(The narrator)

....In the case of a dog, however, that moment (or should we say, the duration) of ejaculation is said to last for about as long as 30 minutes...

Quiver -
Quiver...

(The narrator)

The sensation at the moment of the ejaculation of semen is common knowledge if you're a man.

However, unfortunately that sensation is just a fleeting, momentary event. There are probably many people who think of that as regrettable...

1

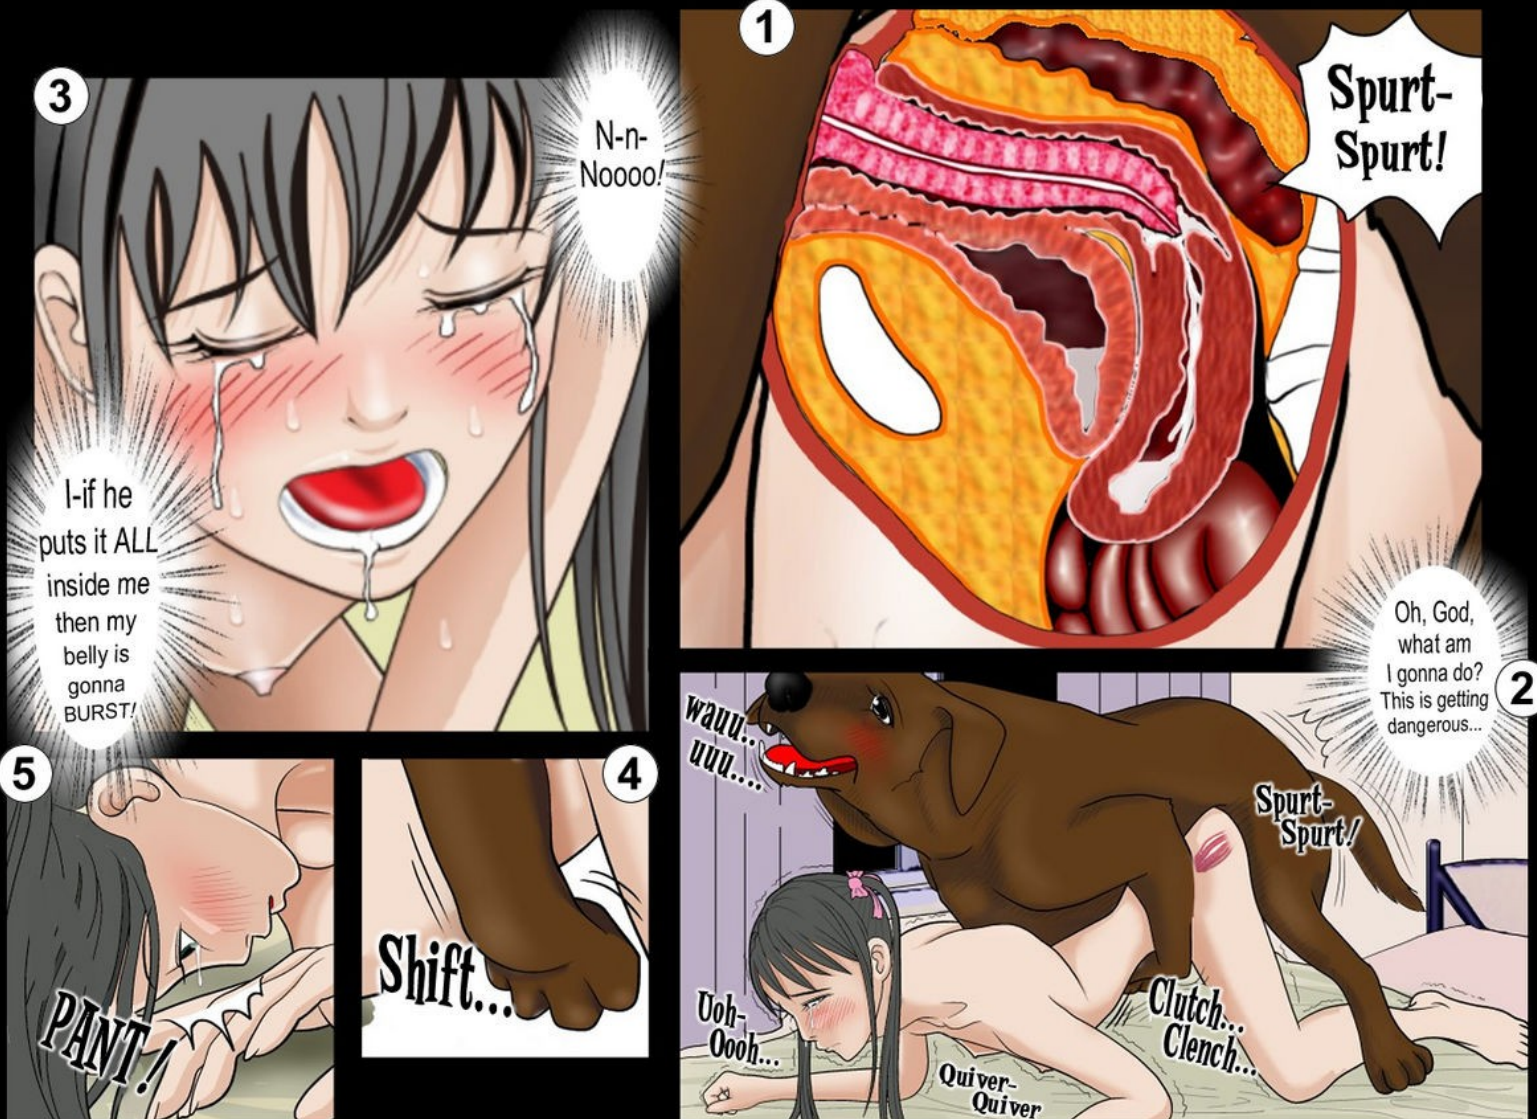

Mammals which engage in such intense and gratifying sexual unions are particularly happy creatures indeed...

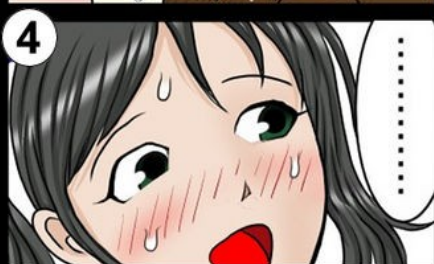

4

In addition to the physical sensation, the male dog gives happiness to his bitch as he continuously pours his essence into her womb for a looong period of time...
