You! Shake your ass a little !!

And from what I could see with my binocular, there seems to be a lot of demons gathered here. Isn't it a little bit too dangerous?

In my opinion, there is easily a few hundred of them in this place...

We were sent to investigate the disappearance of the village girls, but I was far from thinking that we would fall on this...

But we cannot leave like this. We must at least try to find the missing girls from the village

I have no doubt that it is dangerous!

Fine, but we must do so carefully. If we get spotted, we won't have any chance to escape from here
