and came out like nothing happened?"

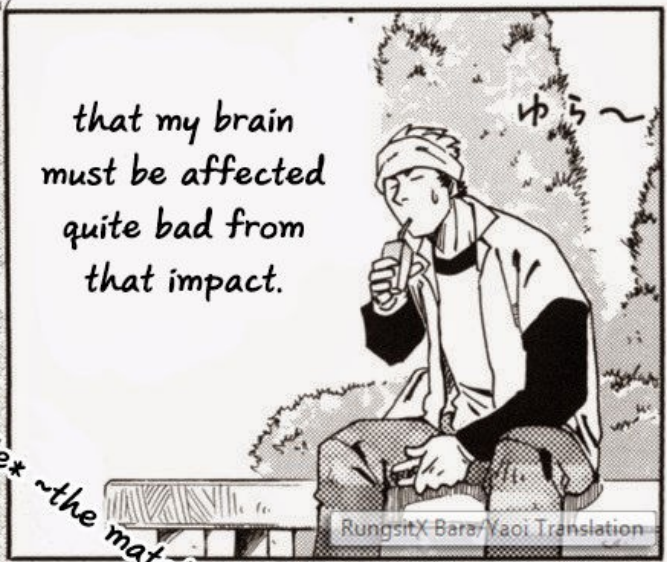

Since I came back, everybody kept asking me about the accident

I can recall that I was hit by a car at that time..

The weird recurring dream ever since the accident, it's too clear..

And also,

that my brain must be affected quite bad from that impact.

Please don't stand on ceremony.

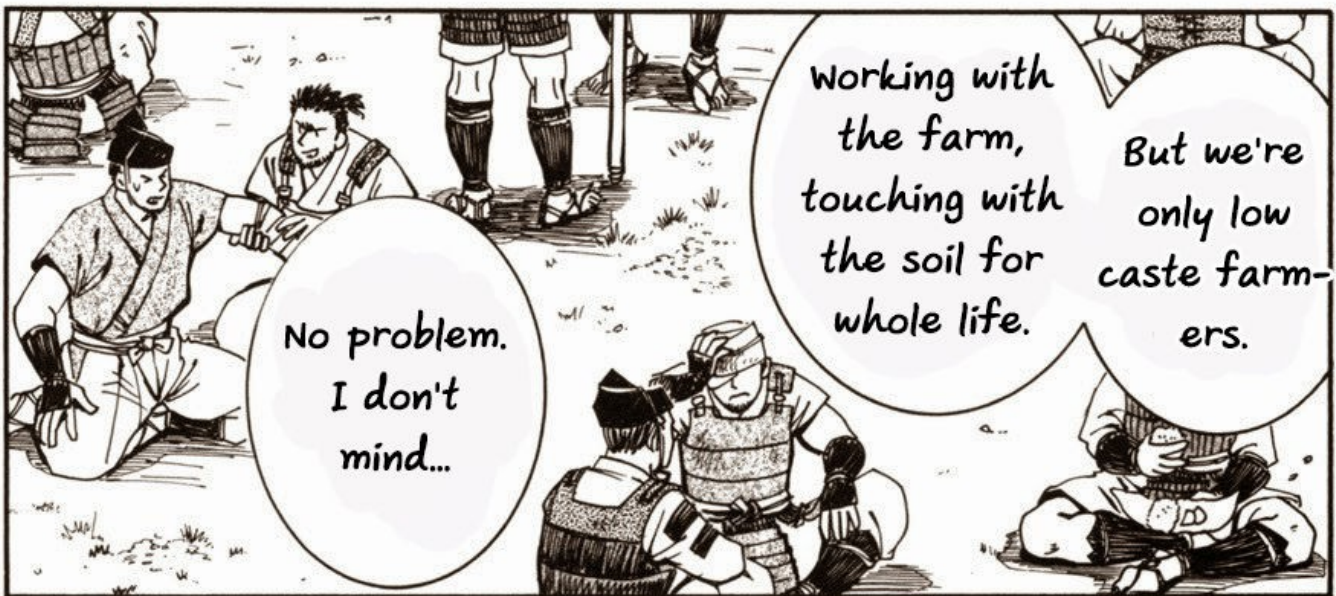

We're here to fight for our motherland together.

You also need something to drink.

Keep the rest.

Eh?

No problem. I don't mind...

Working with the farm, touching with the soil for whole life.

But we're only low caste farmers.

