

I FUCKING YOU ALIVE

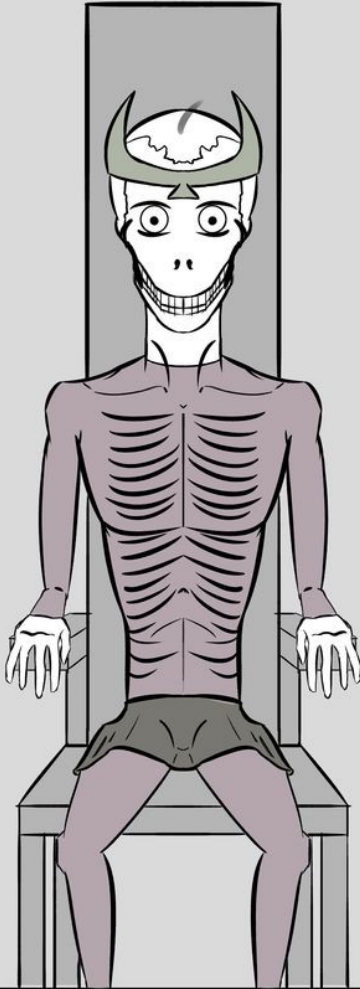

CH 1: DAWN IS DUSK

ORGAL DÉVOSFORE

Ever since I could remember I was weak. I was looked so frail when I was born the plague doctor said I would not make it and if I did ill be dead by 19.

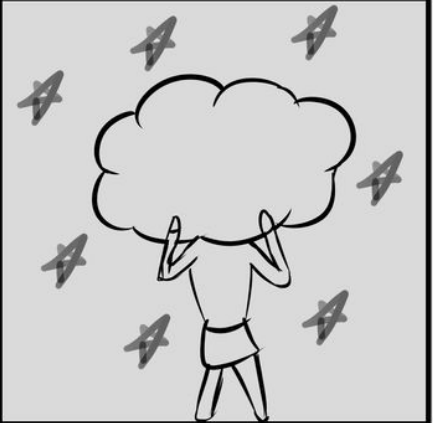

And my mom did not want any more children so she killed herself, and my father blamed me

But I tried to be the best to make my dad proud, I tried sword fighting but I could not lift a wooden sword.

I tried magic but it backfired and blew up my face which lead to me losing my betrothed, all at the age of 10. Then my father was murdered by assassins and I was pushed to take charge of my dad's job.

Of being the king of a kingdom, I am 18 now, and do not have many days, I look weak and I am worthless But I can be a better king and still prove my dad proud in the after life. And thank god I have helpers who can help me these rich people they help with food and finances and stuff, I do not know.

Hello, my king mind if I can ask you to step out with me so I may show you what the fruits of your labour has created something the heavens will love.
