

Well met, Hero!

Wa ha ha ha

You must be very confused, however, since I have summoned you here before those humans could. I am the Demon Lord

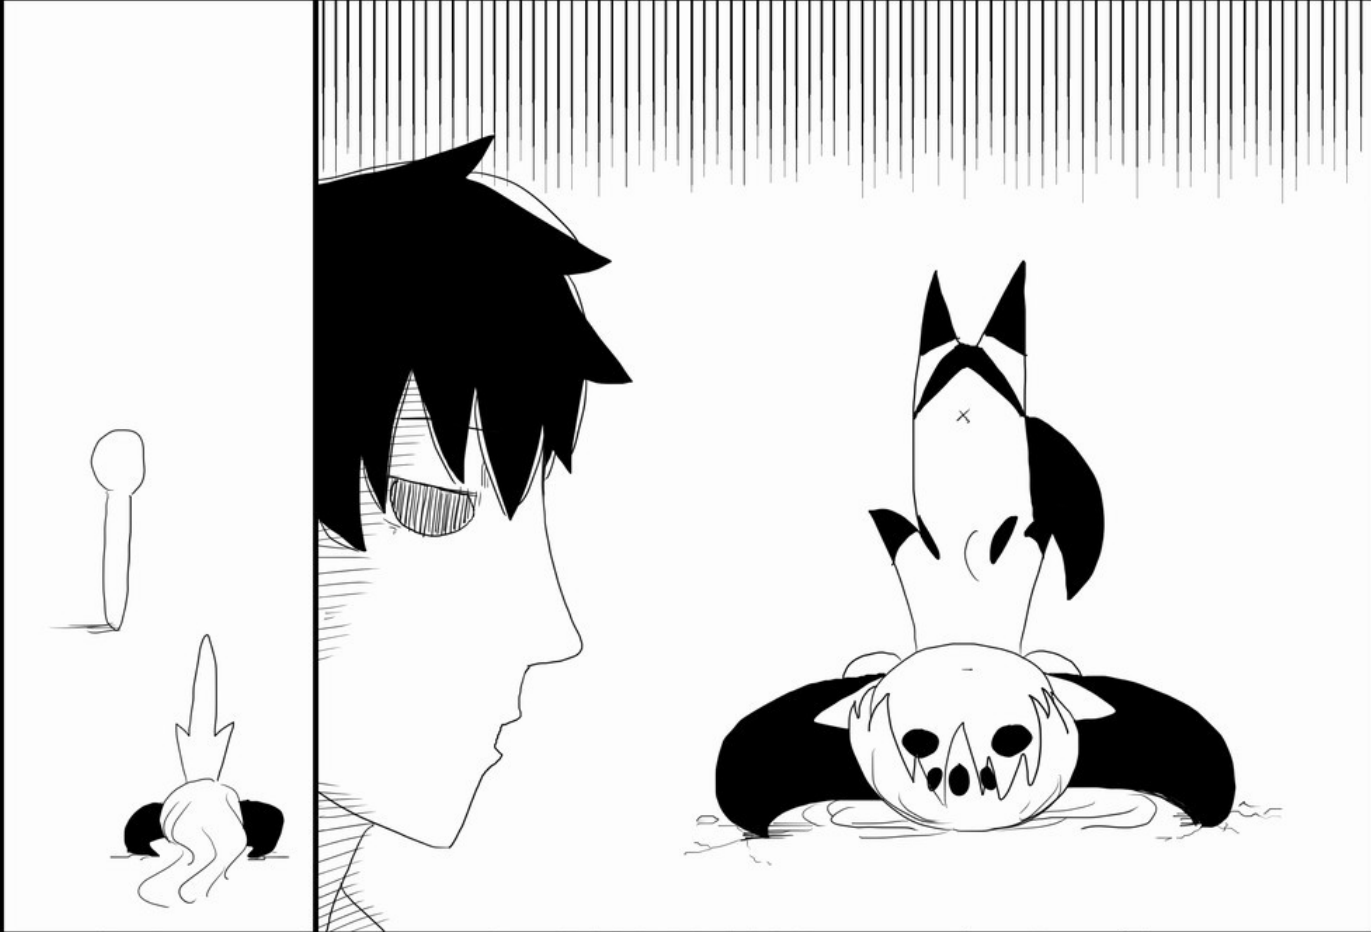

I'm a supergenius!!

Wa ha ha a

If I summon the Hero from another world first, mankind will be powerless before me!!

gasp

Why don't you chop them off?

And they're SUPER heavy!!

