OH!

MOTHER'S PARTICULARS!

~Hot Spring Vacation Edition~

It's nice to visit the hot springs as a family every now and then. ♡

I know right?

Right?

See?
Taking a family bath
was a good idea right,
mom?

At
first you didn't even want to~

The
thick water
is making
my skin all nice and smooth!

Well...

It felt kind of embarrassing
because it's been such a long time since
we've done
this...

Hi there! Haitoku sensei here!

So I finally completed the latest "Oh! Mother's Particulars!". Well, how did you like it?

Unlike my usual stories this one was written in about 4 hours while I was taking a hotspring vacation. I had a lot of time writing the story and drawing the characters while relaxing.

I thought it'd be great if I was able to make the mom look really cute in this.

I'd like to try making one of these without any panels sometime. But that will be for another day.

Anyway, I hope to see you for my next work!

And thank you for buying this.
