

I've been curious for a long time now.

After all... there isn't one.

Wherever I search there's no peepee.

Why are mom and I not the same down there?

I'll tell you why.

Eh?!

Why doesn't she have a peepee?

There was nothing down there...

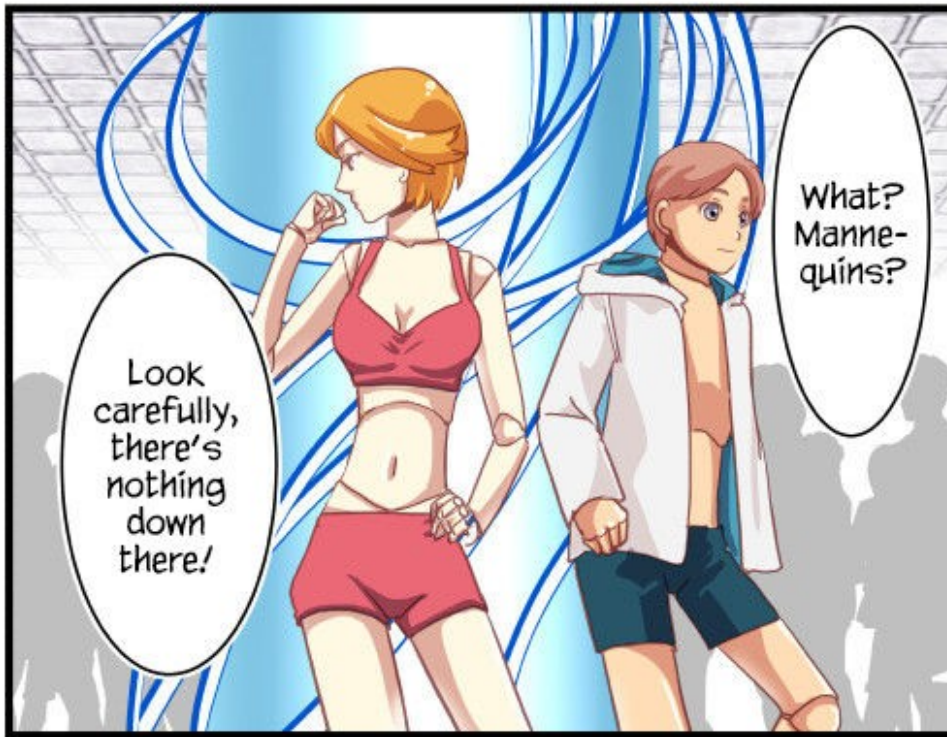

Calm down and listen to me!

Terrible things are happening in this city right now.

Who, who are you?

Nice to meet you, I'm a fairy.

