ADVICE FOR TRAVEL TO PARALLEL WORLDS

- This experience could very well simply turn into a disaster for you. Remember to brush up on your survival skills. Even in the worst case scenario, sharp stones, branches, and tree bark can all be used to your advantage.
- Don't expect there to be cheats like level-ups, special skills, or experience points. It's not like hunters actually get any tougher or faster just by killing bears or anything, right?
- Don't try to fight monsters with swords. Even small boars can end up taking a hit and still charging at you and dealing a devastating attack up close. At least go in with a spear.
- Prioritize using bows and traps to your advantage. One of mankind's greatest inventions is the long-distance kill.
- Don't ever assume that goblins are trash mobs. They have the ability to create and use bows and other tools, and have not merely survived, but flourished throughout the world. They're an important part of the ecosystem. The real trash mobs are the stupid adventurers who wander unprepared and ill-equipped into their dens.

Well then,
while you won't find

※Wyvern – A type of dragon featured in Western folklore. Broadly speaking, a bipedal winged beast.

SO THIS IS HOW THEY DID IT!!
THE QUETZALCOATL,
THE PTERANODON...
ALL THE OTHER MASSIVE WINGED ANIMALS...

ABOVE THAT WEIGHT, ALL THEY CAN DO IS GLIDE...! THEY WOULDN'T BE ABLE TO GET OFF THE GROUND WITHOUT WIND ASSISTANCE!!

TAKING INTO CONSIDERATION MUSCLE WEIGHT, THE LARGEST CREATURE THAT COULD PHYSICALLY SUPPORT ITS OWN WEIGHT IN FLIGHT COULD ONLY BE ABOUT FORTY KILOGRAMS!

DAMMIT!! I WANT TO GET BACK TO JAPAN AND TELL EVERYONE ABOUT THIS!!!

MEANING REGARDLESS OF THE CHANGING WEATHER, THEY COULD FLY OVER ANY TERRAIN, GOING WHEREVER THEY DESIRED?!

THEY USED THEIR POWERFUL LEGS TO ACCELERATE WHEN WIND WASN'T PRESENT, PUSHING THEMSELVES OFF THE GROUND OR EVEN THE SURFACE OF THE WATER INSTEAD OF FLAPPING THEIR WINGS?!

AM I REALLY ...

OO! COULD THERE EVEN BE SOME MONSTER GIRLS, HERE?!

I'M NOT DREAMING, AM I?!

IS THIS FOR REAL?!

AMAZING!!!

Main Character

HOW WOULD I GO ABOUT BONING A SUPER-HOT CENTAUR?

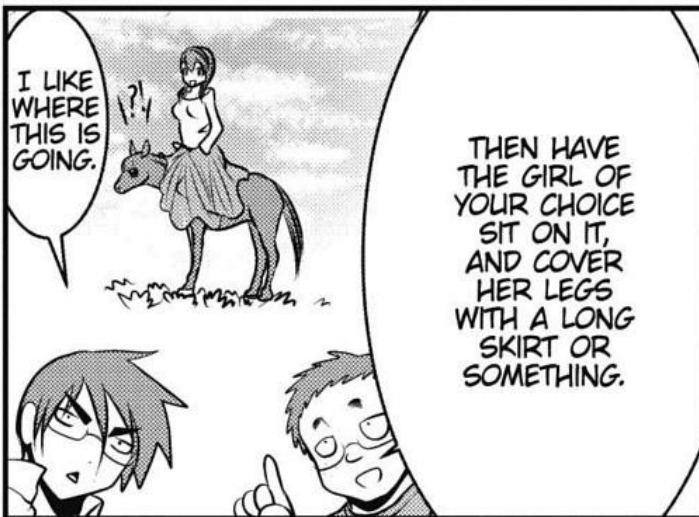

※Centaur – Half-human, half-horse creatures gifted with intelligence from Greek mythology.

PLEASE, ALLOW ME TO ENLIGHTEN YOU.

OH, KURIMUSUBI-SAN, YOU POOR, NAIVE CHILD.

Taishi Oritsue
(22 Years Old)
Minor Character

I LIKE WHERE THIS IS GOING.

