★ They may just be LITTLE GIRLS,
but they still want to enter ★ the MEN'S BATH!

■ Misaki Kinasaki

A Brimming with curiosity twelve year old girl with pigtails. She and her friend Kaho are members of the Volleyball Club.

□ Kaho Arima

An eleven year old girl who's self-conscious about her rapidly growing body. She and Misaki usually go home together after their club activities.

"They may just be little girls, but they still want to enter the men's bath!"
This is a story about a guy who's coming home from his cycling session and takes a small rest in a region that he's never been to before. He uses that chance to visit a somewhat run-down bath-house. There, he meets two local little girls and they all have a pleasant experience together. I'm pretty sure that just from reading the title of the story you can guess practically everything that follows afterwards. By the way, if I had to choose which girl between the two that I like the most, I'd maybe go for Misaki-chan.

Not long ago, My story "Tenshi no Rotenburo" (Lolicon★Justice Edition) was released through a publisher, which has a pretty similar vibe to this very work, I think,

I'd be appreciative if you would read that too! (self-promotion)

We're reaching the end of 2017, and throughout this year I published my tankoubon "Platinum Seichouki" and after a long time I managed to release four doujinshi (one of them was a folding book, though). I put forward a surprisingly large amount of effort. Hopefully I can draw a lot throughout this next year, too...

Without further ado, I hope you dear readers enjoy this book!
