It's been a while!

Well well!

I've been waiting for you!

We have a very strong love for each other, especially compared to the other local families in the region.

How much love do we have, you ask?

Well...

This beautiful girl is Aya, my daughter.

I'm living away from home because of work, so she comes to visit me sometimes.

Hm?

Thanks for reading!

This was my first time translating a doujin, and it took me quite a while to get it to where I was pretty happy with it. I took a few grammatical liberties while working on it, trying to make for a more believable dialogue.

I hope you all enjoyed it as much as I did translating it!