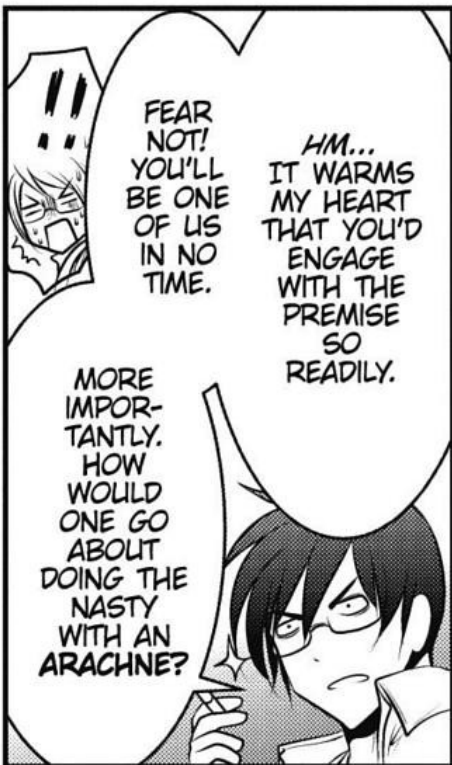

THEN HAVE THE GIRL OF YOUR CHOICE SIT ON IT, AND COVER HER LEGS WITH A LONG SKIRT OR SOMETHING.

YUH-HUH...

FIRST, YOU TAKE A FEMALE PONY.

※Arachne – In game lore, this typically refers to a half-human, half-spider creature. However, its origins are traced back to the story of Arachne, a woman who was transformed into a spider.

I'VE NO USEFUL DATA TO GO OFF... BEST TO WORRY ABOUT THAT LATER.

HOW DID I EVEN GET HERE, ANYWAY? I MEAN... IT JUST HAPPENED.

O-KAAAY... PRIORITIES: FIGURE OUT HOW TO SURVIVE BEFORE FINDING A WAY BACK TO JAPAN...

OKAY... YEAH.

HA HA HA HA HA

SO, FIRST I SHOULD BREAK STONES AND FASHION A WEAPON. THEN I COULD USE STONE TOOLS TO MAKE A BOW DRILL TO START A FIRE... NEXT, A BED... AND ALSO A TREE BARK POT TO BOIL DRINKING WATER. AFTER THAT, I SHOULD SURVIVE FOR A LITTLE WHILE, AT LEAST...

