

[Feng] Now that I think of it...
the ice cream was pretty good...

[Ye] I got it from the front desk staff...
Huh? Wait, that's a different person?

[Mo] Nice to meet you. I'm Villain A.
Also, I don't know any Shanhua.

[Ye] ...Uh.

[Mo] Let's play a game. I've planted a [Fortune Bomb] in this hotel's screening room. If you can't retrieve it in time, everyone in the hotel will have their luck lowered.
Please believe we have the means to do this.

[Feng] So it's fine even if we fail?
This mission is unusually easy!

[Feng] Uh, Ye...?

[Ye] That would affect gacha drop rates!
Unforgivable!! Feng, let's go.
We have to stop her evil plan!

[Feng] Whoa! Don't drag me! We haven't even heard the full mission details yet!

Mission
Entry Point

This mission didn't provide any bottoms...

The AC in this room is making my ass freezing cold...

Alright then mission start...

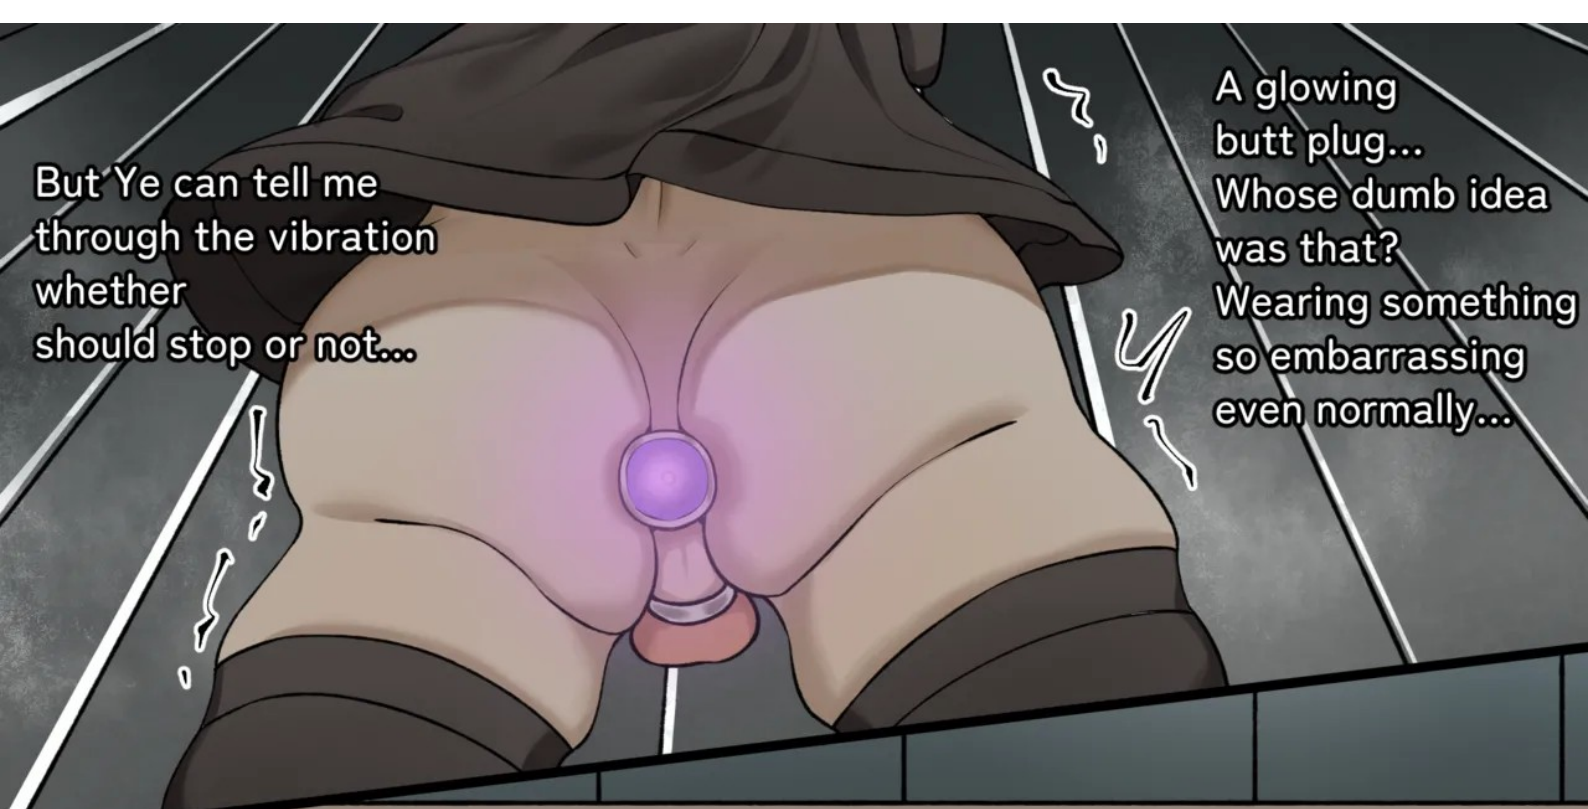

No restraints, but not being able to see is still a pain...

The intel says two people in the screening room... Sounds like a detective movie from the dialogue?

Gotta keep my movements small...

But Ye can tell me through the vibration whether should stop or not...

A glowing butt plug... Whose dumb idea was that? Wearing something so embarrassing even normally...

Said it was nothing worth noting...

Seems there's another mechanism, but Ye didn't tell me.

Pros and cons... Hope Ye in the monitoring room can see the situation clearly for me...

...Well, I'll find out soon enough.

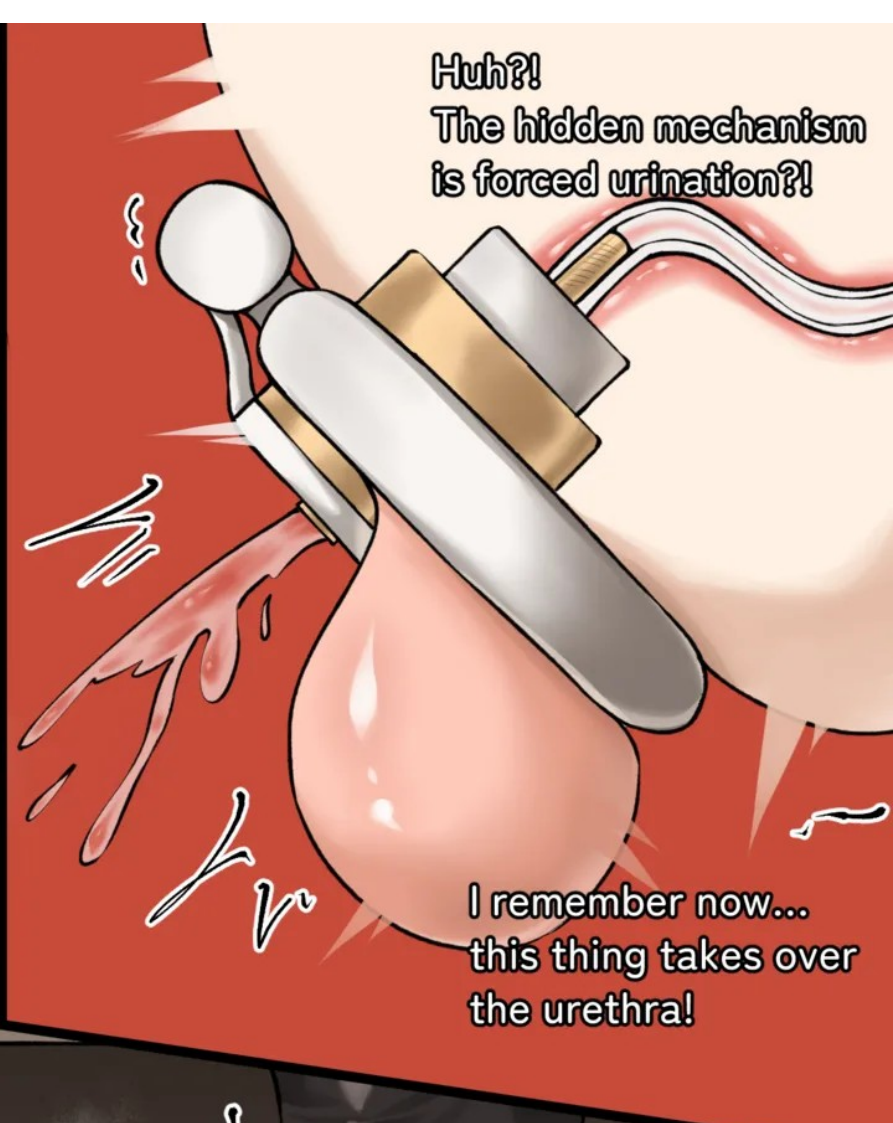

Hope they won't notice someone crawling under the TV...

