Character intros

Pyure

131cm L-cup

The head maid of the white rapiel castle. Queen roro's personal maid and also the Grand Wizard's personal attendant. Clear headed and kind, she is beloved by all the maids working under her. She uses her magnificent breasts that are often called the best in the kingdom to service the MC, but she holds herself back from having sex with him to prevent their master-servant relationship from turning into something else.

Roro

115cm G-cup

The queen of the white rapiel kingdom of the other world. She was a sheltered girl, but she summoned the MC into her world and made him the Grand Wizard to receive an heir with his power. Newly appointed as the queen, she is still inexperienced, but her innocence and charm has won over the country. Has very large breasts to contrast her innocent face. Despite recently giving birth, she wants another baby, so she has sex with the MC everyday for that end. Dotingly calls the MC 'Papa' due to their age gap.

Tety

120cm A-cup

Queen of the Black rapiel kingdom, the rival of the White. She was originally after the Grand Wizard's life, but she awakened to her sexual instincts after having sex with him. Frequently visits the White Rapiel's castle to have sex. The second wife of the MC, and the second person to give birth to his child. A girl of little words, but when being showered in affection by her beloved 'Father', she becomes exceedingly passionate.

Main character. An old man with no relationship experience, but he was summoned into the white rapiel kingdom as he turned 40. Being a virgin for so long, he accumulated vast magical power in his semen, which the queens use to bear children. Given the title of Grand wizard, he never leaves the inner chambers, and enjoys a life full of sex with his rabbit princesses.

afterword

Thank you for reading this to the end.

I was worried I didn't give Pyure enough attention, so I made a third book.

I only planned on the two, but I kept thinking of the setting and this came out naturally. There might be slight contradictions here and there, so forgive me.

× I'm not too great at making and sticking to settings.

Personally, it was great to remove my breast size limiters and go all out on a busty bunny. I hope you enjoyed it too.

In the end this turned into a harem end with the three girls, but I hope I can get another chance to draw this again.

I wish I could visit rabbit heaven too.

See you next time!