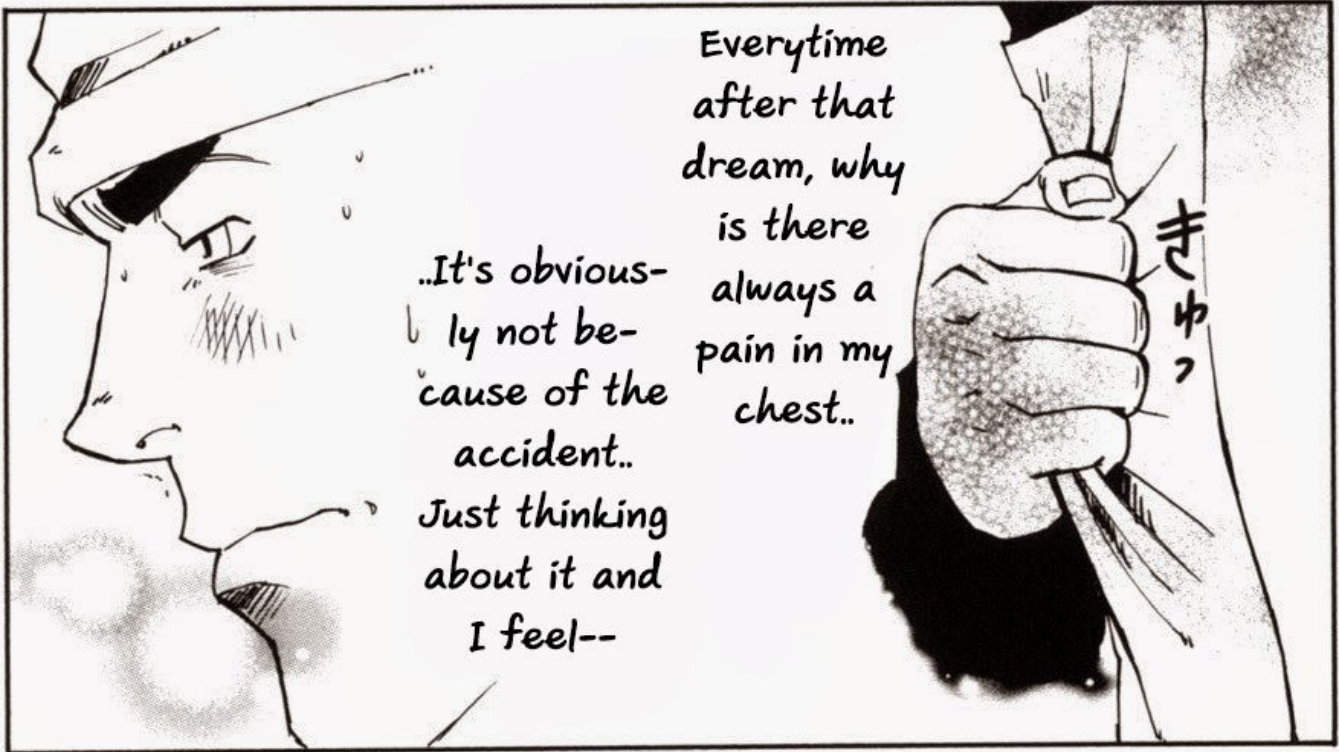

Really?!

The villagers nearby are bringing some provisions to us!

Lieutenant!!

..It's obviously not because of the accident.. Just thinking about it and I feel--

Everytime after that dream, why is there always a pain in my chest..

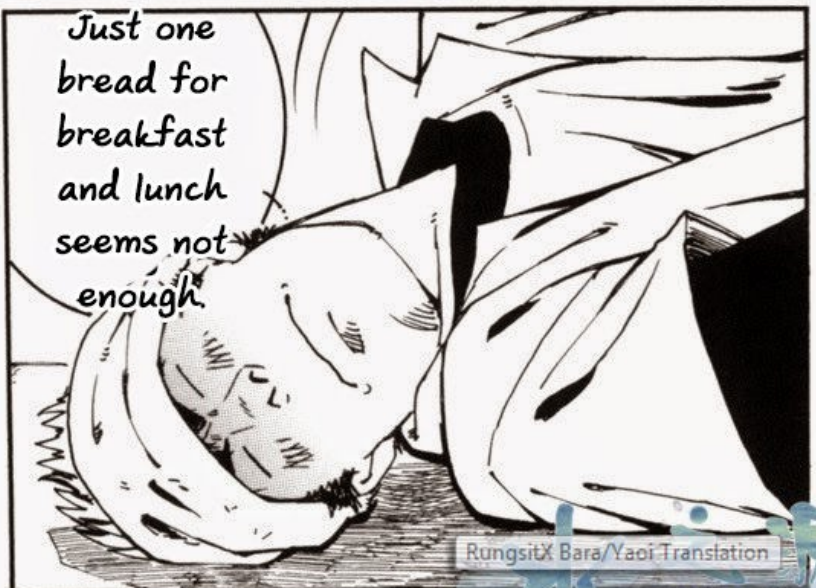

ROWR

so just don't think about it! come back to earth!!!

Need to find something to feed my stomach, and also my...

Just one bread for breakfast and lunch seems not enough.

so the gossip in our university is true.

Whoa~ that was close.

Meh, I've heard that he used to be a gangster ringleader in high-school, a car crash is not going to put him down.

And his motorbike was found completely demolished down the hill but he's miraculously survived without any serious injuries.

like Final Destination?

And so?

Have you ever heard that he was in a serious car accident?

I should crush you guys so you would forget all of that shit!

yeah~ I completely forgot about all of these scuttlebutts.

Arghhhh!! S-S-Sorry!!!!
