

Wang-Pac is back!!

Sometimes you just need a change of pace!

If the winter sky wouldn't be so cold, that might be awesome...

The stars are pretty this night

Senpai, have you gone out lately?

Aah, if you mean the stars of the winter sky, there are also others look

Ah, I've just discovered Sirius on your shoulder, Mana-chan

Eh

...and there's Rigel near my navel

And here, Procyon ...
... Capella ...

ha ha

Aldebaran, Betelgeuse, Pollux

...the weather is special today ...SO...

Oh

....

Not like you'd show me, right?

a pity

I do ...

Huh, where?

Since it's Canopus ...

Further below my navel... Somewhere hard to discover...

Thanks

But that's really close, huh. If you'd had Canopus, it would've been perfect

Let's go out and find you using the stars!!

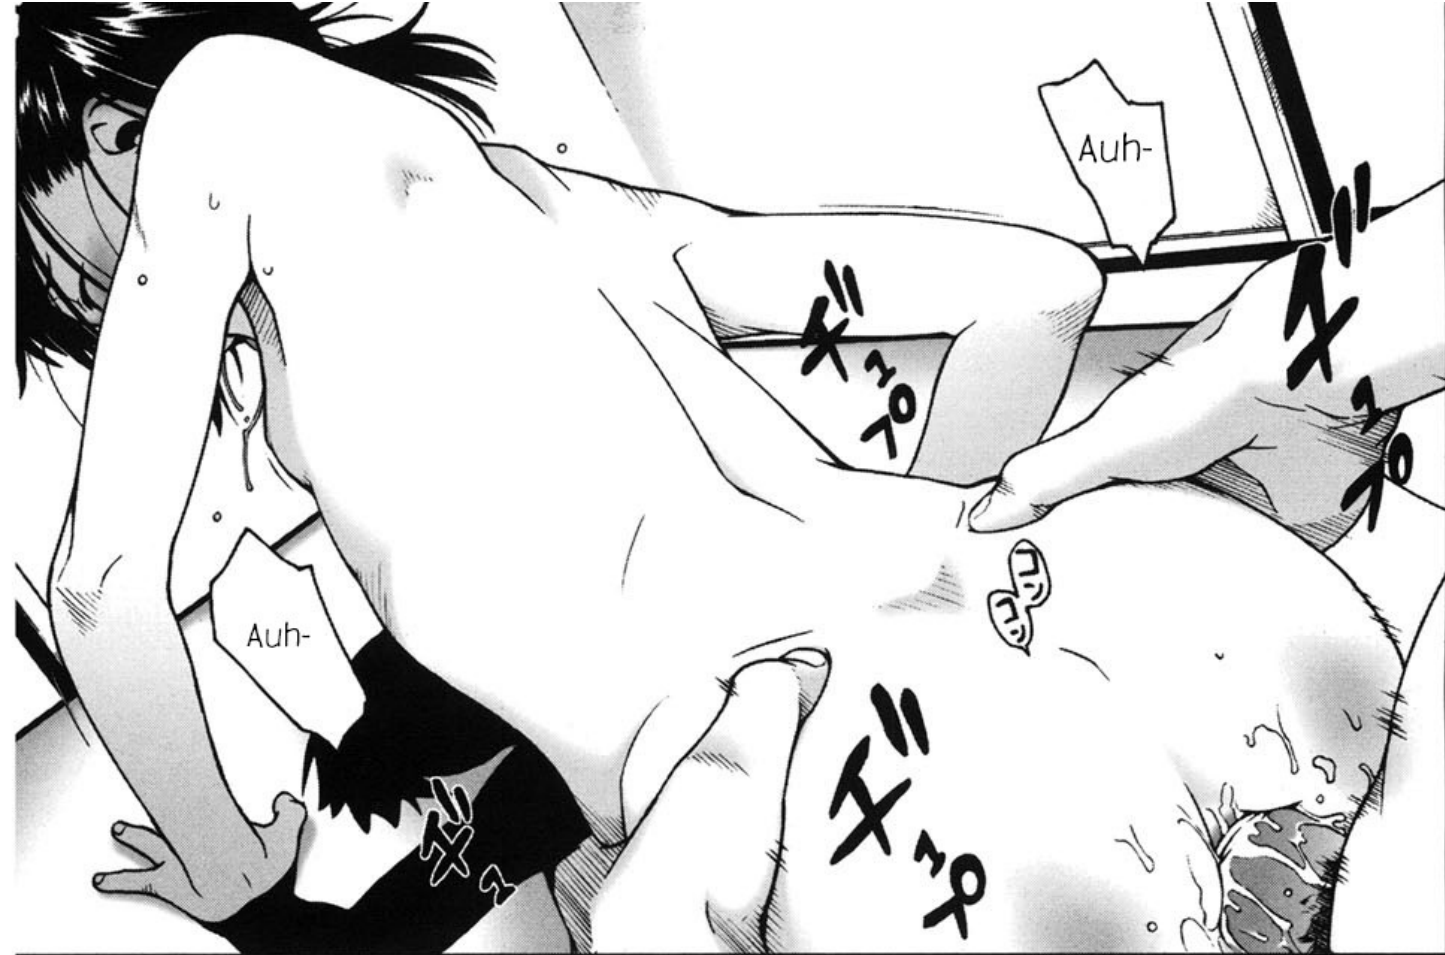

Just for a bit, okay...

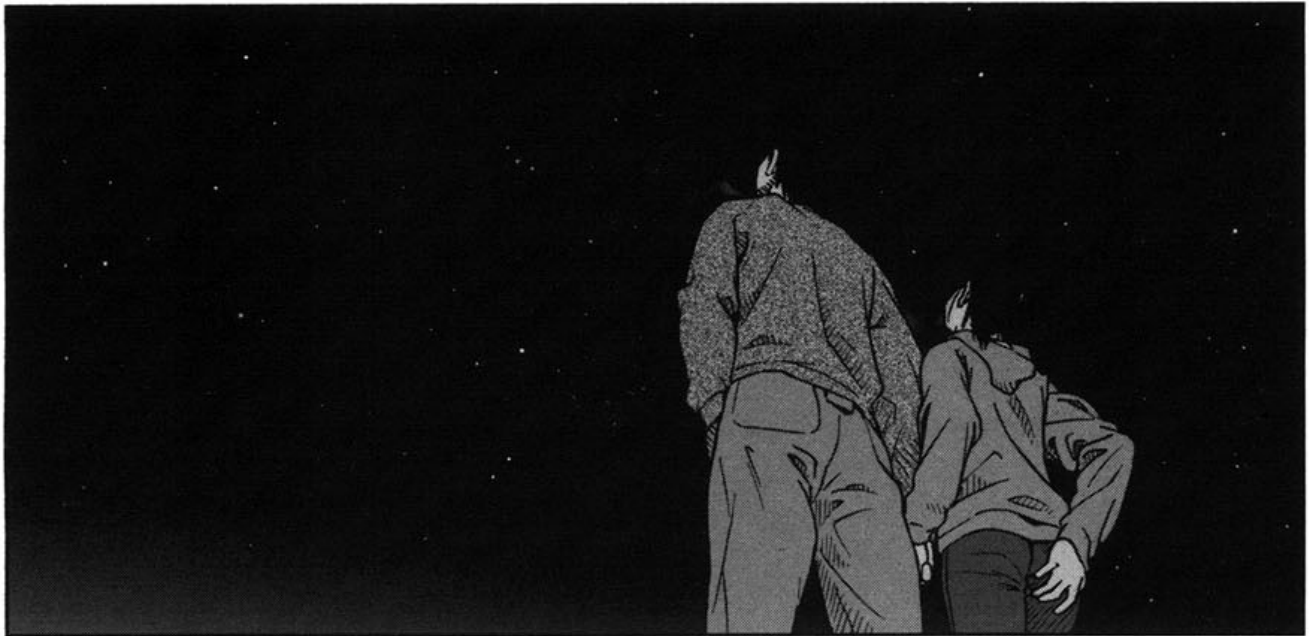

Ooh ...

The stars are beautiful after all
and its only one floor below

I can accompany you down to the street

Ah, it's really no problem

These stars announced the end of her time.

Takkun, I love you

More stunning than this starry sky and also cuter and warmer

Takkun
My stars ... how were they?
