Afterword

Hello, everyone! I'm Torakichi.
Thank you for purchasing this book!

This time I drew a manga about a guy that has a fetish for armpits.

I really like to see the armpits when a guy is wearing sleeveless clothes, so it makes me really happy to finally draw a manga about armpits...!

There are various type of clothes that fully expose armpits, but tank tops are definitely my favorites, I love them. I think I became aware that I liked armpits because of anime and manga characters that wear tank tops, probably.

I love when a character that wears that kind of clothes raises his arms or when he puts both arms behind his head, because that way he's unconsciously showing his armpits, hehehe~...

Well, I really, really like smooth armpits from anime and manga characters.

I usually draw a lot of exciting pictures, so feel free to check my Twitter if you want to see them! That would make me really happy!

Okay then, see you somewhere again!
