Koma Magazine

The stage/setting for the story is at a private elementary school. The new novice lady instructor, Ms. Natsumi Ishino, has been unkindly teased by the students. During class, while the conduct of the Evil Brat Pack was not yet settling down, only the honor student, the boy named Takuya Kashiwagi, was (acting) kindly towards her, even though she was in these unfortunate circumstances. Natsumi spent her days irresisitibly preoccupied by this Kashiwagi character weighing upon her innermost thoughts. One day after school, Natsumi happens to witness Takuya Kashiwagi lifting an adult magazine at a convenience store. "The Incident" of our story occurs from this point. Natsumi trails the desperately fleeing Takuya, who ducks out in an abandoned factory, where he gives the stolen booty to the rest of the waiting Brat Pack members from class. Natsumi, finding a secret compartment or nook next to a cleaning machine, sees that two of the Evil Brat Pack were about to commit a (sexual) act with their own bodies, but suddenly Kashiwagi appears, and Natsumi once again (needs) to escape from a difficult predicament. However, from that point, on of course, (they) rain obscene and impure acts upon her body without a single stop. Setting the trap by enticing her to a lonely deserted house is the combination of the Evil Brat Pack, consisting of the subordinates Fujii and Watanabe, along with Kashiwagi, who pulls the strings and calls the shots for the group. So here is Ms. Natsumi the female teacher: without knowing why and in sheer terror, she is baptized or initiated by the 3 members of the Evil Brat Pack who have all been participants in the principle offense. Succumbing to the excess of cruel and severe intense stimulation and agreeable sensations, she gradually begins to reveal/open up her own body in front of the 3 boys. And conversely, she even assents to allow this "adultery", but the boy Kashiwagi coolly sizes up the situation and regards her as an inanimate object, using utensils and drugs together (upon her), resulting in forcing her to beg with her own mouth to even go so far as to have perverted sex. And with this, Natsumi, having entirely lost any and all of the former respectability in her status of being a teacher, in one evening received within her body the semen of three people (as the result of being gang raped), and in the end she has opened herself up completely to end up being "marked" by everyone. Meanwhile we find Miss Mayu the class committee chairman, who is unwittingly targeted, strongly reacts to Kashiwagi's attempts to force her to quit. She is only one of many girls to receive insults from Kashiwagi. It is enough to say that only (she) herself is a victim. Or at least the reason why she resists is because she is not yet expendable. That being said, however, strictly speaking Miss Mayu at that particular point was already no longer a "person". That fact, like the spell cast over Natsumi, is attributed to an abominable and offensive past. The remains of the abandoned factory where Natsumi was raped and abused is the factory which Mayu's real father once managed. And counting the assets backing up that former company were of that powerful financial clique, even the "Kashiwagi Family". Did the small and mid-sized factories which saw their business dry up and were forced to bear tremendous financial debt and liabilities — were they the victims of a plot or conspiracy by the feared Kashiwagi Family? Or could it all have been an enchantment of fate? Miss Mayu, who alone sold herself to the Kashiwagi Family for a term of service as "security" to discharge that debt, was literally inhumanely dealt with (not treated as a human being). To think that a young, pure virginal body (of Mayu's) like that of an as yet unblossomed flower was carelessly and senselessly violated, in an act that is "abnormal" in its level of depravity... such is the cruelty of children learning to tease others beneath one's notice as a form of play. At first Mayu, who had an image of respectability un-noticed by the Kashiwagi Family, was taken into a room for the breaking and training of animals at a deserted house, and there she was forcibly robbed of her virginity by an oversized Doberman Pincer. It was there that Mayu's juvenile womb which had never before experienced a menstrual flow nor ever had anything pass within it before, was now for many hours repeatedly and mercilessly pumped and engorged over and over with a volume of (dog) semen equal to that of ten adult men. This single extreme and aberrant sexual experience completely transforms Ms. Mayu into a sex slave, in which she cravenly sought the dog's "meat/member" night after night to satisfy/satiate her newfound burning lust. Seeing this effect, Kashiwagi next transplants (or grafts) a "dog penis" to Mayu's nether regions as side show entertainment.

And so we have Ms. Mayu the class committee chairman, upon whose own virgin body have been committed brazen and unspeakable criminal acts of modern medical science the likes of which even God would fear to attempt. And there's Watanabe, interested in the particulars of that innocent body of Mayu's. And there's the female instructor Natsumi, who loses her bearings in the changes taking place within herself. And then there are the evil purposes of that devil-spawn Kashiwagi — The lives of these characters are enveloped darkly with billowing curtains of premonition as this new tale takes to the stage as a serialized magazine story, and cuts a mysterious swathe through the human psyche.

Evil Brat #2. He's the Technical Geek, and is Nominated within his circle of friends to handle anything related to the Internet and video editing. The basis of his interest is currently on Mayu Evil Brat #1. He acts singlemindedly without much forethought. He is a guy of simplicity but rather poor at his studies. Actually with Mayu he acts somewhat childish but he has many layers of feelings towards her.

The Personification of Evil. Outwardly plays the role of a gentleman. Toward Natsumi he puts on a pleasant air. He is the eldest son of his family, but (often goes astray instead of living up to family's expectations). Is always cold & detached.

The Class Committee Chairman who always strives to forgo the works of destiny. She is a sweet and gentle girl, but once she warms up she cannot control herself (has no self-control). She is usually a competitive young girl.

She is the weak-willed new teacher. She is a plainly serious woman but she is not aware of her true self. She is a latent masochist. She is like the narrator of the story, tending to pop up here and there.