The passage ahead is getting lower.

Completely... flowing...
Can't stop...

Ahh...
pee's running down
my thighs onto the floor...
They'll definitely see...

Huh?!
The hidden mechanism is forced urination?!

I remember now...
this thing takes over the urethra!

How's this any different from peeing
in public...

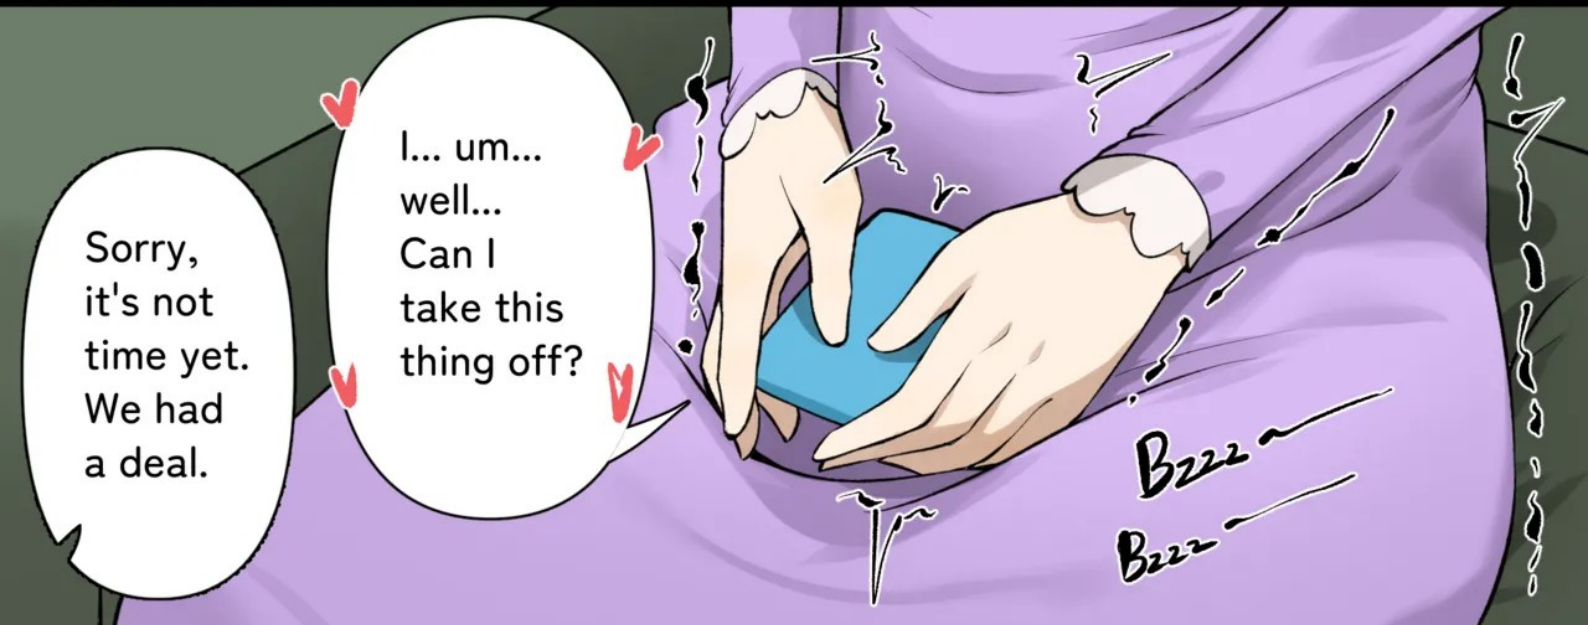

If you say "Whatever," I'll spike it with a love potion.

Young master Lark, want a drink?

Sorry, sorry, Miss Lark.

I said don't call me that.

Sorry, it's not time yet. We had a deal.

I... um... well... Can I take this thing off?

Bzzz

Bzzz

Oh right, what'll you have? We're pretty well stocked here.

Huh?

Hmm...

Why is there a puddle on the floor!

Probably just the staff overwatering the plants.

Yeah.....

It's... a result of the balance of power... So, orange juice after all?

