I wonder why no one comes back...

Have they forgotten me...?

Anyway, I'll get better soon and join everyone.
