Afterword

Hello, I'm Watari Laboratory.
Thank you for purchasing this book.

The idea for this book came shortly after I released my previous work, "Shin Owari no Natsu" 3 months ago. I thought, "Can I get another one in before Koroket 2?" and begun working on this one.

I figured it wouldn't be too much of a challenge if I limited the book to 16 pages. But compared to the last book, this one had a greater amount of characters and making progress on it was unexpectedly time-consuming and difficult.

Nonetheless, I was thankfully able to get this out by Koroket 2. That's a huge relief for me.

Koroket 2 is the first event this circle has ever participated in. I hope I'll be able to get my name out there and garner a few fans in the process.

About Watari Laboratory

I'm Watari Laboratory and I mainly illustrate hard gore. Most of my characters will suffer tragic fates, but I make sure to draw them extra cute. It's a crooked love sort of thing!

Currently being sold at my BOOTH!

The end of a wedding, a life, and a town.

The nun who tried to protect the soon-to-be bride has been shot through the heart.

The mother who merely wanted her children to be safe has her throat slit.

The girl, who was in a fit of pain from a torn maidenhead, has her neck snapped.

The fiancée who awaited her wedding has been publicly hanged for all to see.

This is a story about a town destroyed by pirates.