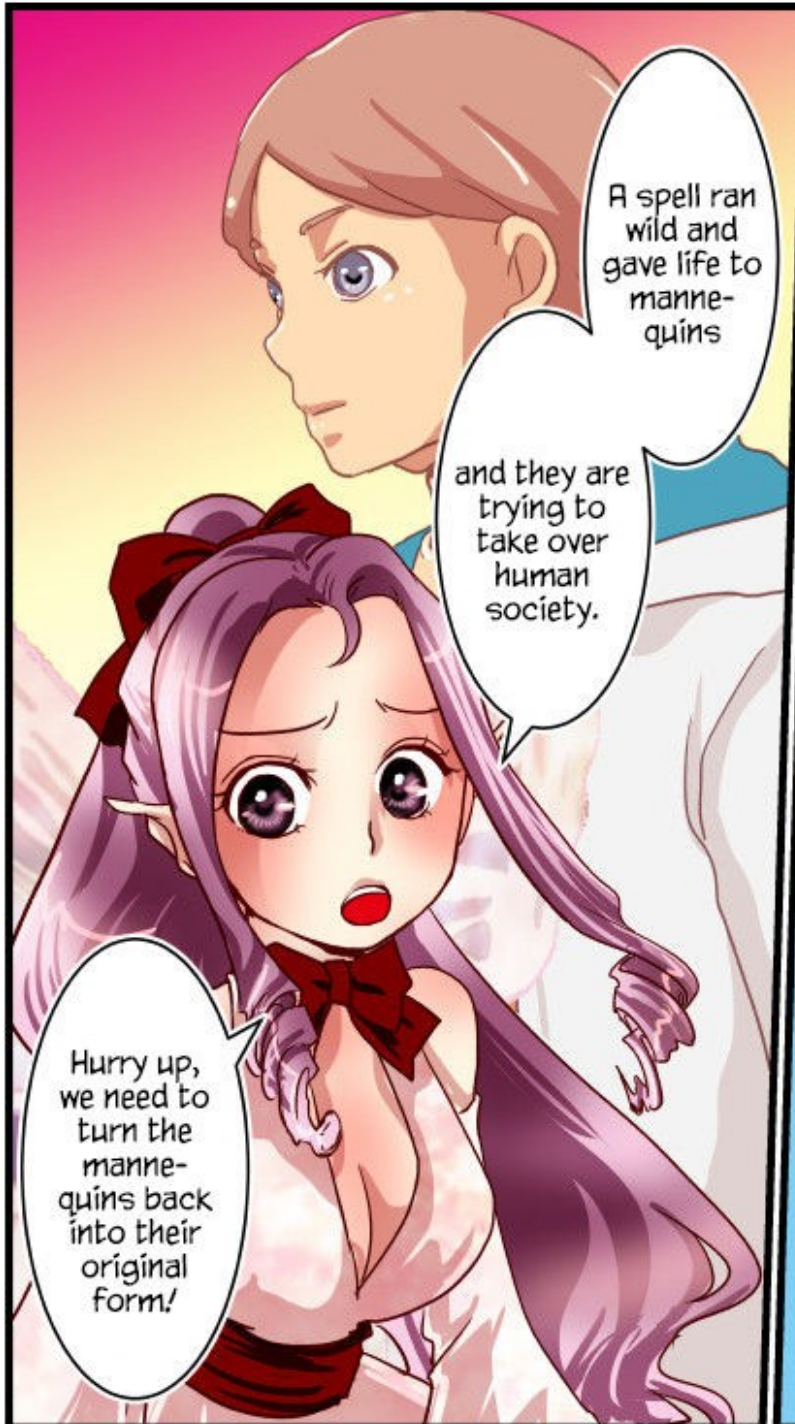

Look carefully, there's nothing down there!

What? Mannequins?

Listen, look at this!

Why are we here...?

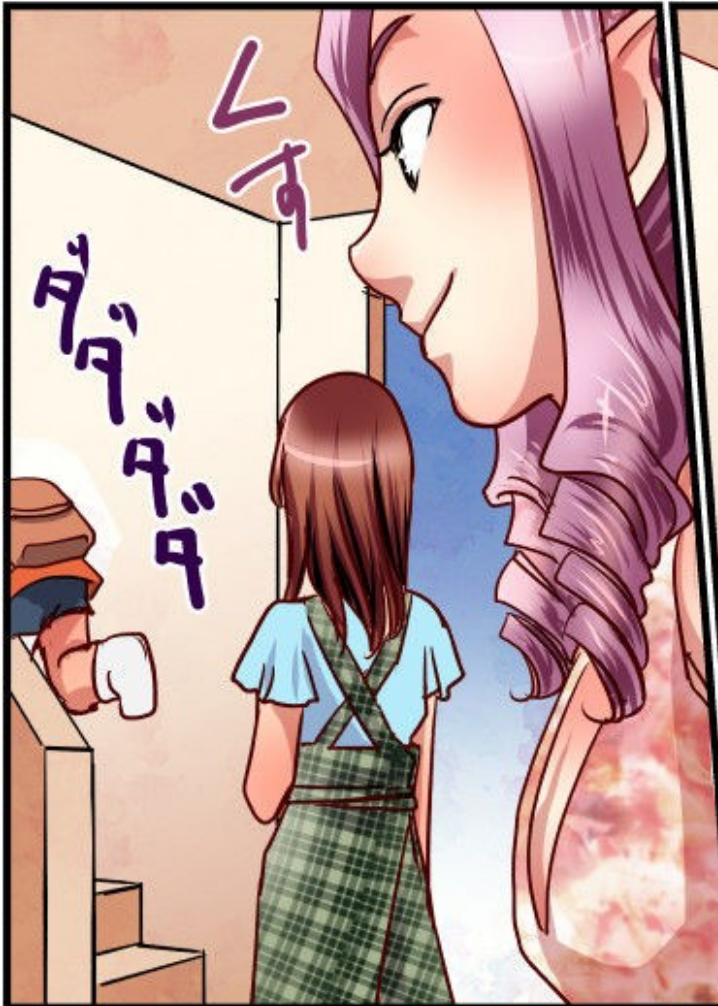

Hurry up, we need to turn the mannequins back into their original form!

A spell ran wild and gave life to mannequins and they are trying to take over human society.

That's right. They don't have a peepee because they are mannequins. That's how you can tell apart mannequins from people.

It's true! There's no peepee!!

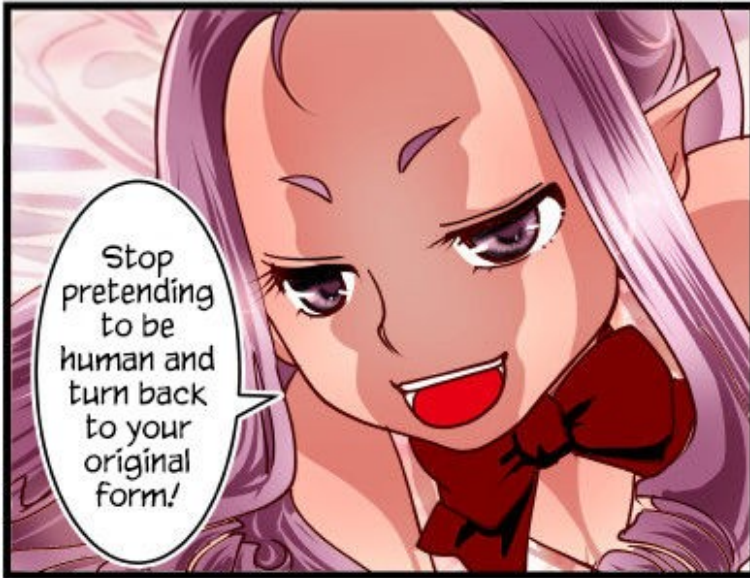

Mm, huh?
It's a little chilly...