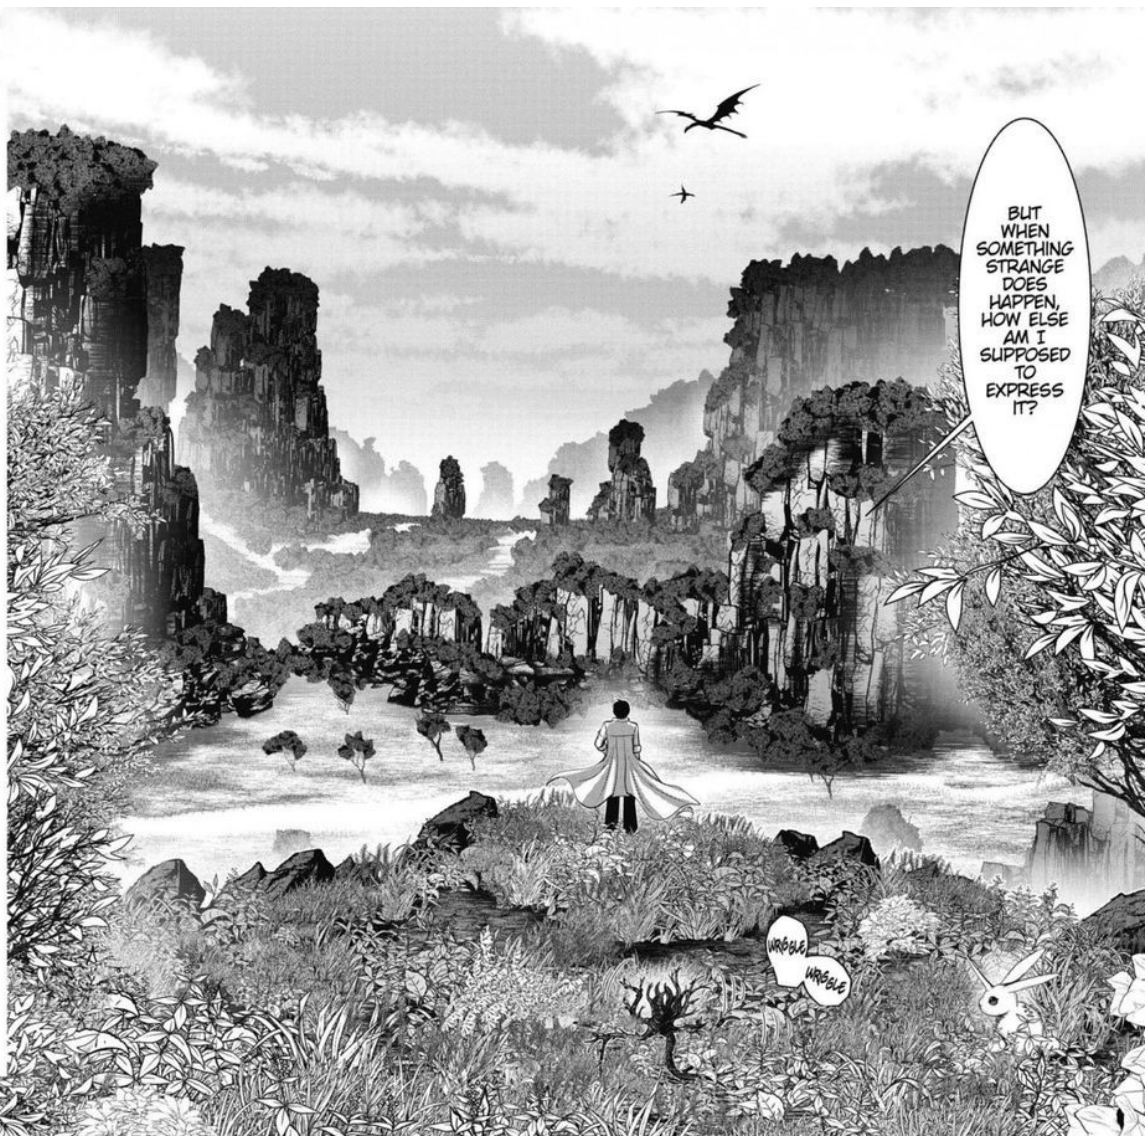

RIGHT... SURVIVAL SKILLS, YEAH. THINK ABOUT WHAT ORITSLIE WAS TEACHING ME THAT TIME WE WENT CAMPING.

PRIORITIZING "FIRE", "SAFETY", AND "WATER". SEARCHING FOR FOOD CAN COME LATER.

RAH!! RAH!!

