

My Ideal Life in Another World 2

ボクの理想の異世界生活

NORUN

The protagonist of this story, who used to be a 40 year old male virgin until he masturbated too much, died of a technobreak and found himself reincarnated in another world. In this new world where biological dispositions make it so men can only go into heat and procreate once per year, he has the special ability to go into heat whenever he pleases.

MISHA

Norun's fiancée in the world he was reincarnated in. A kind girl that likes to look after people and also forgives his lewd tendencies.

The principal characteristic of these gifted men is their ability to go into heat at will, completely disregarding the fixed, once-per-year, mating cycle.

A man blessed with "The Monarch's Gift" has a higher physical potential than the average man, as well as talents that would seem alien to the common folk.

However, these properties are 100 times stronger in the seminal fluids of men with the so called "Monarch's Gift".

Normally, semen has special properties that make any woman that smells or ingests it to go into heat.

AH! THERE YOU ARE!

HMM...

I BETTER KEEP MY "GIFTED" STATUS A SECRET THEN.

Many are the examples seen through history in which those with this power have become objects of envy and fear eventually finding themselves unable to escape a bloody fate...

This heat-inducing effect also becomes irresistible for women, who in normal conditions should be able to fight it by sheer force of will.

SAY, CAN WE GO HOME ALREADY?

BUT...
THERE MUST BE MORE TO IT THAN THAT.

あー

Hmph...

Basically,
those "gifted"
with the ability to control their estrus had the best chances to be appointed as
"monarchs".

In ages past,
a new king
would be crowned every set amount of years based on how numerous his progeny was.

ALRIGHT, THERE WE...
GO...

い
Ah...

YOU'LL END UP
HURTING YOURSELF
LIKE THAT.
LET ME HELP YOU WITH THAT.