Firstly, I'll immobilize you and pose you like a mannequin...

Stop pretending to be human and turn back to your original form!

Eeh!?
What's going on?

I can't move...

Ah!

What's
that small thing?

I'm not a mannequin.
I'm a human.

There's nothing strange about me, is there?

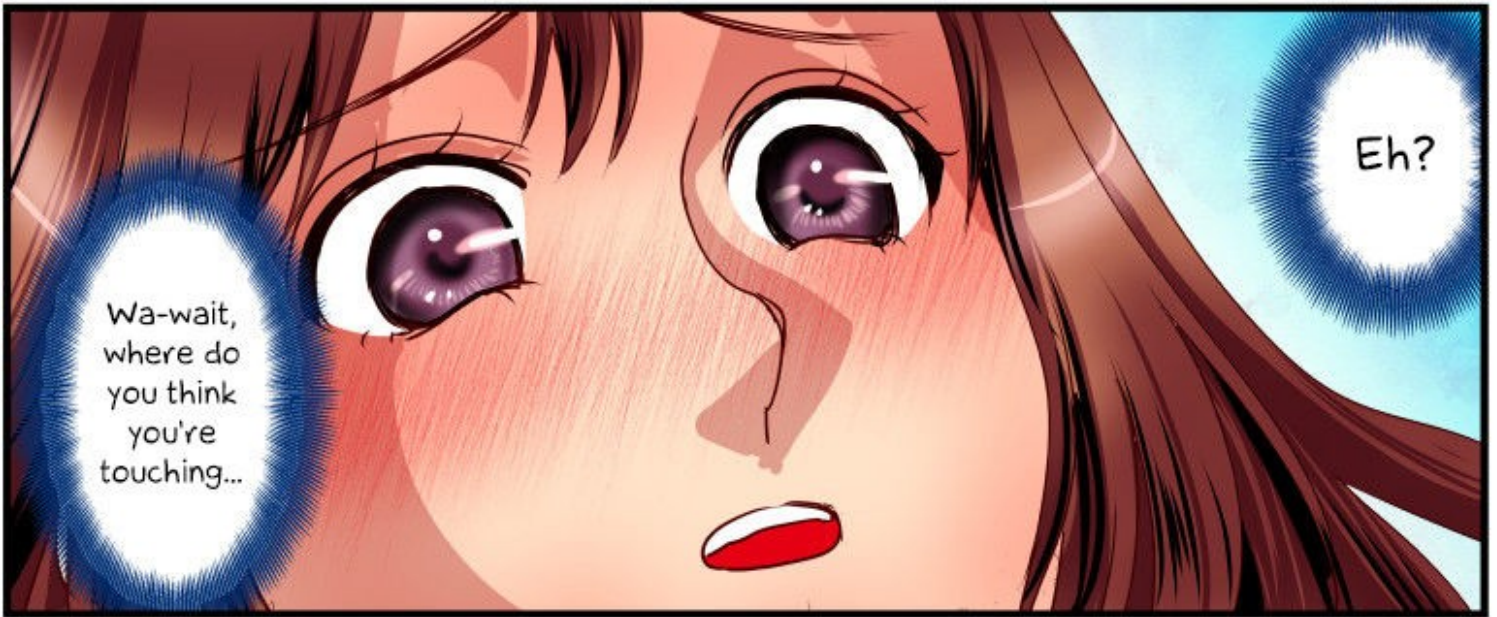

Mom.

Yuu-kun.

This fairy says that you're not human, but a mannequin...

Why?
I don't get it...

Eh?

But mom has nothing...

Stop... Don't touch me there...!

Now!

Get back to your original pose!

