AobaQMadou

In order to promote the tourist attractions to the girls working downtown, we decided to make a promotional program about Inujima City...

TN: Inujima literally means "Dog Island", and Wanko means "Doggy".

This is about a project of Inujima's local broadcasting station, "Wanko Television".

One day, at the Futanari clinic,

Huh!?

Me?

Aoi Jimyouji, may I ask you to help us with an onsen report?

So please,

DIRECTOR IDE
Inujima Public Relations Department

As you are a disciple of Tokawa-sensei, who the city depends a lot on,

we think there's nobody more suitable for the job than you!

A report... At an onsen...

Naked...

TN: Marudashi means "fully exposed".

Wow, ehem...
So this is the bath, right? It's huge.

The filming... has started...

Well then, let's go...

Aah...

※Even for the filming, we got no permission to use a towel.

What a nice bath~

It's warming me up...

んんん

んんん

ちんぽ

Please report about the bath.

It feels so good...

Haa

In this bath, Futanium-lubricated water is used... The water temperature is about 40 degree Celsius...

It's colorless, transparent, and slimy.

The effect of this bath is to moisten your body's mucous membranes.

Yes ...

LOV

Mnh

Please give an explanation.

Eh, mucous membranes are...

...The one that is easiest to understand is probably the glans...

Like here.

It's a sensitive region where the skin is thin... It's the most sensitive part of the penis.

Hi! This is Yodomu Futaba.

Thank you very much for purchasing "On-Site Futanari Onsen Report★"!

This is the 24th work of this circle.

This work continues the spin-off series as third instance after "Beach House" and "Health and Physical Education", if I count the books with Aoi-chan as the protagonist, it's the 4th book after "Futanarikko Succubus", and so on (quite complex counting, right?). The special water of Inujima's onsen district is said to be good for the body, so students from the city come here too from time to time.

Aoi-chan is usually together with Rami-sensei at FMS, so this time for the first time, I let her go out independently.

As she found a new playmate here, it became fun to draw this story.

(Director Ide hasn't learned her lesson and might plan another project already...)

On this occasion, I thank you for the passing year once again.

I hope for your support in 2020 as well.

Have a nice New Year!

And see you next time!
