No way that girl...

No bra!

I can see her nipples...

Is she wearing it lightly because it's early morning?

I want to keep looking, but I look at her too much isn't that, right?

It's so awkward, what should I say?

No, if it gets more awkward...

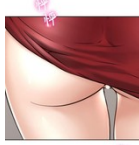

Now, wait a minute...!

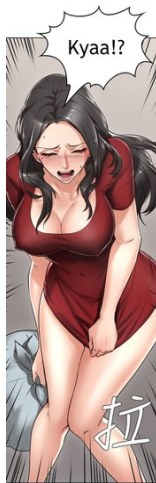

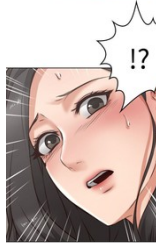

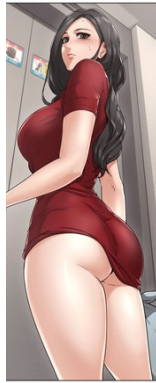

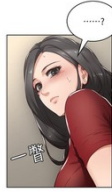

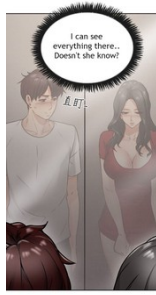

One side of the dress is curled up, right?

Brother, that looks...

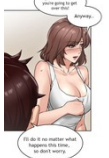

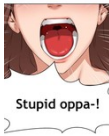

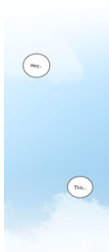

No way..

No panties?

We are a newlywed couple who have been married for a year.

Sometimes we argue with each other, but we live a happy life.

My job is a freelance novelist.

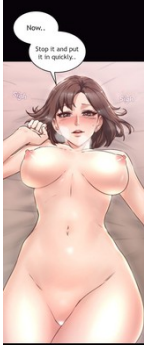

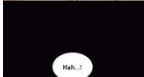

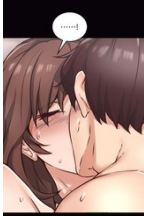

My wife, who was a big fan of my work
She followed me around in love with my novels

She loved me so much that she gave everything for me.
But..

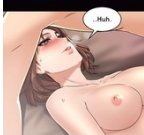

From my first experience with her

I couldn't overcome the tension...

I thought it was just a bit of nausea and stress.

I was almost ready to quit my job.

And we got married.

My feelings with you then were really happy.

Thank for my premature calculation.

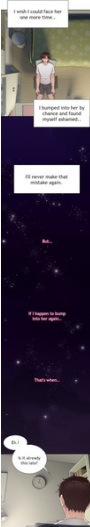

But you considered me every day, huh.

At that moment, I could feel the difference between you and me.