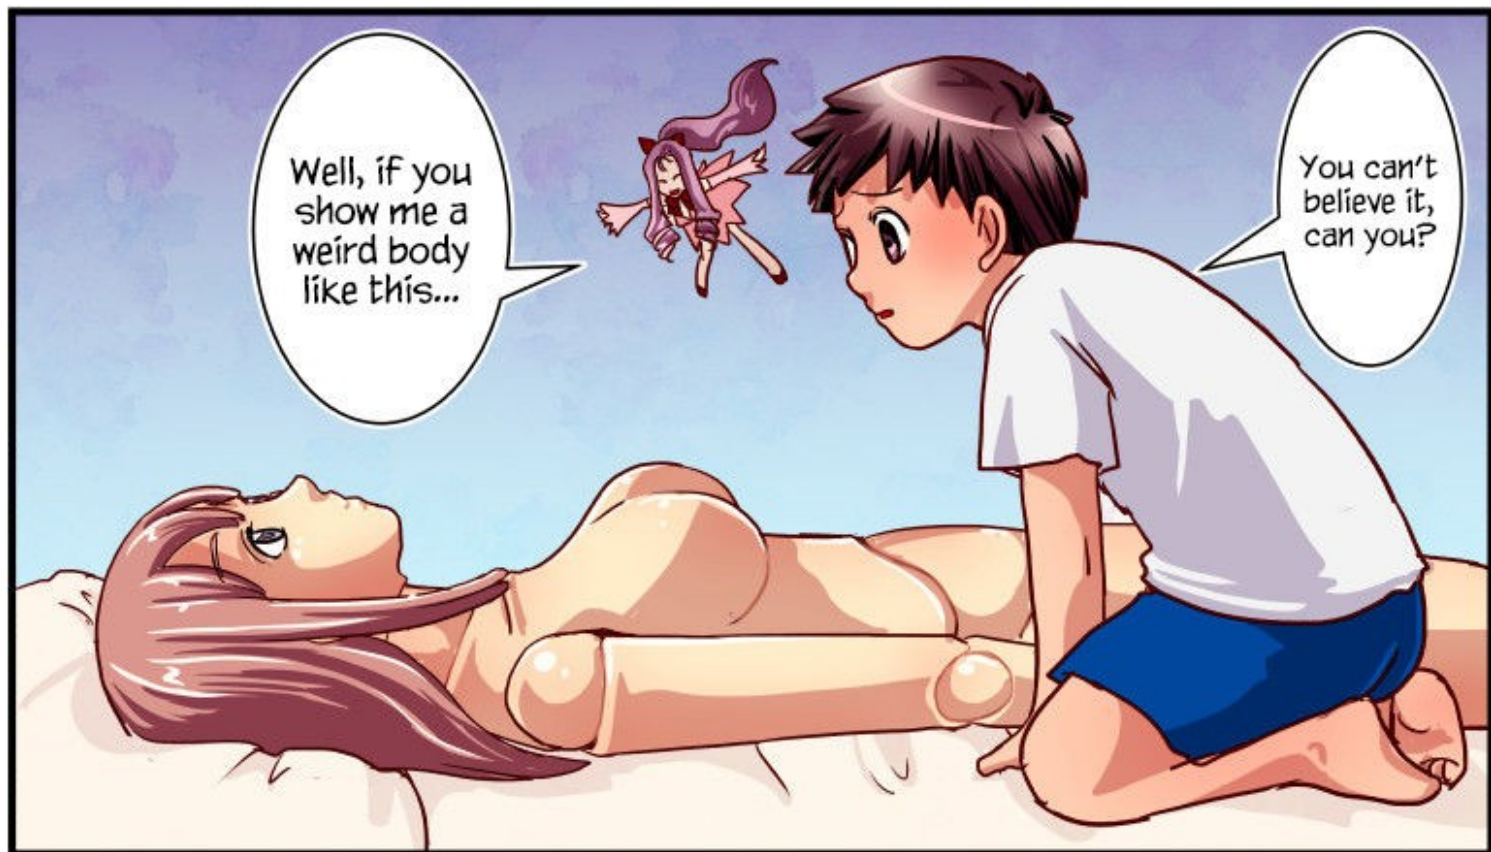

Turn back into a mannequin!

So, that's your mother's original form.

No way...
Mom is a mannequin...

Well, if you show me a weird body like this...

You can't believe it, can you?

It's hard....

