

Wah...?!
G-GOOD...

Hey! Good morning~

Morning

Hey, Misacchi yesterday was like,
totally hilarious!

Eh? Tell me, tell me!

Au...

...What are you doing?
Come on,
stand up.

Well then...
Time for the next page.
Matsuyama,
you read it

Hwuh, er...
Ye- yes...!

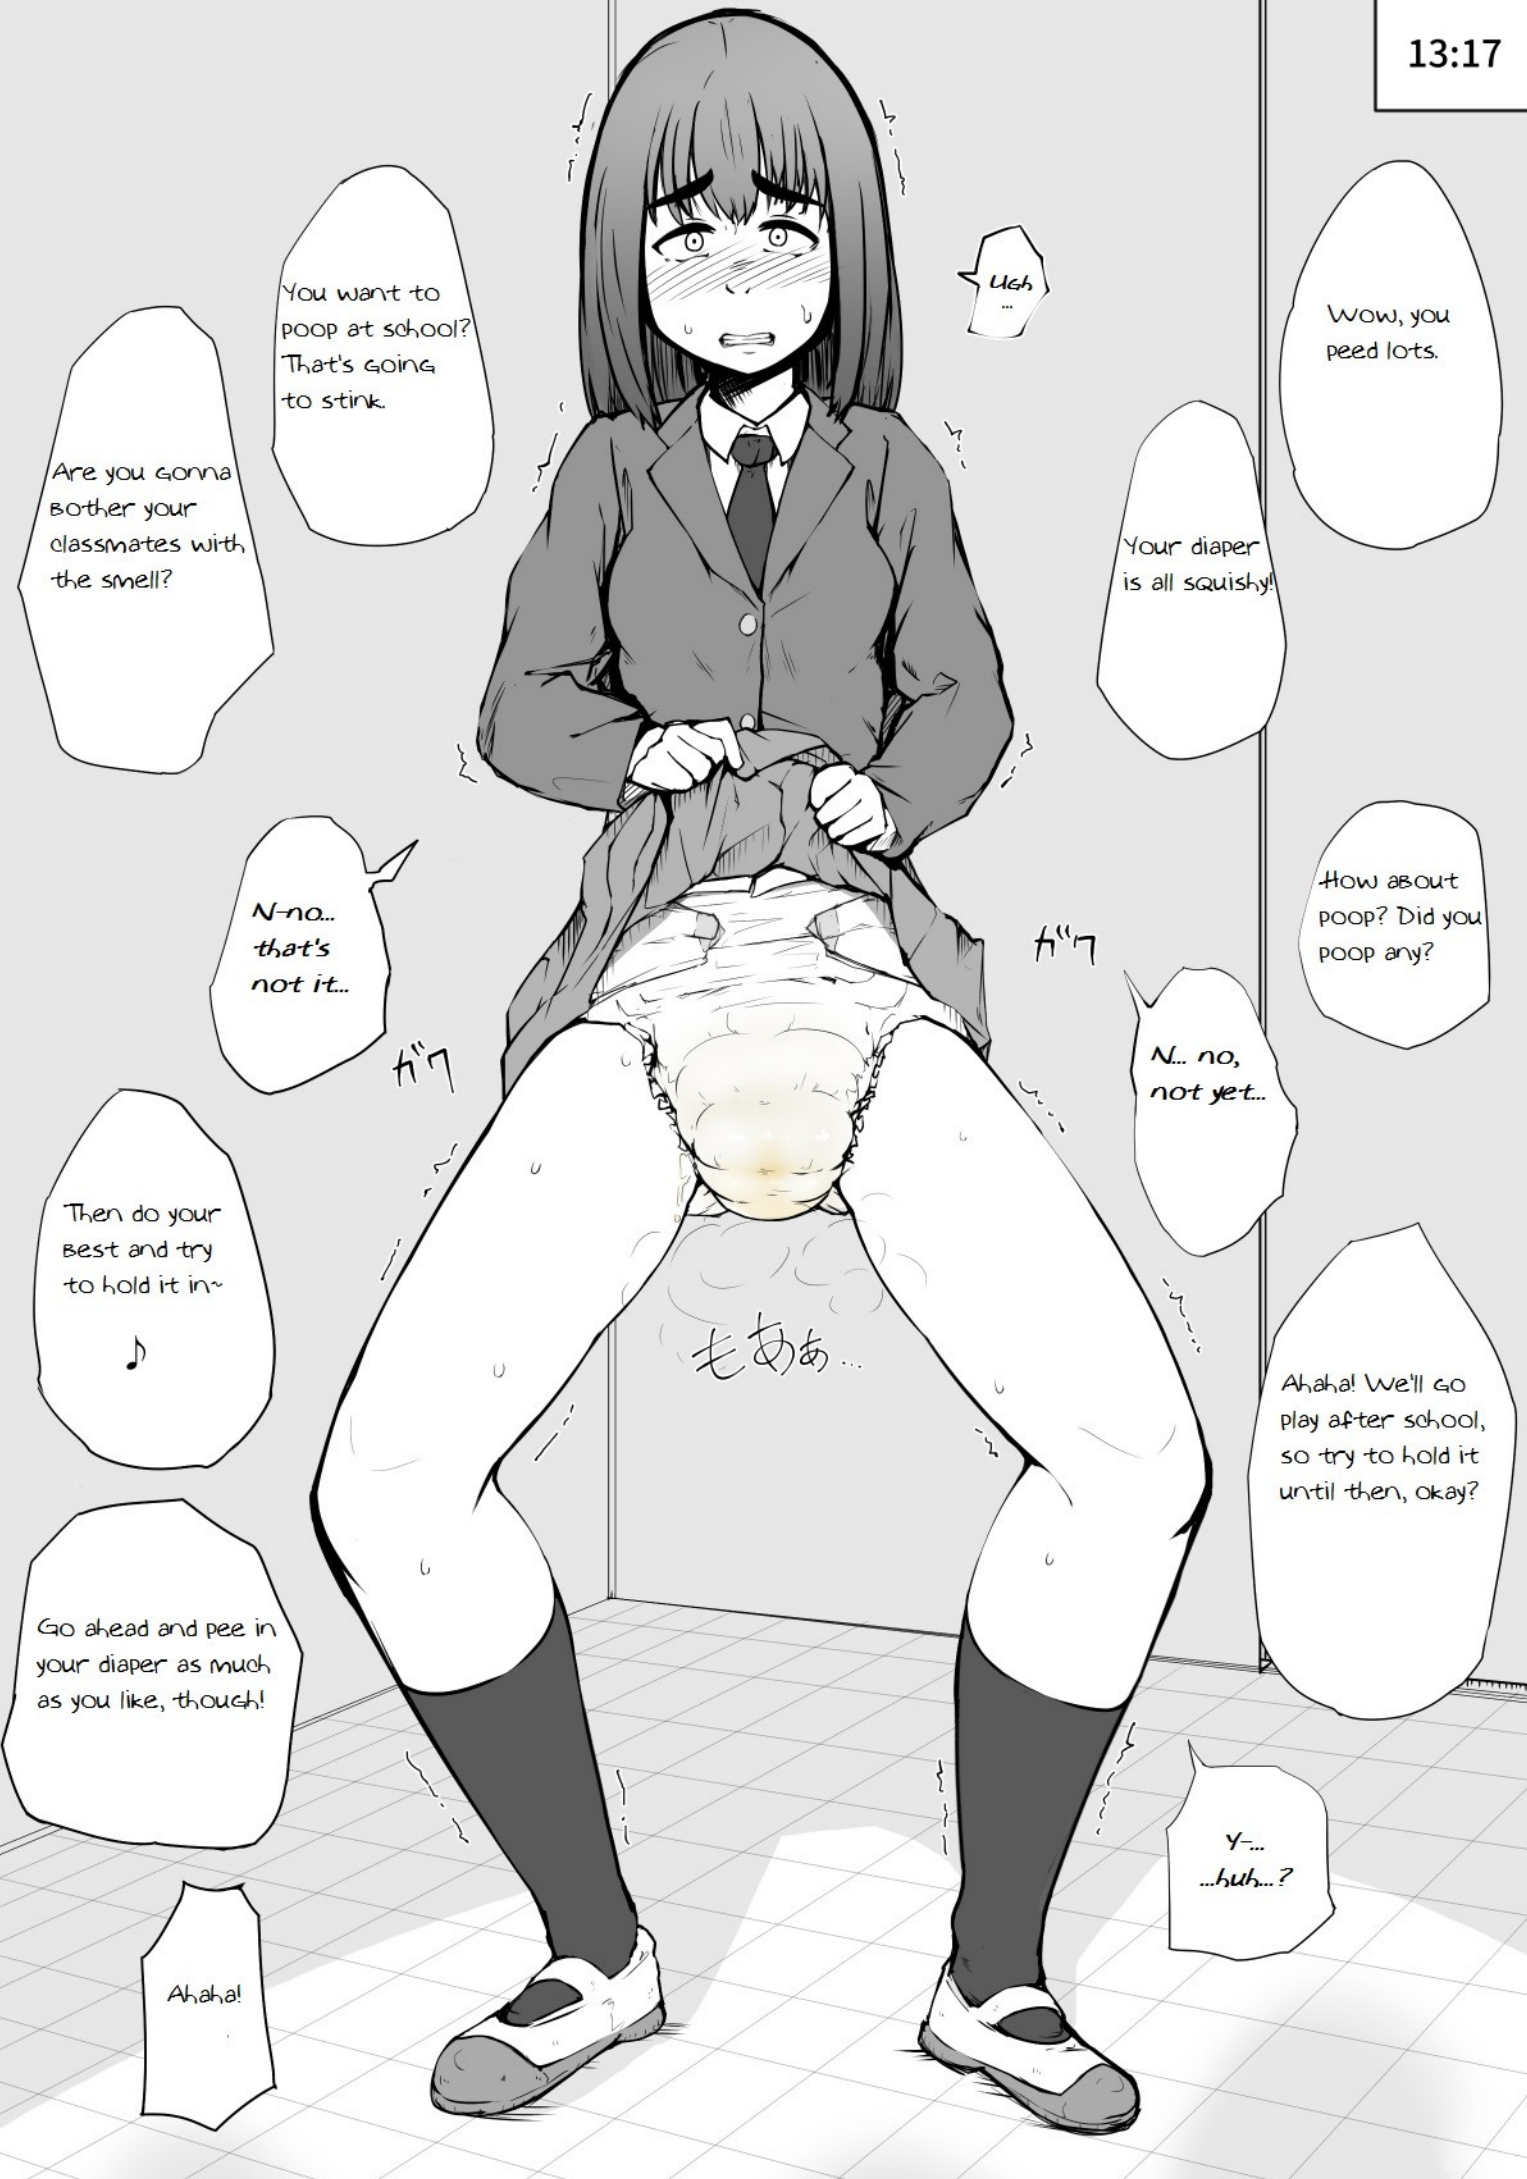

O-oka...
S-sorry...

Aaahhh... not good,
not good.. since I've been holding it in,
lots is coming out...

It won't leak or anything... will it now...?

Uaaahh.... it's so warm and unpleasant...

You want to poop at school? That's going to stink.

Are you gonna bother your classmates with the smell?

Ugh...

Wow, you peed lots.

Your diaper is all squishy!

N-no... that's not it..

How about poop? Did you poop any?

N... no, not yet..

Then do your best and try to hold it in~

アハ