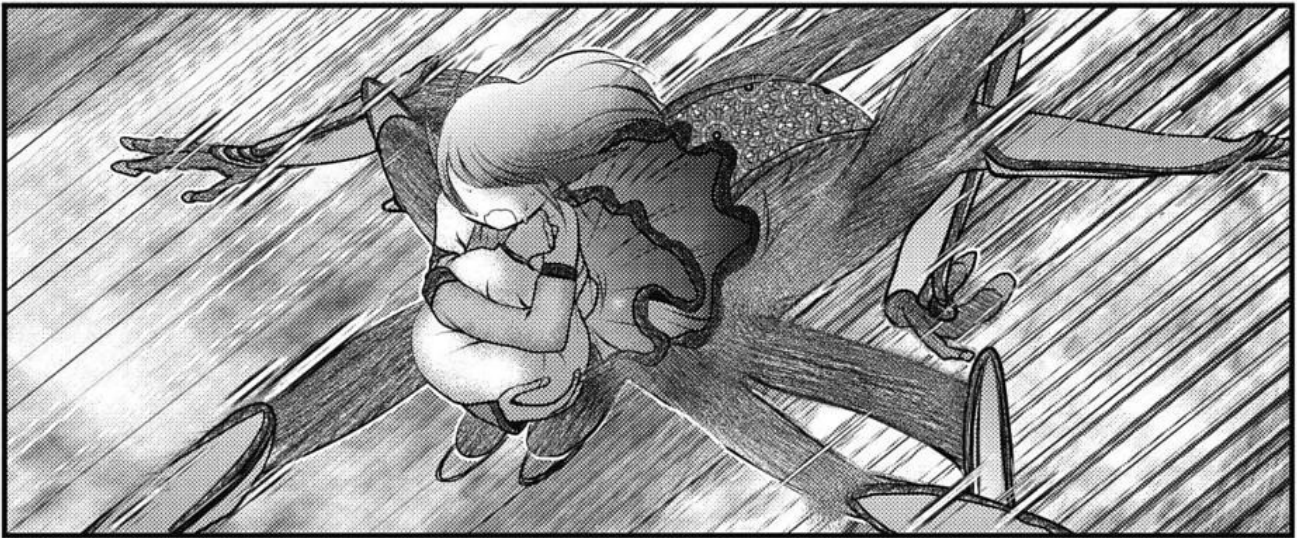

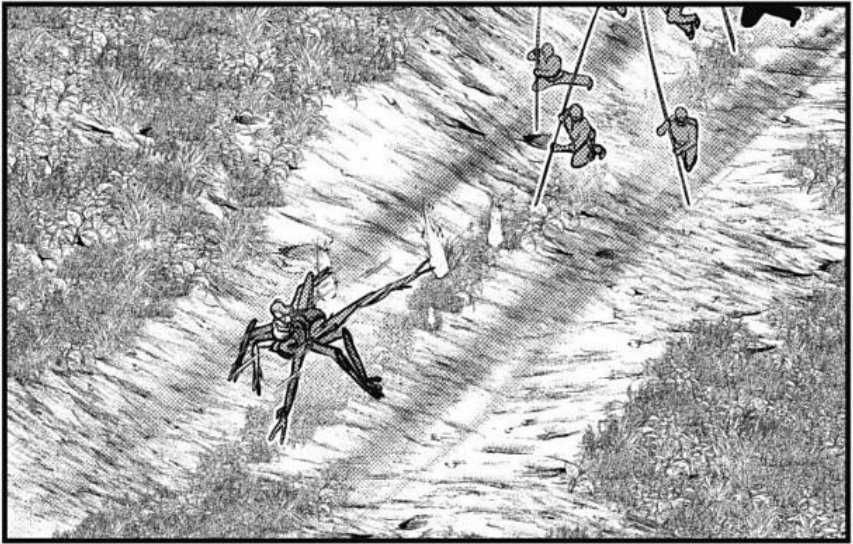

WOW. EVEN FROM SCRATCH, I COULD GO A LONG WAY HERE.

THEN I'D JUST NEED TO MAKE A BOW AND SPEAR... USE STONE AND MUD TO BUILD A FURNACE AND USE CLAY AND ASH TO MAKE CLAY POTS AND UTENSILS... MOVE ON TO IRON...

BUT WHEN SOMETHING STRANGE DOES HAPPEN, HOW ELSE AM I SUPPOSED TO EXPRESS IT?

WRABBLE WRABBLE

HRAAAAAAAAAARRRRGH!!!

WE'RE FARMERS FROM SASHIYOI VILLAGE!! AND THAT ARACHNE STOLE FROM US!!

IF SHE DOESN'T EAT, SHE'LL...

M...MY MOTHER... SHE'S SICK, AND...