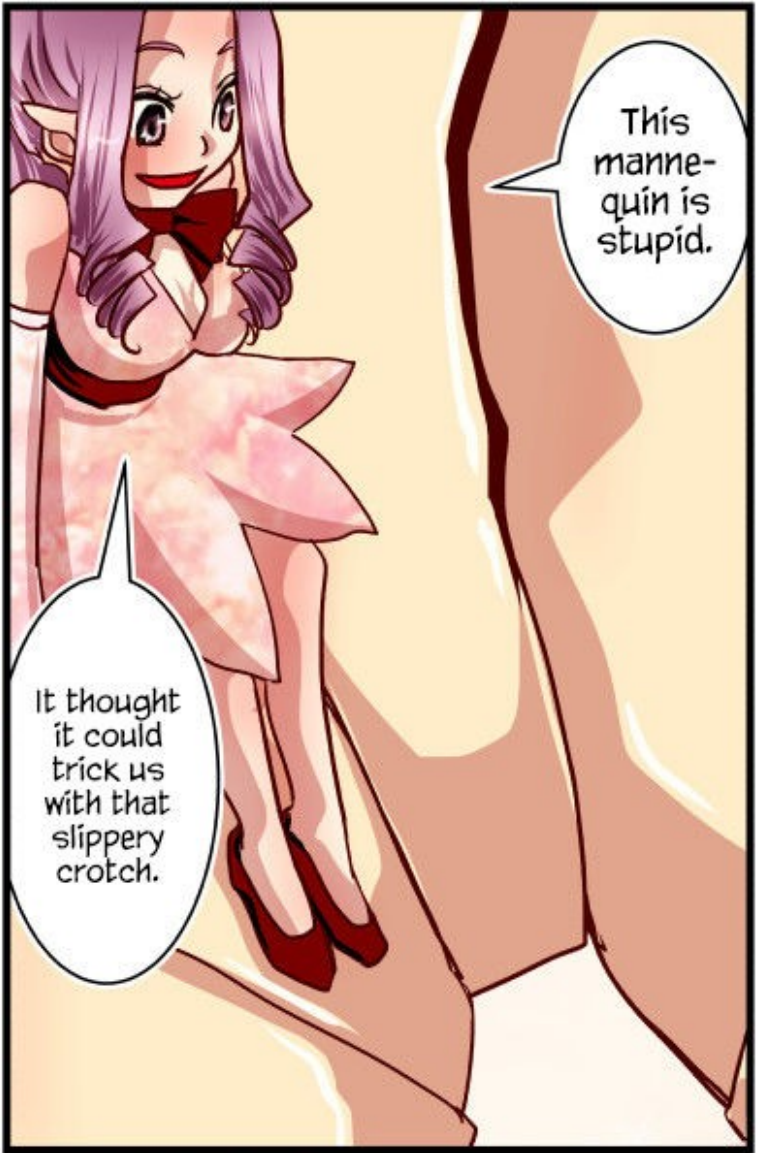

Huh? Her body got all stiff?

That's because mannequins are made from plastic.

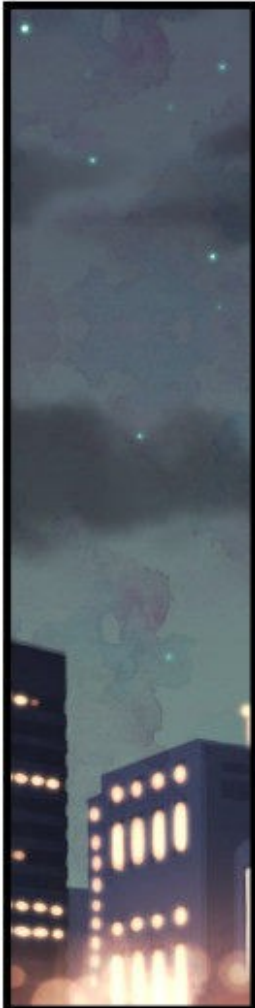

It didn't know that humans' and mannequins' bodies are different.

This mannequin is stupid.