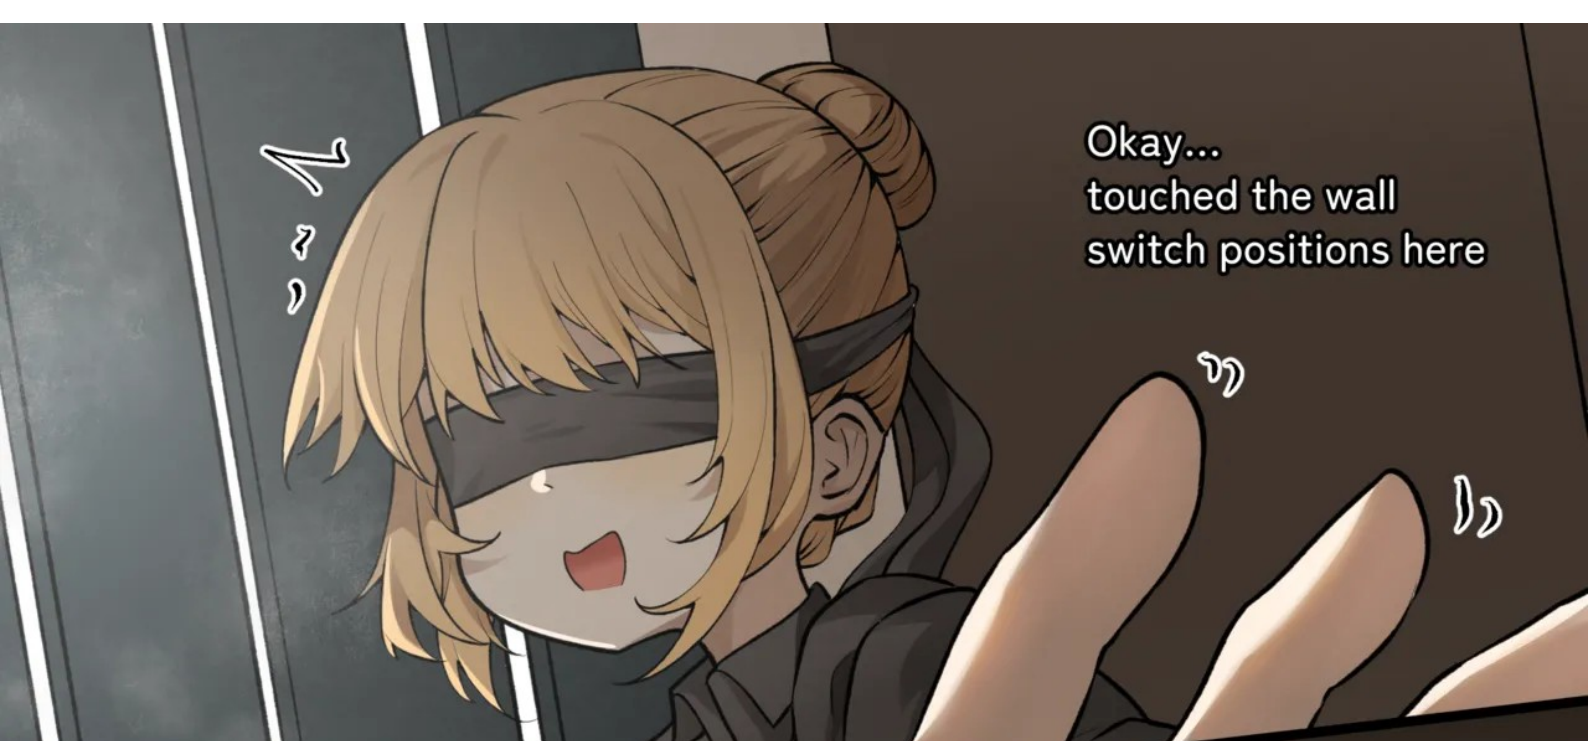

Relax. The Mystic Mountain Lodge doesn't allow interference from any power on Earth.

If something like that happened, I'd protect you first.

Sounds like they have... quite the nice relationship...

Here you go, Miss Lark.

Maybe I was just... too nervous...

Okay... touched the wall
switch positions here

Plenty of room
crouched down
no problem

My side totally exposed and both guests
are looking this way

But getting back out is gonna be a pain...

...Yeah
height limit
for sure gotta crawl in

Can't cause a commotion...
But now's the perfect time while the plot is advancing...