These massive horns are the very symbol of the Demon Lord!!

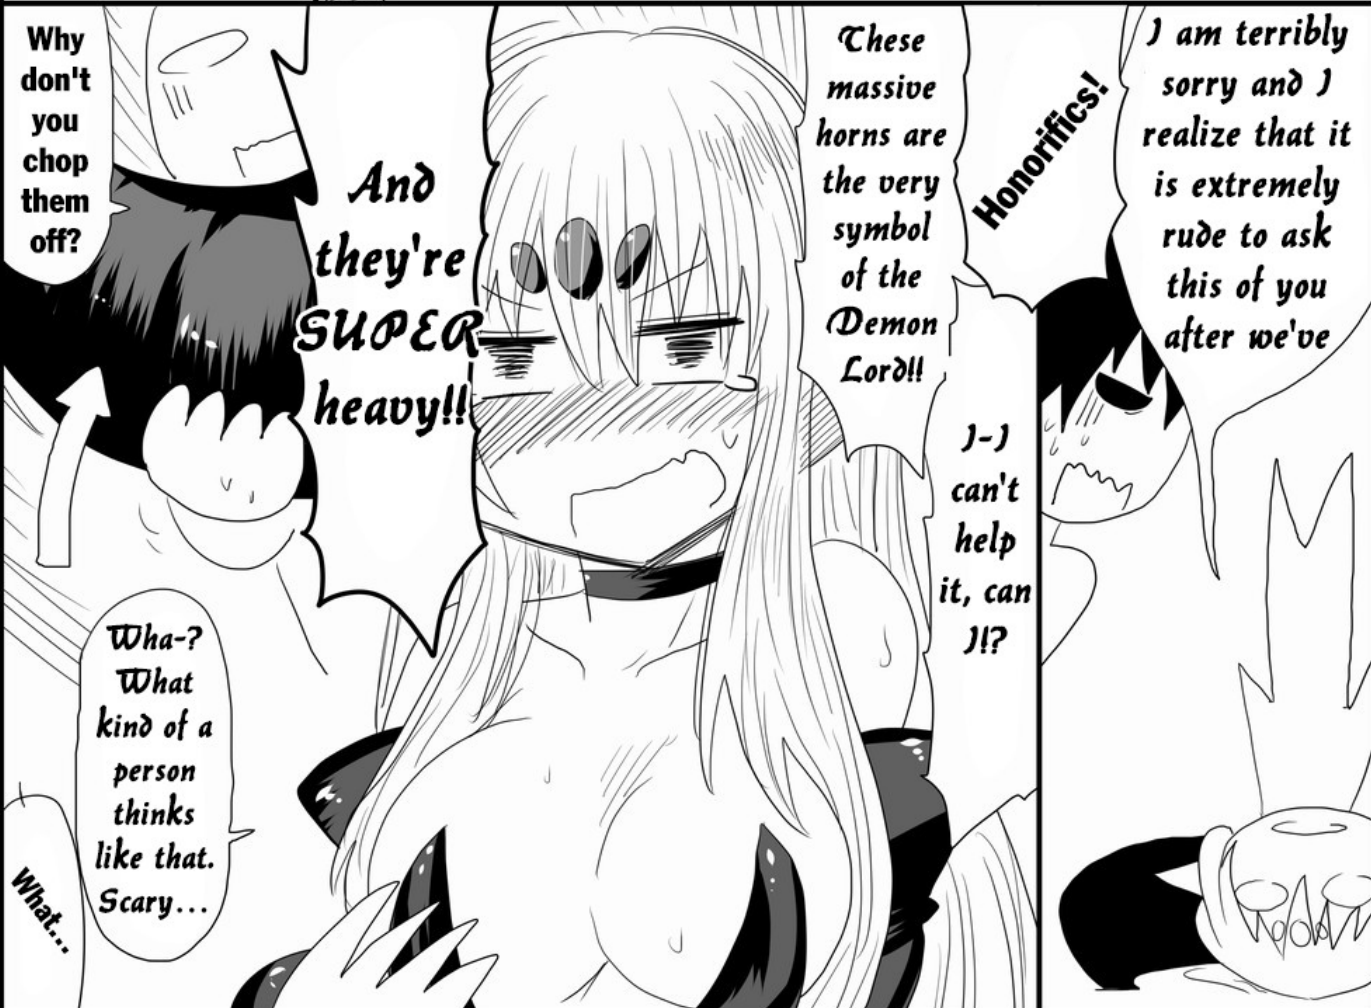

Honorifics!