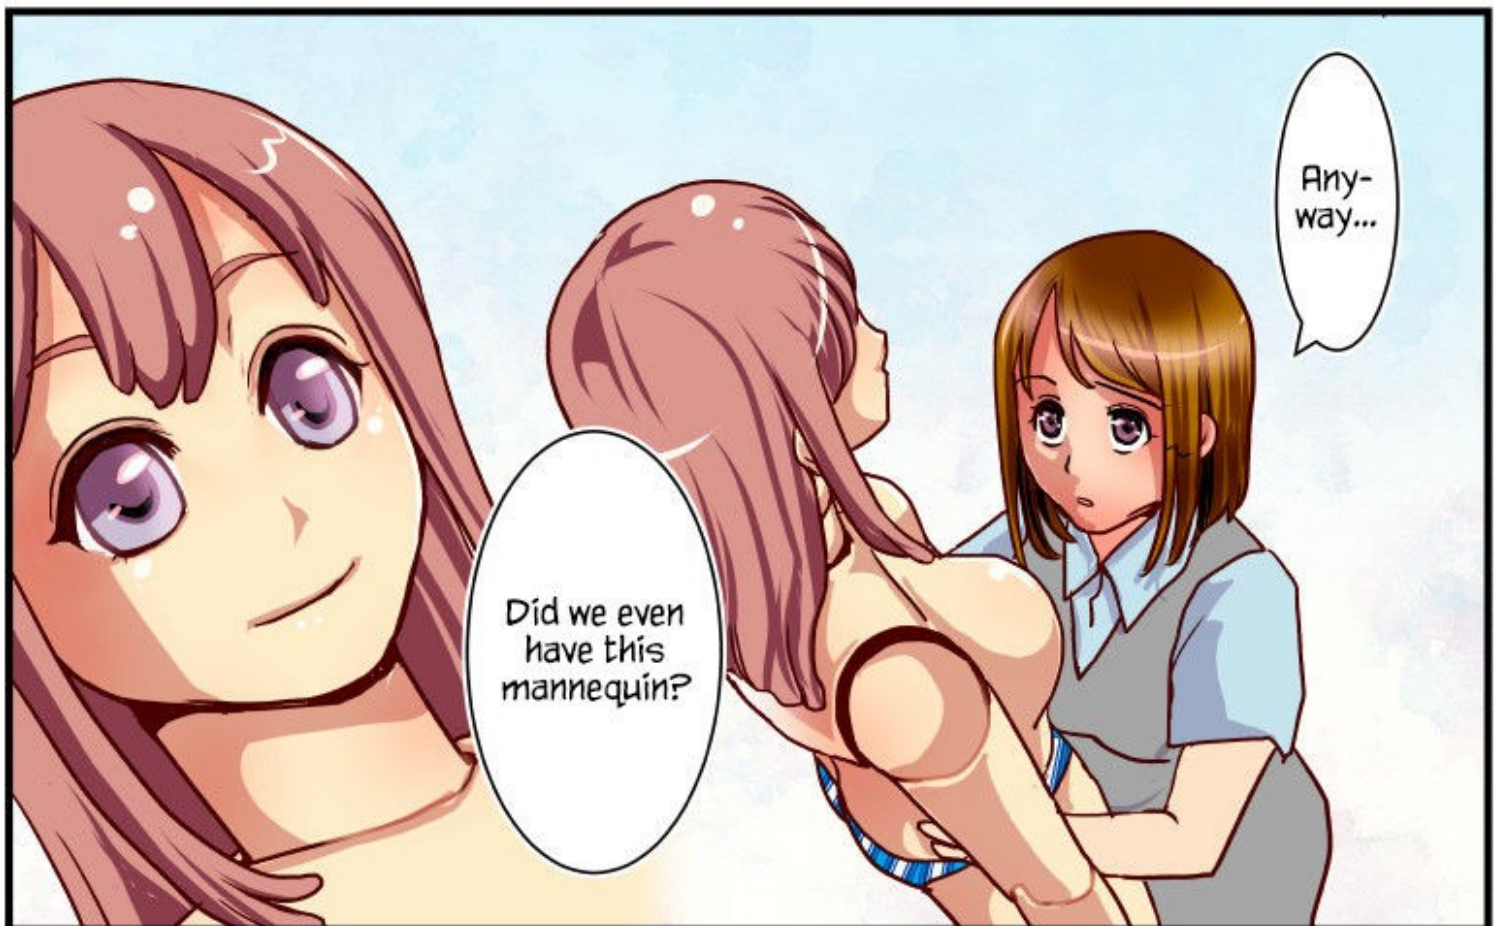

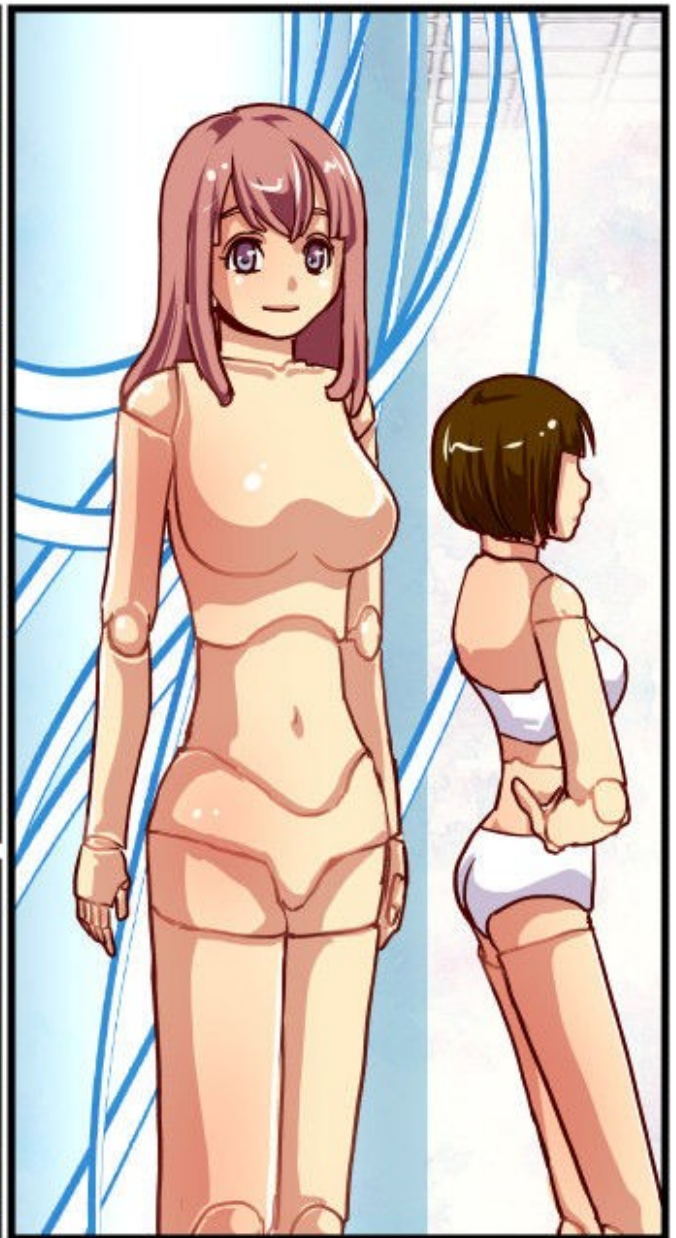