The chance of being seen should be low...

But what worries me most is that beam
of light coming in from the side...

Got in smoothly...
My chest is completely pressed against the ground...

My nipples are grinding against the fabric ♡

Let me see how to dismantle
this device first...

I hope they don't spot me...

※Sliding block puzzle:
A game device
where the target block is moved to a designated position
through a gap.

This feel... hmm...
there's a groove...
Is it a sliding block puzzle?

Not too hard
Can solve it in under 30 seconds

Nah, just a wild guess.

You already knew?

The one in the coat is the culprit,
right?
Looks kind,
though.

Look,
he's starting with the sneaky
moves Trying to wipe off
the evidence
on the sly.

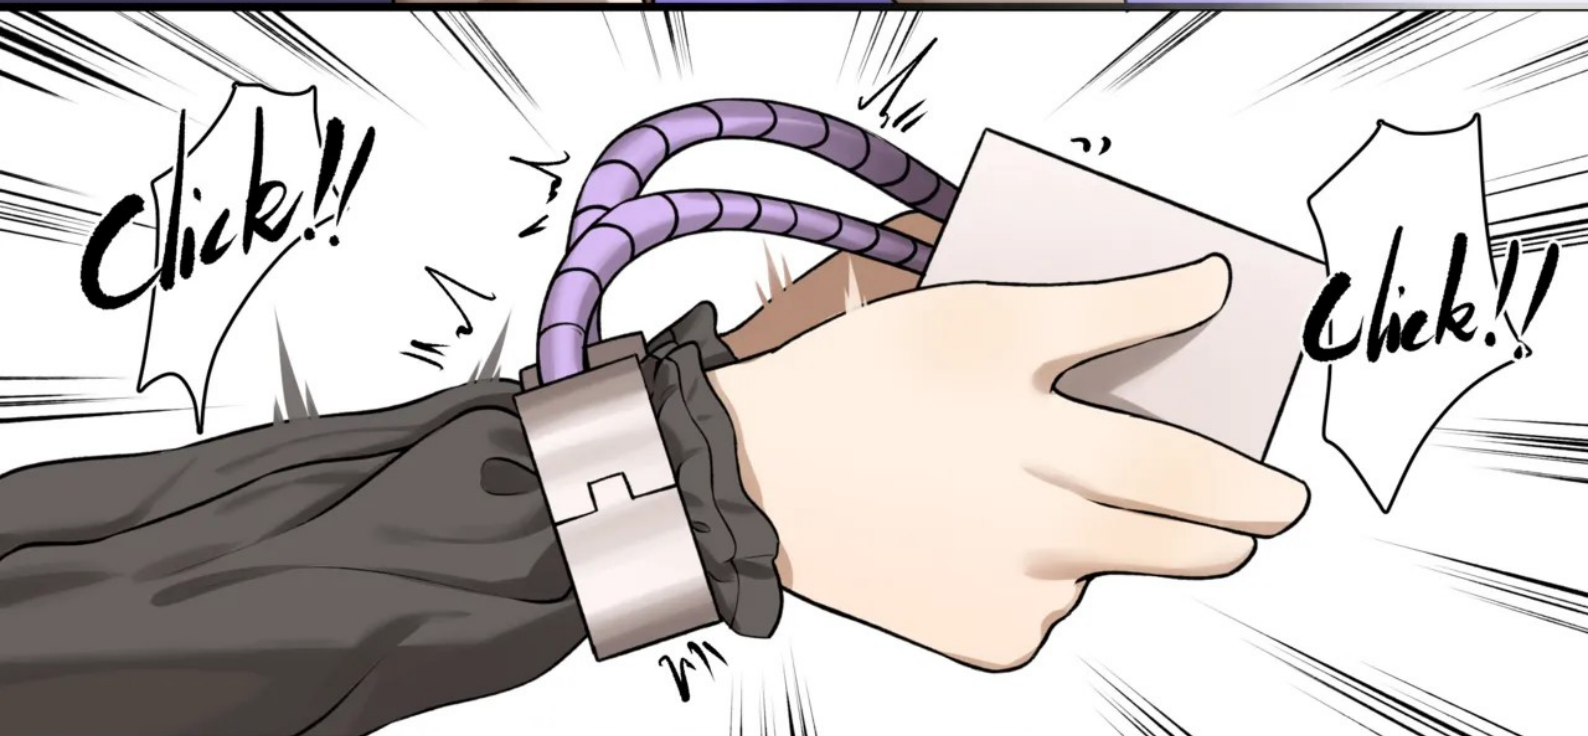

He said
he was a carpenter,
but his knowledge of the case
is way too
complete.

