hi there~~ (again)
here's the part 2 of this work. seriously, I noticed that I didn't really read the story before translating this... xD Ishio is really dense to no end huh...
*sigh*

it was a happy ending so don't mind the small details right? (including my english, please... OTZ)

I tried using wildjess this time for the font, should be clearer than the other one (I found that one on a translation team forum though...) see ya next time.