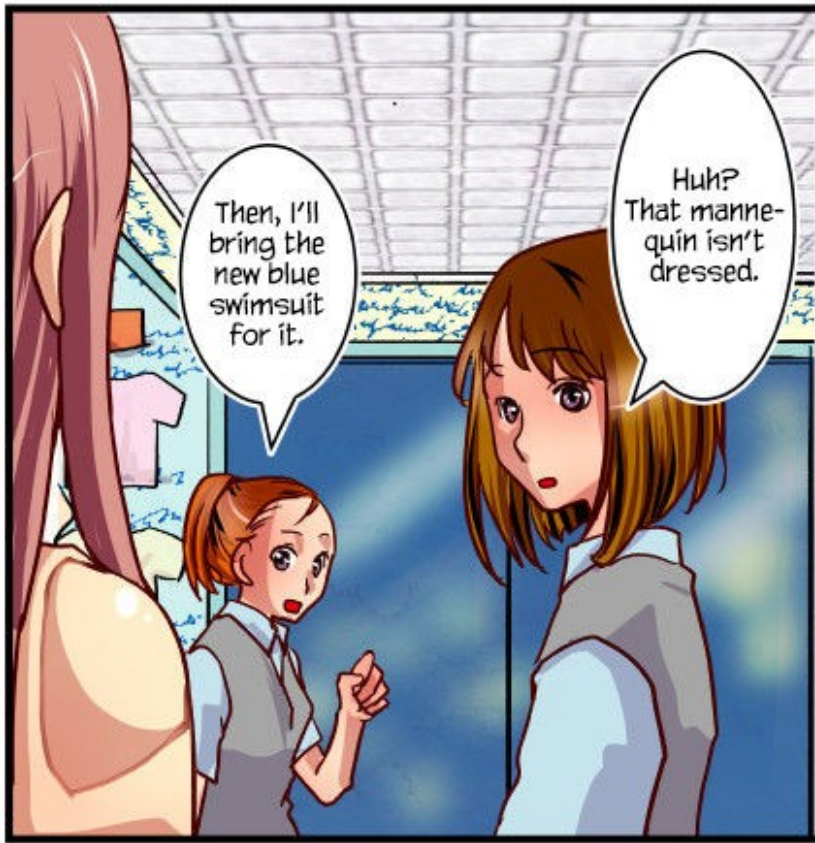

It thought it could trick us with that slippery crotch.