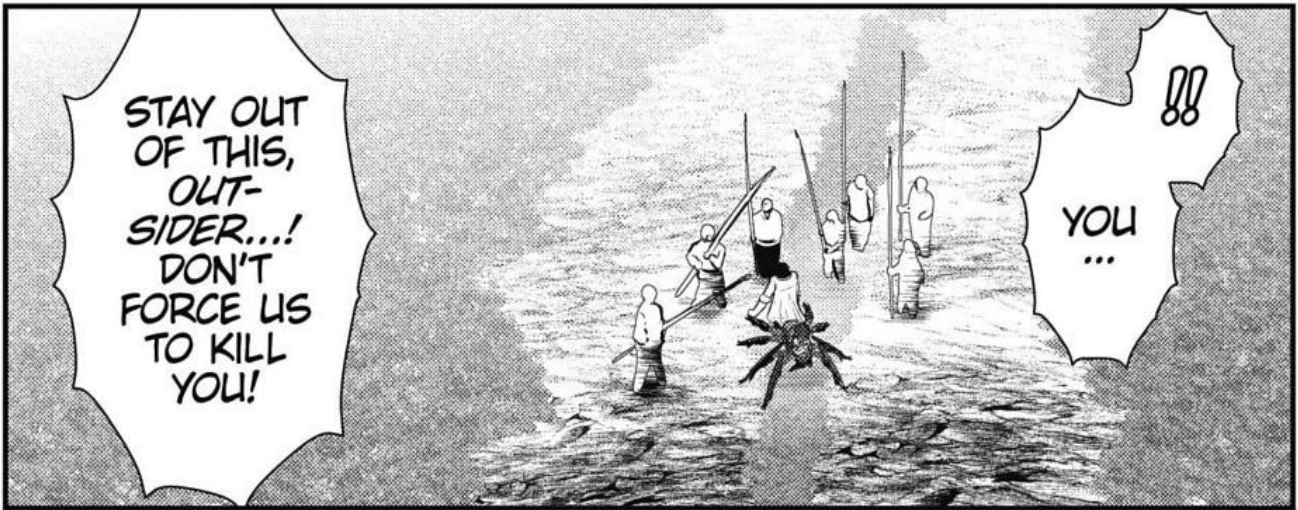

WE TOLD HER WE COULDN'T SELL IT TO HER, SO SHE UP AND NABBED IT!! OUR GRANARIES AREN'T EXACTLY OVERFLOWING, YOU KNOW!!