アハ

毛あぁ...

Ahaha! We'll go play after school, so try to hold it until then, okay?

Go ahead and pee in your diaper as much as you like, though!

Y... ..huh...?

Ahaha!

Did you at least say "Hafta poopy!" first?

Eek...!
Ah... uh...

...so, you had a big messy accident, right in front of the children?
Pathetic~ Just how old are you, again?

Ewww, nasty... it's such a mess.

Just what have you been eating, hm?

Oh, eeew... Yumehime-chan is such a little poopybutt~

So dirty~

Eep...
No... I, uh...

Oh, yuck! Now it's starting to leak.

Huhu, you've got it all the way up your back.

Hey, how about we go eat at a restaurant? I'm hungry, so treat me to something.

Oh, but I won't be sitting at your table, obviously.

A somewhat unreliable diaper that starts to leak right away.

A doubled up,
reliable diaper.
However, the thickness of it guarantees that others will notice it.

NO WAY FOR ANY EYCLUSE

...G00-G00
Ga-Ga.

Mmph...

Ngag00gi...
Ga G00...
...mmh...

So, problem #4 will be solved by... Hachiki!

Okay!

Nnh...

How is everyone poing today?

An often encountered issue is that while having accidents is immensely pleasurable to the person in question, the process of it may look unexpectedly subtle, making it easy to miss if viewed from afar.

Although watching your subtle movements and trying to imagine and discern when you are having an accident may be entertaining in its own way...

Here, we will try to come up with a few signs that will allow your mommy/daddy/master to have an easier time telling when you are going.

ニョロ?

...?
What is it,
Matsuyama?

