Afterword

Hey there, MUK here.

First we had a loli succubus, then a cursed doll, and now, two travelling girls. With such a broad variety of stories, the theme of this series may start to seem confusing, and truthfully, the Tiny Evil series actually isn't based around "non-human girls". Although, if I had to make it fit such a genre, I could say that this story is based around two girls that, upon having their picture taken, will appear before the photographer that same day without exception, and use them for their semen, their money, and a place to stay. It's hard to say if they're normal human girls or not, but I don't think it fits the description of "non-human girls". I have around five other girls I want to draw for this series, and each of them will probably have occult elements in one way or another, to both small and large extents. If I could give Tiny Evil my own description, I'd say it's simply a series of loli erotica aimed at masochistic gentlemen (with occult themes).

With that out of the way, I'd like to thank you all for taking the time to read this story. I hope that Kaya-chan and Natsumi-chan's blessing manages to find its way to your heart.