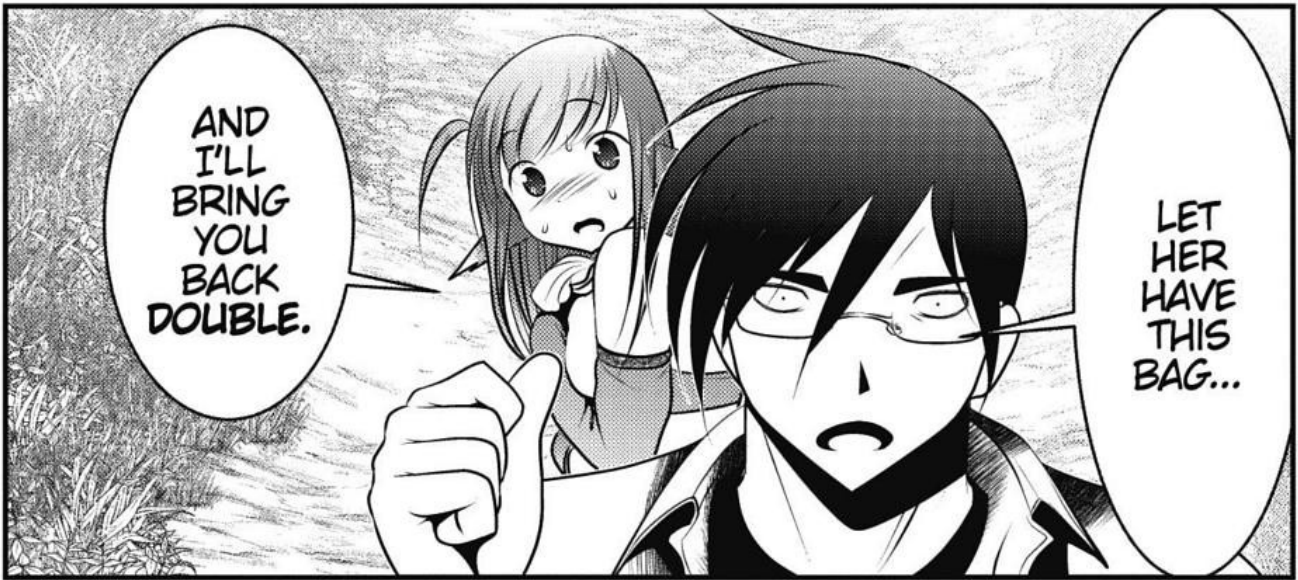

BWACK

BWISH

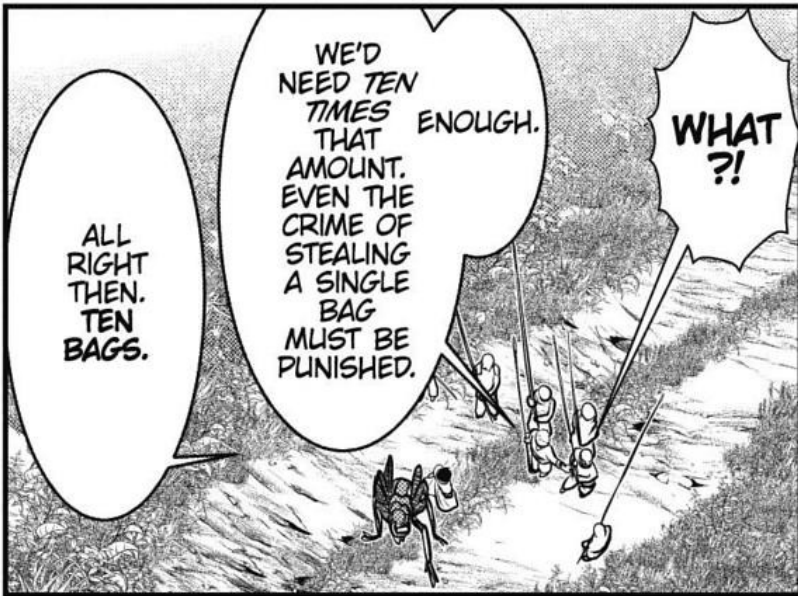

SO YOU'RE SAYING WE SHOULD STARVE INSTEAD ?!

AND I'LL BRING YOU BACK DOUBLE.

LET HER HAVE THIS BAG...

ALL RIGHT THEN. TEN BAGS.

WE'D NEED TEN TIMES THAT AMOUNT. ENOUGH. EVEN THE CRIME OF STEALING A SINGLE BAG MUST BE PUNISHED.

WHAT?!

WHAT'S YOUR NAME?

TEN DAYS. BRING US FIVE DEER, OR AN EQUAL AMOUNT OF SOME OTHER FOOD SUPPLIES BEFORE THAT TIME, OR WE GO TO WAR.

WE'D ACCEPT FIVE DEER IN PLACE OF THE GRAIN IN EXCHANGE.

SHE DIDN'T STEAL MUCH, BUT WE NEED TO PUNISH THE CRIME TO DISCOURAGE OTHERS.

CHIEF...

AND I'M GOING TO BE THE CREATURE GIRL HAREM KING!

I'M DAISUKE KURIMU-SUBI.

G... GOOD LUCK !!

WHETHER YOU SUCCEED OR NOT... THAT'S ONE ROUGH ROAD AHEAD.

ONE WIFE'S PAIN ENOUGH TO BEGIN WITH...

SOUNDS LIKE MORE TROUBLE THAN IT'S WORTH ...

R.. RIGHT.

UH... UMM...

W...WELL, YOU HAVE TEN DAYS! DON'T FORGET YOUR PROMISE.

THIS ISN'T A SPIDER'S BIOLOGY AT ALL...!!!

YOU'RE A FULL-FLEDGED MAMMAL!!

TWO GROUPS OF SHOULDER BLADES ON EITHER SIDE... A STRANGELY LARGE PELVIS CONSIDERING THE SIZE OF THE LEGS... COULD THAT BE... A REMNANT OF THE SKULL?!

THESE BUMPS ON YOUR BACK MUST BE BACK-BONES, THEN!! YOU HAVE TWO RUNNING PARALLEL?!

THAT'S IT...OF COURSE!!! IT'D BE IMPOSSIBLE FOR YOUR UPPER AND LOWER HALVES TO BELONG TO DIFFERENT GENERA...!!!

AREN'T YOU GOING TO... YOU KNOW... LIE WITH ME...?