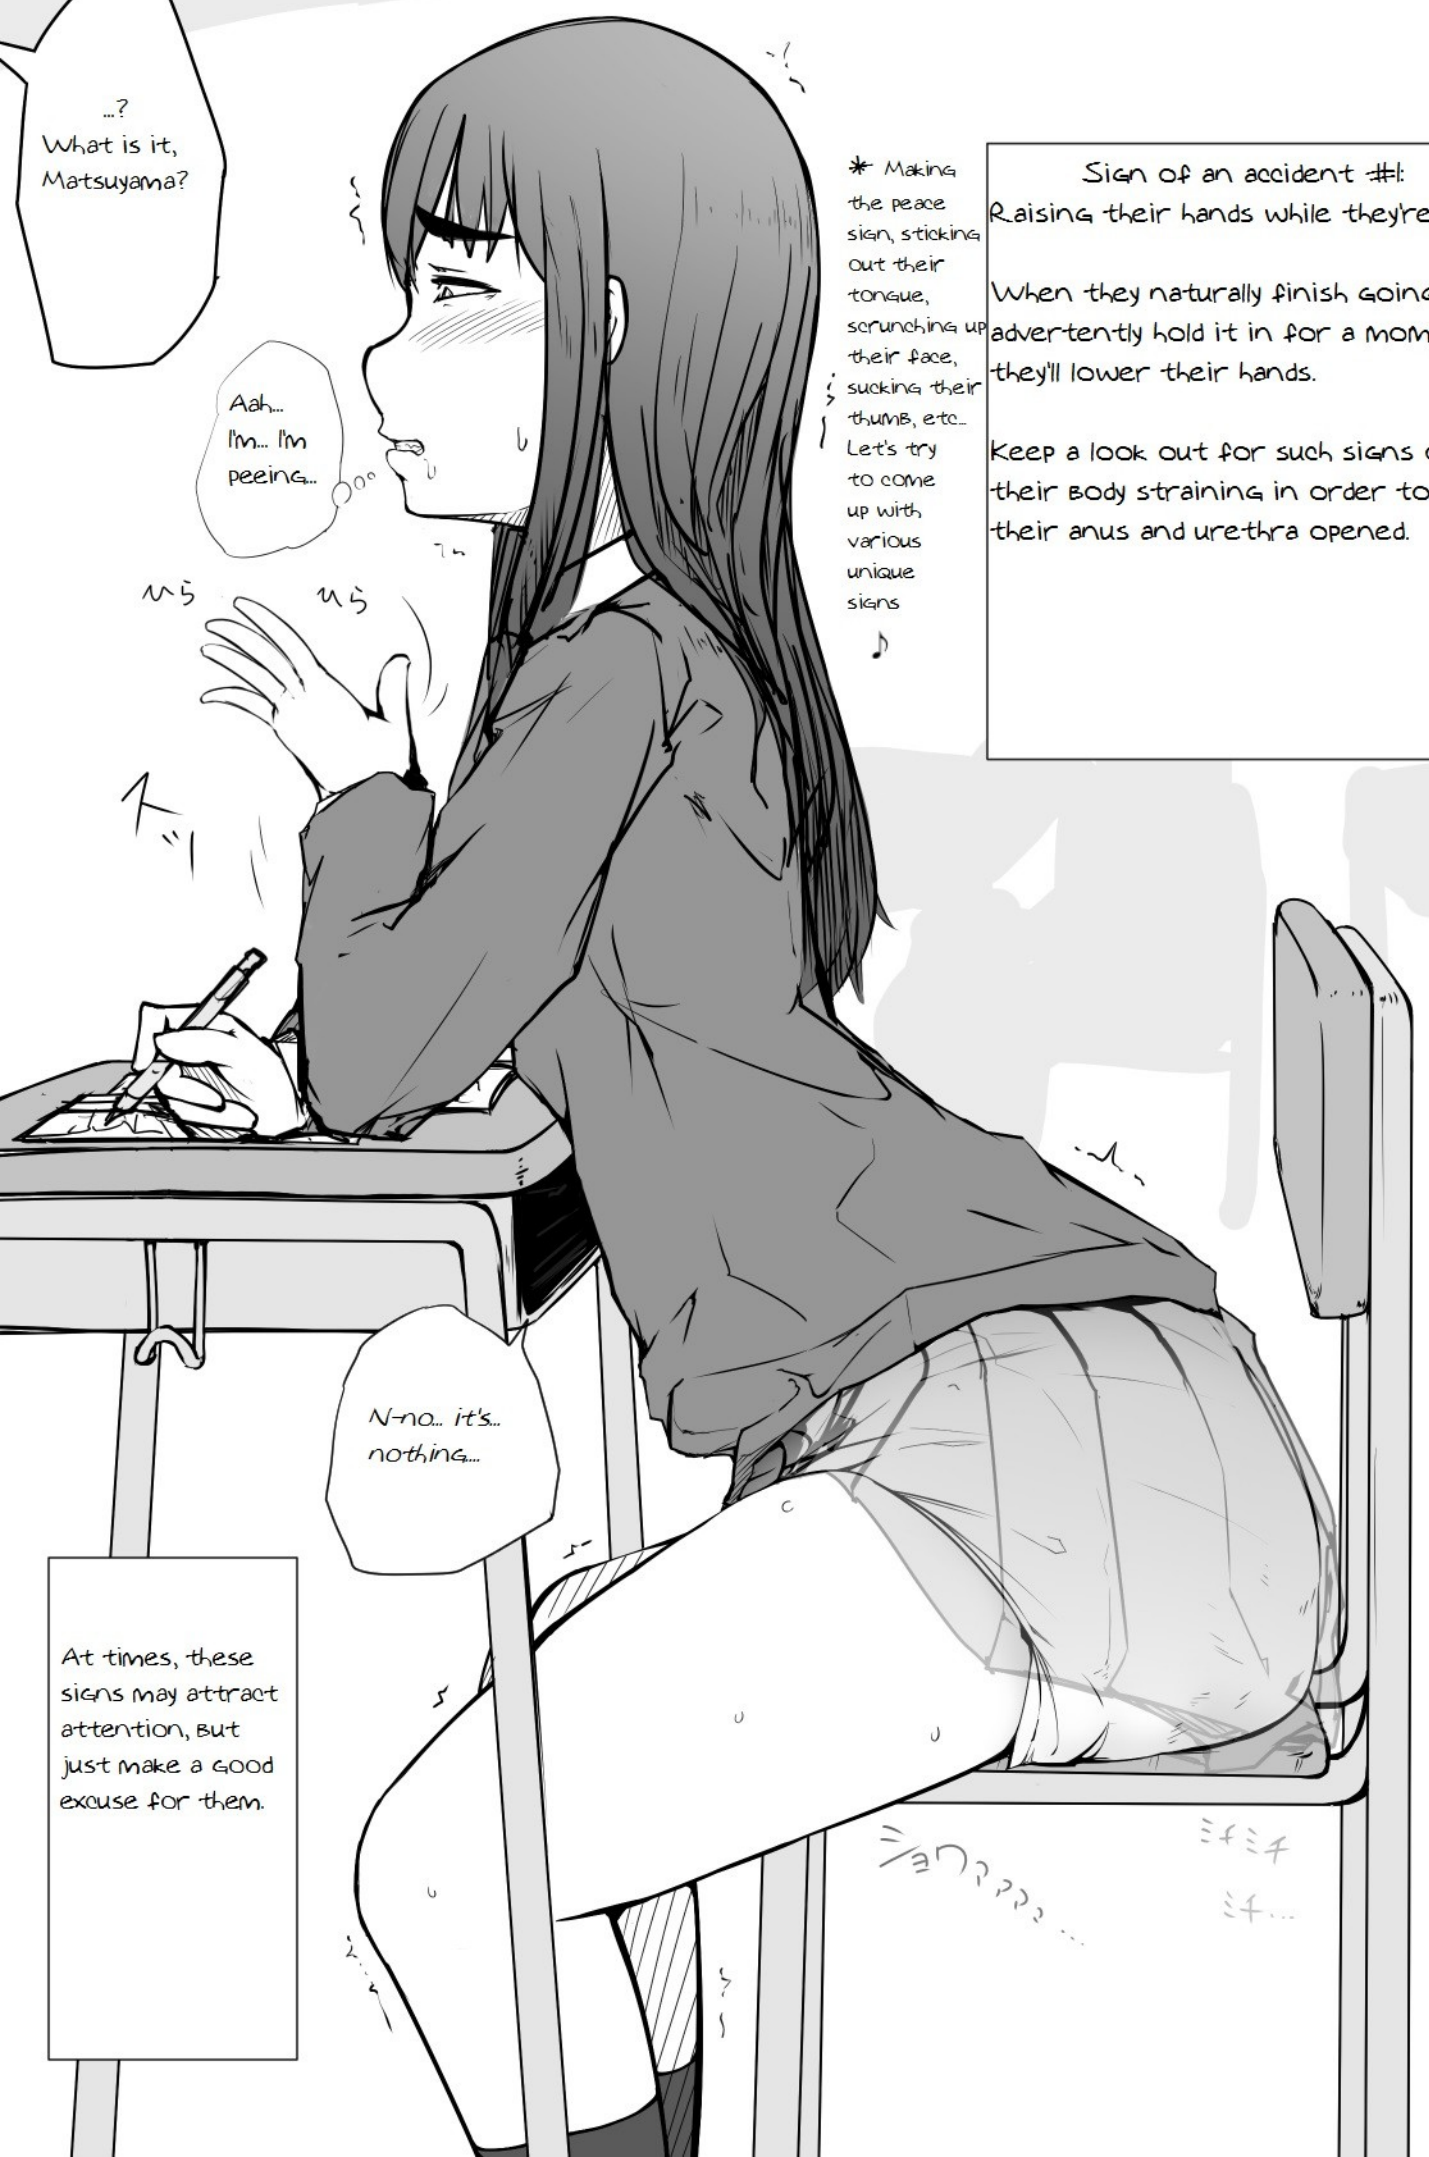

Aah...
I'm... I'm peeing...