I am terribly sorry and I realize that it is extremely rude to ask this of you after we've

J-J can't help it, can JI?

Wha-? What kind of a person thinks like that. Scary...

with you.
Perhaps I shall feed you to the Cerberus

I heard that that's what all heroes
from another world are like?

Is that wrong

Unemployed!?
A virgin!?

What about your servants ?

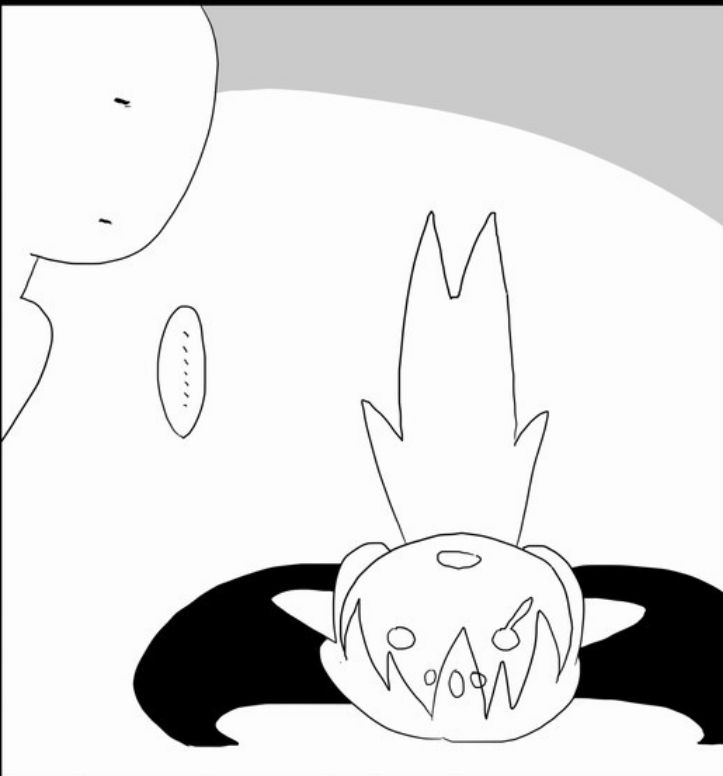

I'm surprised you're even functioning as a Demon Lord

Calling people virgins and all kinds of things

Like hell I will!?

o- please help...

Don't mock me

"hmph"

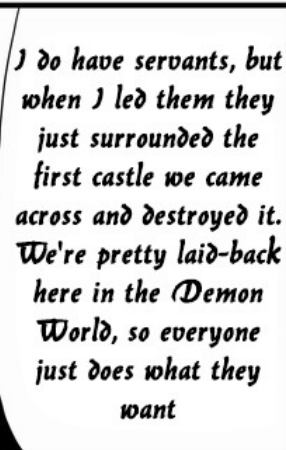

And you're supposed to be the most powerful, huh...?

Wa ha ha

I'm really powerful so they just put me on the throne as a figurehead Demon Lord. It's a penalty game here in the Demon World.

I do have servants, but when I led them they just surrounded the first castle we came across and destroyed it. We're pretty laid-back here in the Demon World, so everyone just does what they want