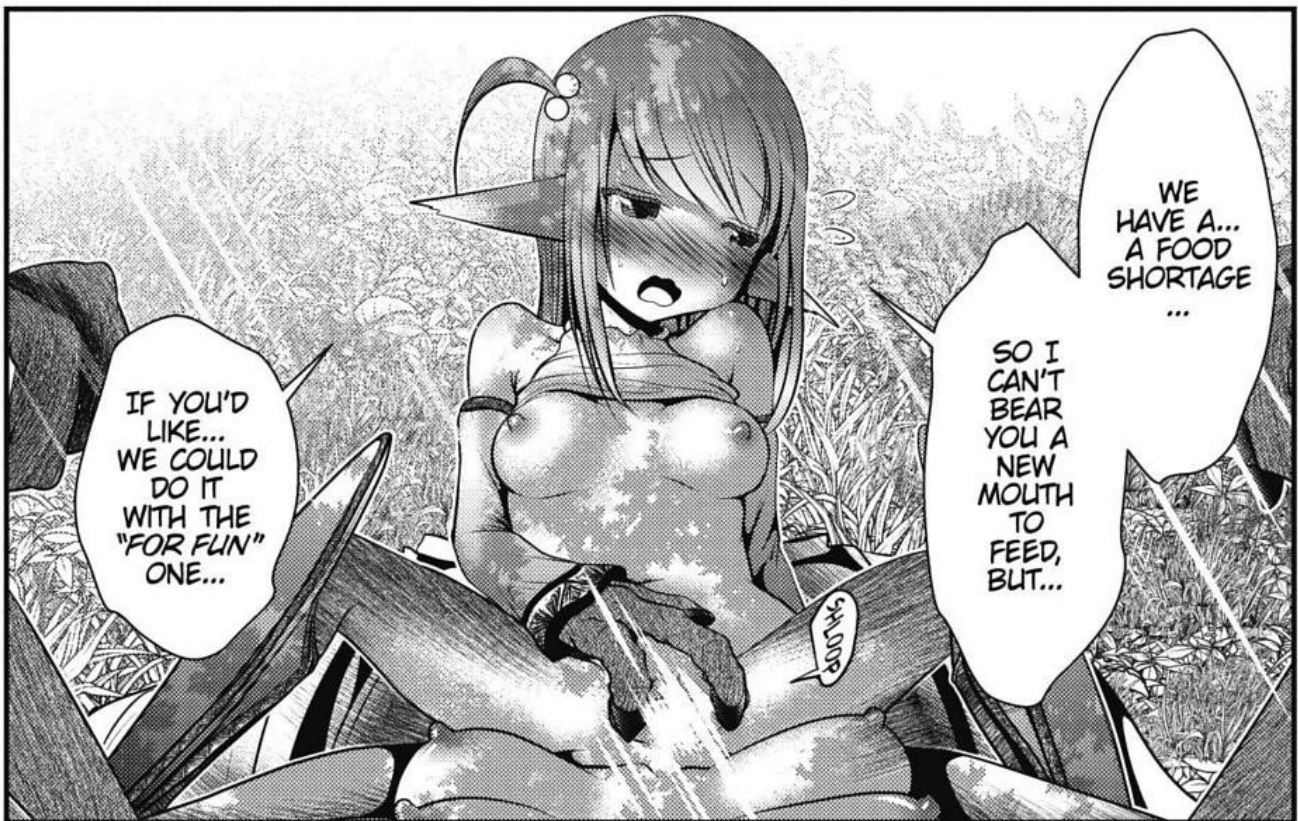

I MEAN... AS THANKS FOR SAVING ME...

UH... UMM... YOU MENTIONED SOMETHING ABOUT A HAREM, AND...

IF YOU'D LIKE... WE COULD DO IT WITH THE "FOR FUN" ONE...

Other Worlds

Traveling to another world and encountering all sorts of strange powers – or using modern knowledge to your advantage – has been a staple of science fiction for as long as anyone can remember, but it's not as far removed from reality as people might think. In the distant past, crossing the seas or mountains was practically passing into another world, and those visitors who possessed superior technology or knowledge were welcomed, well-treated, and respected by the residents of those new worlds.

In some ways, these are the classic tales of old which always had happy endings. We must be careful, however. One step further and we encounter the tales of those who bring technologies and knowledge they have no real claim to into other worlds for profit, and simply become traitors to their own countries.

Conveniently, when set in entirely different worlds, there is never any danger that our protagonist could sell out their own country in such a fashion.

However, there are plenty of other worries to consider. One of them is bacteria and viruses! Now, the chances that all of our bacteria and viruses (which have undergone so many generational changes) would have had the same evolution in a parallel world is incredibly low. Visitors will spread, and in turn receive micro-organisms that they have no antibodies to defend against. Even here on Earth, unless very carefully approached, new contact with previously undiscovered tribes must inevitably result in the unintentional spread of disease. We seem to be safe from those kinds of tragedies in this story, but going into another world, one always has to be cautious.

In addition, talking too freely to medieval-age other-worlders about new technology can be dangerous. You can dismiss this as just a fairy tale, but in every civilization and every period of world history, there are always incredibly intelligent individuals who exist within society. Talking to other-worlders about air planes or cars—teaching them the structure and inner workings of an engine, for example—can end up only teaching them the answer to a puzzle they might not have otherwise solved. Especially if there are talented scientists at the state level, they could soon possess advanced technologies by simple trial and error. Modern humanity evolved to its current heights without hints, instead building up science and society slowly and gradually, through experimentation. It's difficult to imagine how a less developed civilization would respond to such hints.

If we aren't careful when venturing into other worlds, the chances of death, murder and warfare are astoundingly high, you know.