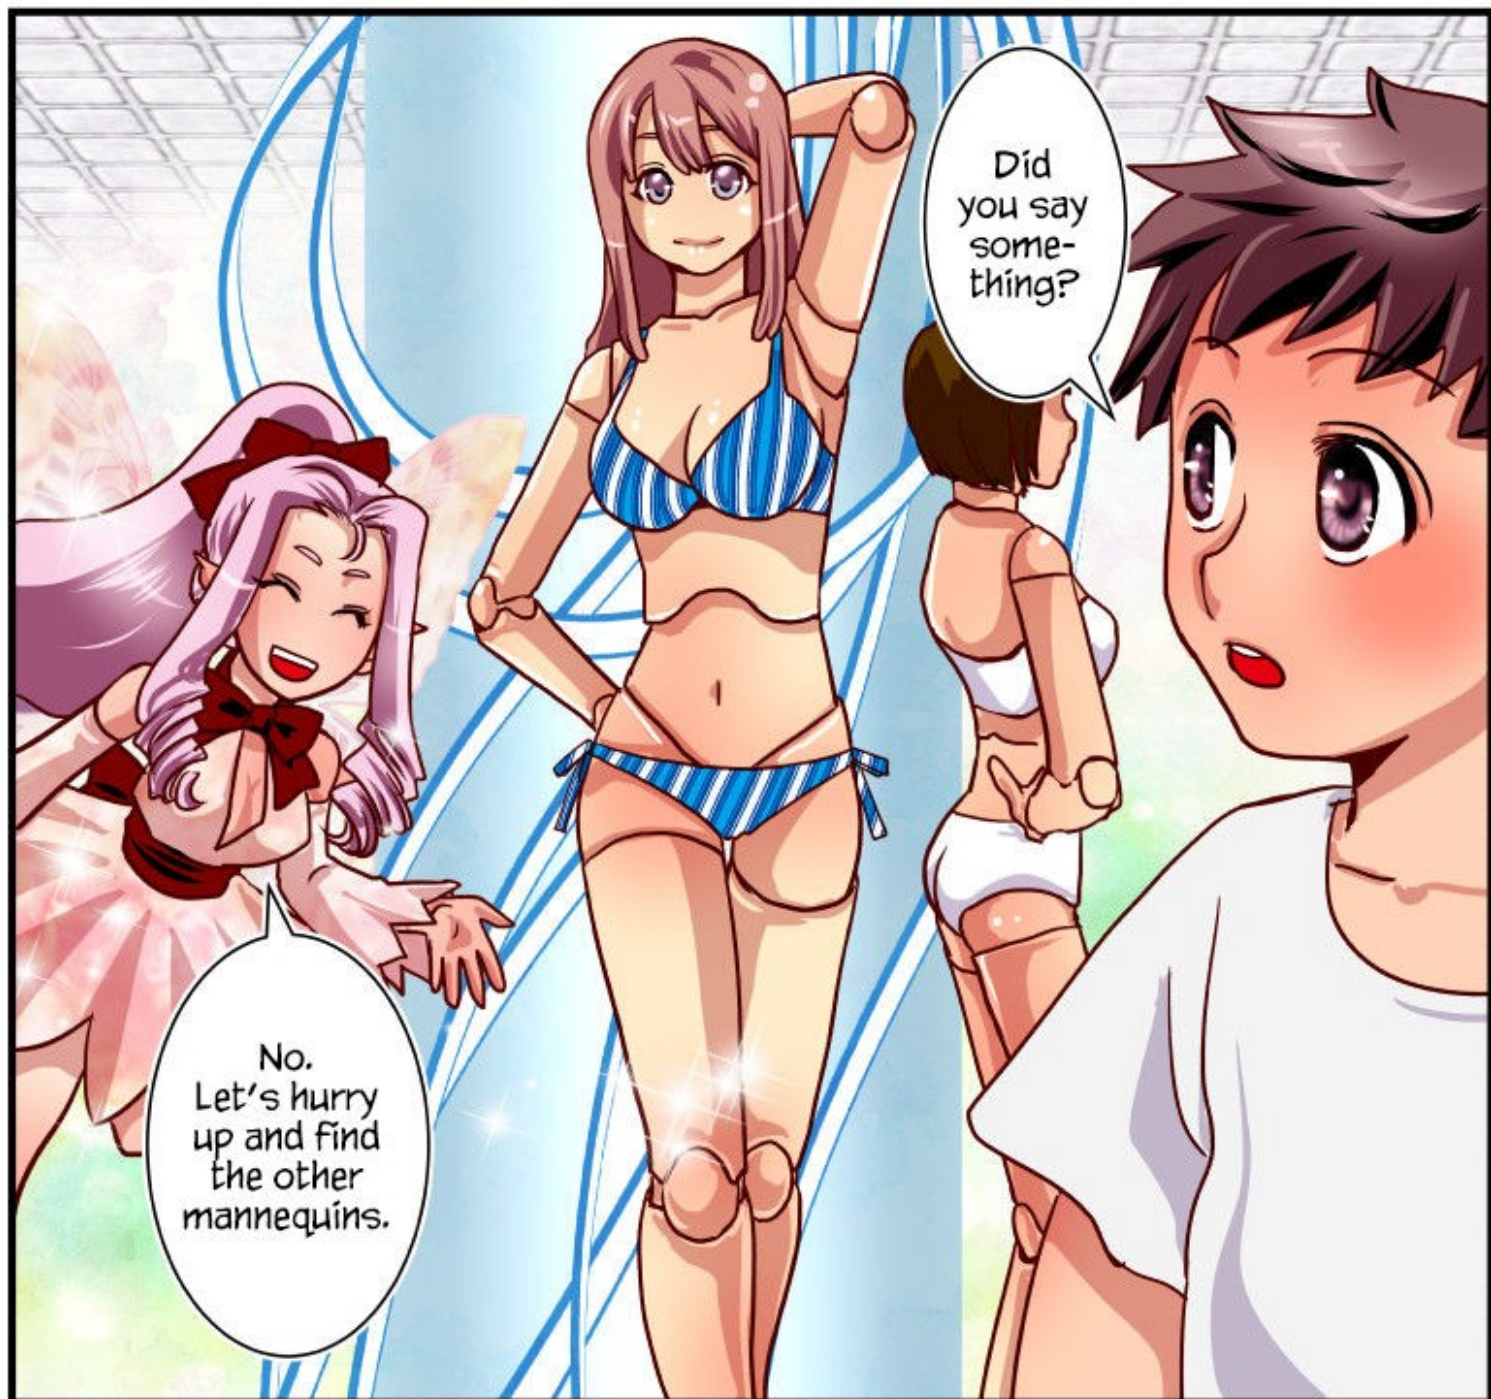

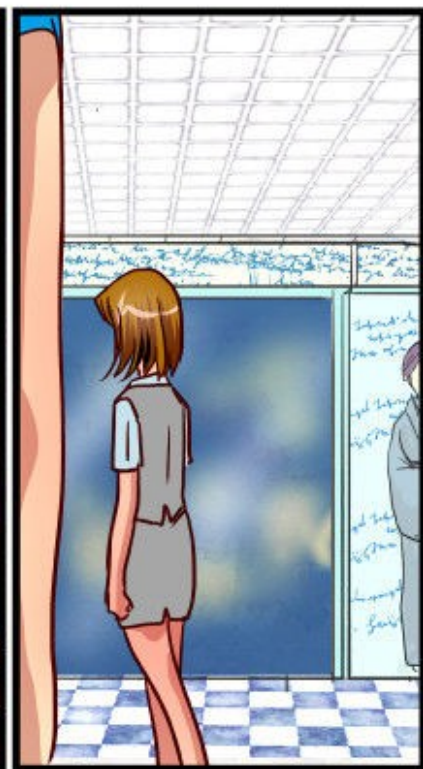

OK!

so let's take it to a shop.

We can't leave this mannequin here,