Then how about using that unparalleled magic to get up

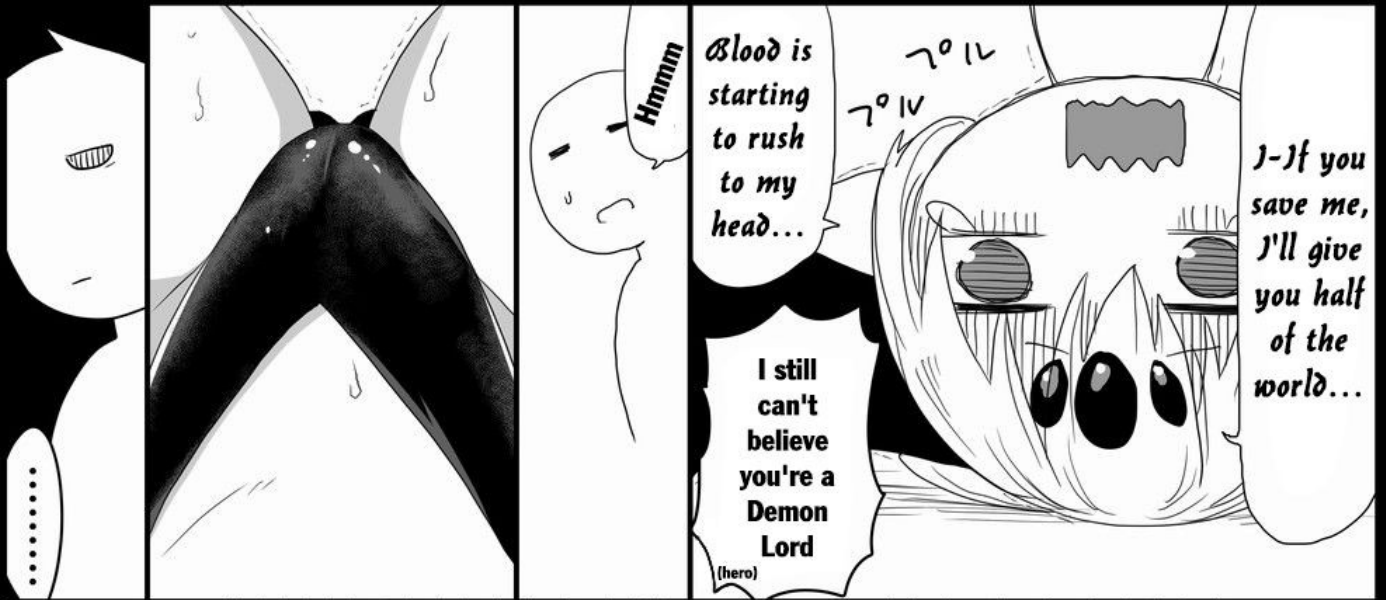

I don't have that kind of dexterity. I can destroy an entire island though However, to make up for that we possess an unparalleled command of magic!! Amazing strength!

Originally, we demons were incredibly weak thanks to these stupid horns!!

Hmmm

Blood is starting to rush to my head...

I still can't believe you're a Demon Lord

(hero)

If you save me, I'll give you half of the world...

What the hell are you doing!?

Wha-

Huh?

Why are you saying that with a serious face?!

If this is my chance ... to lose my virginity ...

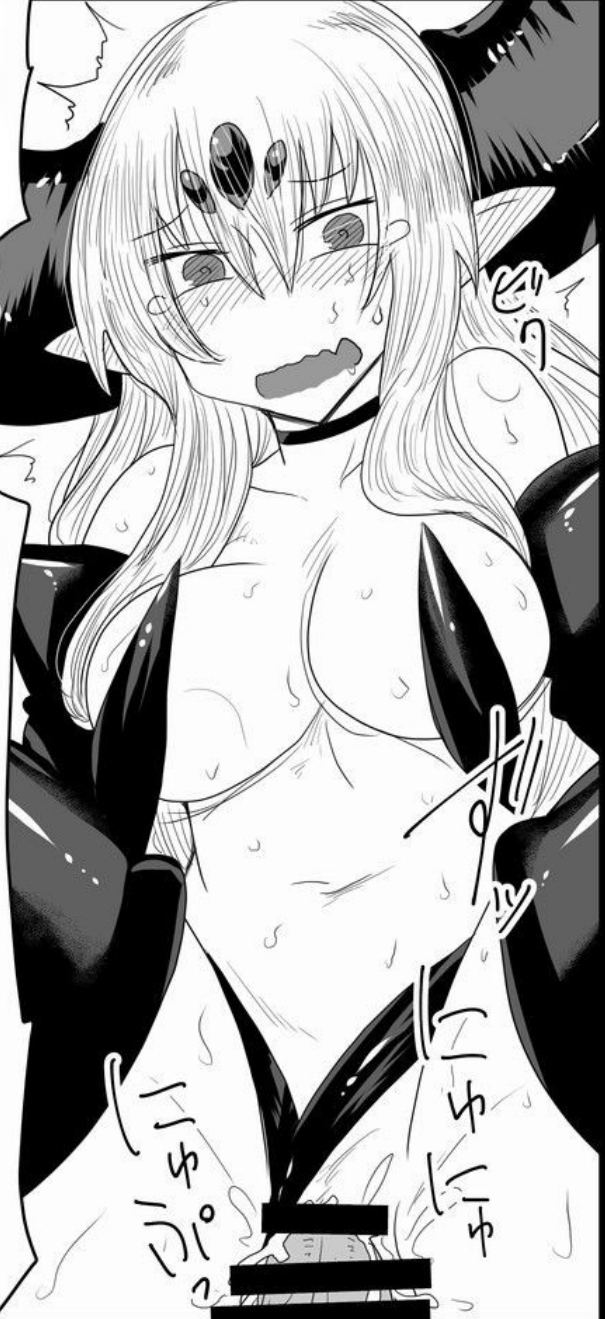

I wonder ...
