Our most Sincere thanks for reading!!

Yandere no Hon is an original (not a parody of anything) hentai doujinshi produced by Kuroneko-Kan and Chatsune, who are known better as Muririn and Kobuichi, respectively. Usually I would not bother with doujins, but those two are my favourite illustrators.

This scanlation is done on my own behalf, and not affiliated in any way with any groups. Translation and editing were both done by me, though I would like to thank Lordmaxim for his assistance in translating one kanji I could not read (in my defence, it was terribly handwritten).