There... that should have disarmed
the bomb...

Last push...
just slide it up...

Click!!

Click!!

Lucky it's not the kind that locks
my wrists
together...
I can still move my elbows.

What the hell!?
The bomb
shoots out handcuffs
when disarmed??

Gotta retreat fast and ask Villain A what to do about this...

Haven't moved using just my elbows
in way too long...

Gotta use
my knees too...
Is the vertical space
enough?

Good... good...

Don't bump
head...

Just like this...
slowly back out of the passage...

Yeah... definitely heard it.

Did you hear a metallic
sound?
Not from the movie.

This corner spot
doesn't seem hidden.
With that pot outside,
it should block the view...

I'll rest here
for a bit...

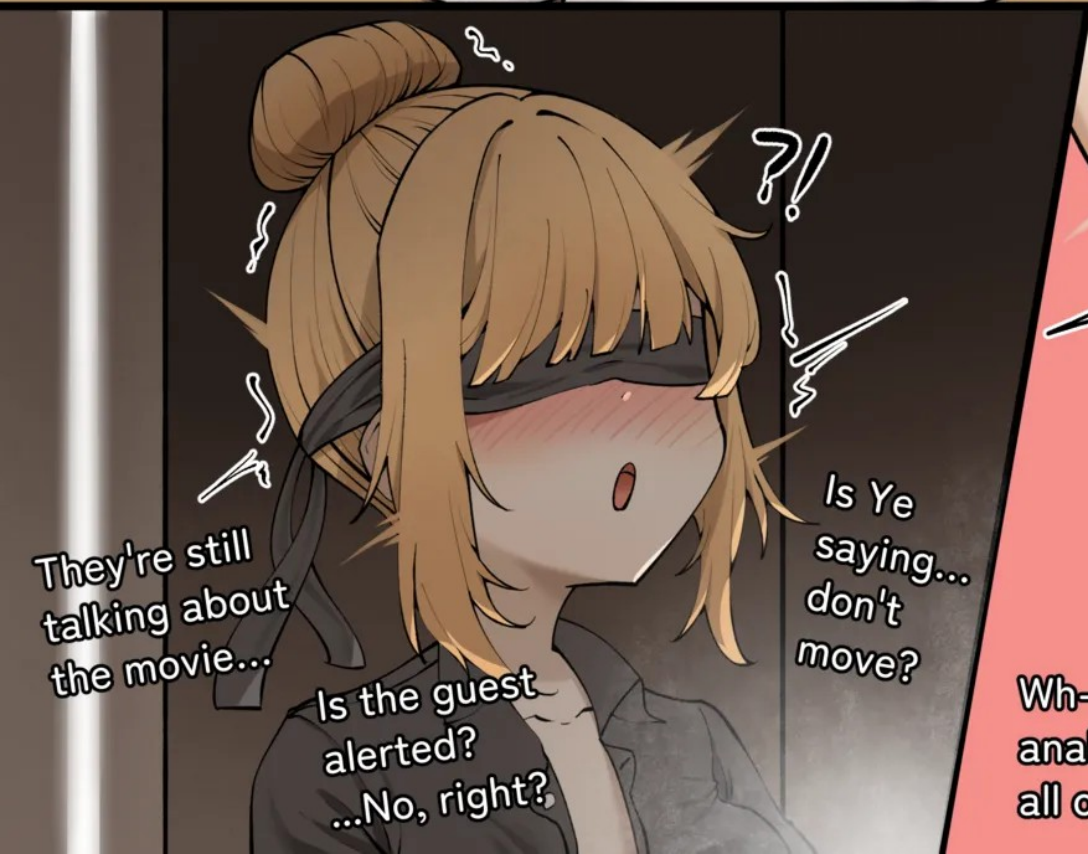

As you say, Miss. I'll fetch your drink.

A pool of blood doesn't just appear at a crime scene for no reason.

Takes off...

They're still talking about the movie...

Is the guest alerted? ...No, right?

Is Ye saying... don't move?

Buzz!!
Buzz!

Wh-why did the anal plug start working all of a sudden?