N-no... it's... nothing...

Sign of an accident #1:
Raising their hands while they're going.
When they naturally finish going or inadvertently hold it in for a moment, they'll lower their hands.
Keep a look out for such signs of their body straining in order to keep their anus and urethra opened.

* Making the peace sign, sticking out their tongue, scrunching up their face, sucking their thumb, etc...
Let's try to come up with various unique signs

At times, these signs may attract attention, but just make a good excuse for them.

Hey, who's making that noise?
I told you all to put your phones in silent mode.
Whoever you are, your phone's getting confiscated now.

It's so loud!

What's that noise?

Sign of an accident #2:
Attach an accident alarm.

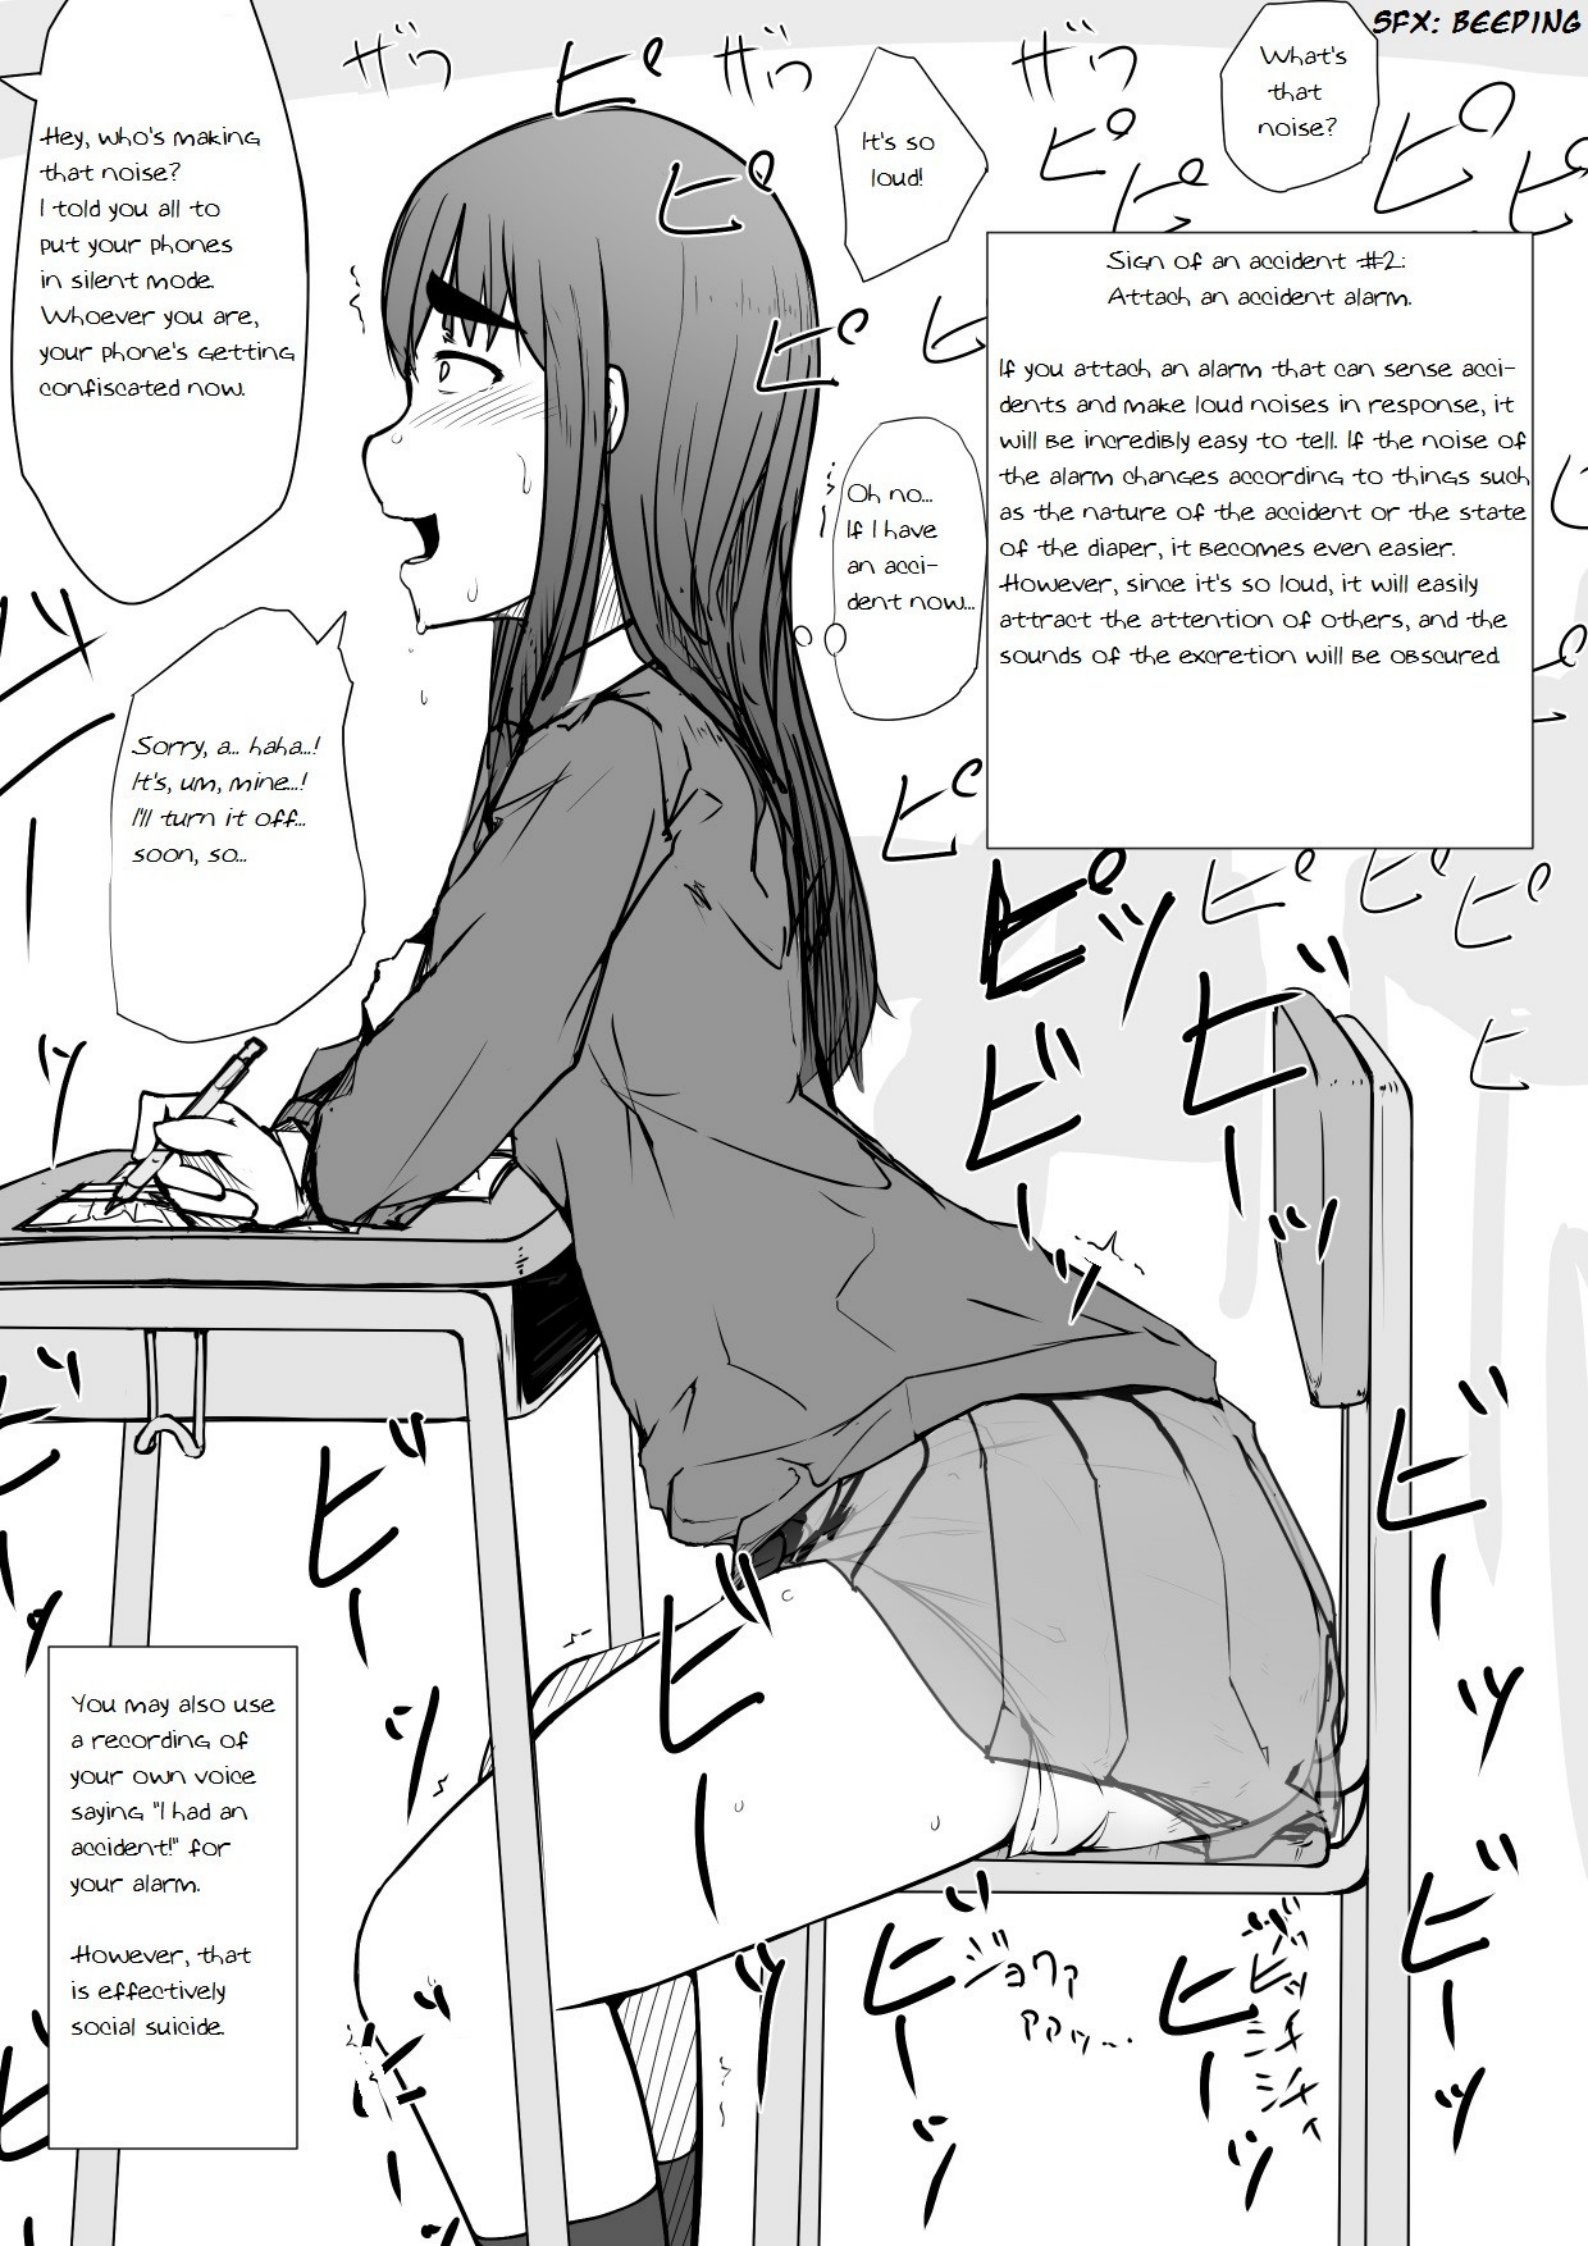

If you attach an alarm that can sense accidents and make loud noises in response, it will be incredibly easy to tell. If the noise of the alarm changes according to things such as the nature of the accident or the state of the diaper, it becomes even easier. However, since it's so loud, it will easily attract the attention of others, and the sounds of the excretion will be obscured.

Oh no...
If I have an accident now...

Sorry, a... haha...!
It's, um, mine...!
I'll turn it off... soon, so...

You may also use a recording of your own voice saying "I had an accident!" for your alarm.

However, that is effectively social suicide.

Uh, what?

PSSS...

PSSSS!

PFRRT!

...PFT!

Sign of an accident #3:

Expressing the noises with your mouth

If it's too quiet to be heard, you might as well express it with your voice instead

The sounds of peeing, farting and pooping. Make sure to express them in such a vulgar, realistic, yet original way as possible.

Go ahead, say it nice and loud for all to hear.

you as a slightly odd and repulsive person.
