

Isn't it your negligence!?

...why my dear daughter's grades are dropping!

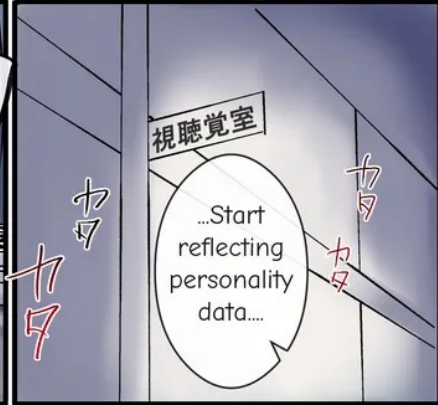

Ah...so, as I have said before...

Explain, Sensei!!

Senpai, we are ready.

...Start reflecting personality data...

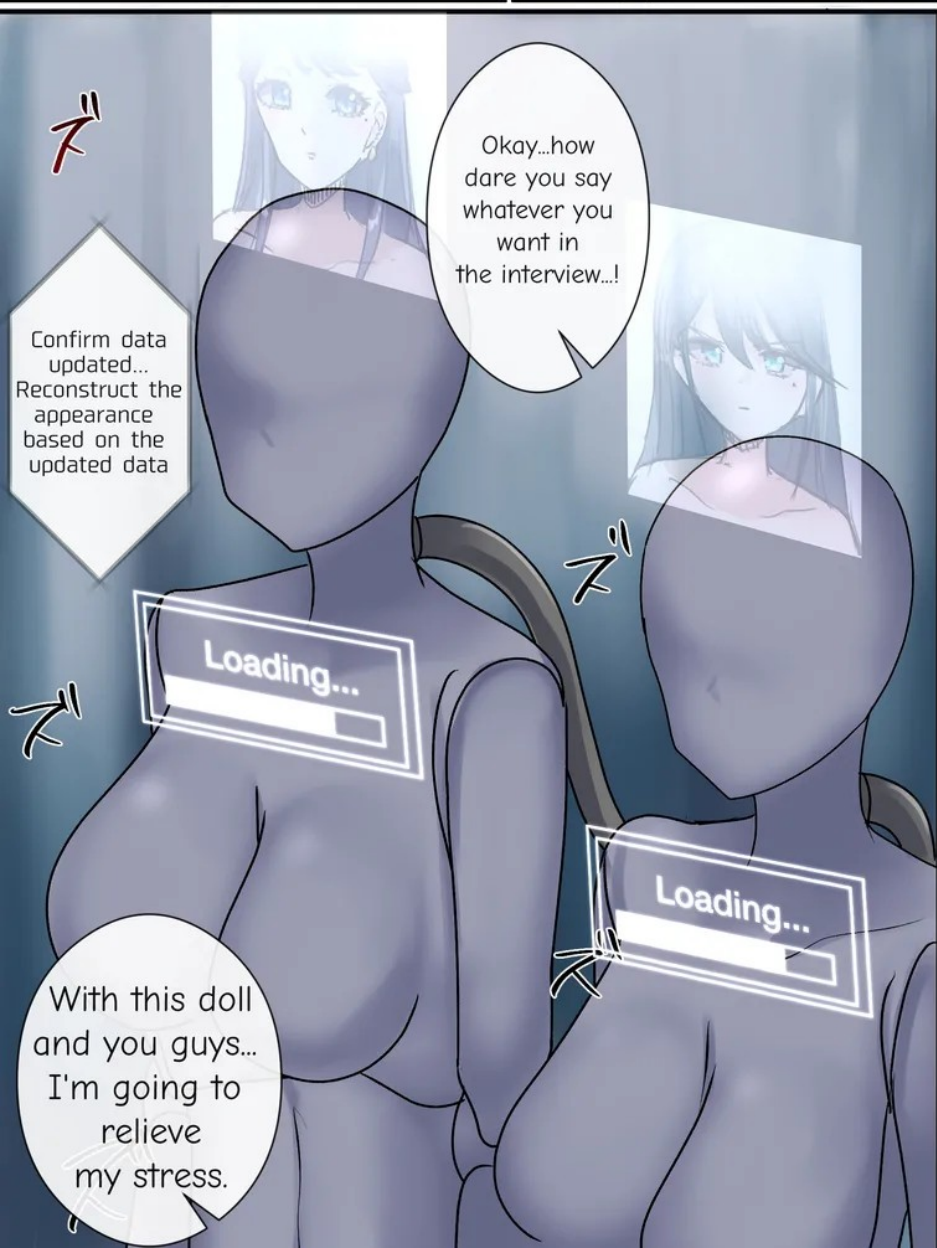

It is important for your daughter to improve her own classroom attitude...

Are you trying to tell me that my daughter is a delinquent? That's outrageous!

If things don't improve... we will take appropriate action!

...Gross

Okay...how dare you say whatever you want in the interview...!

With this doll and you guys... I'm going to relieve my stress.

Today's duty shift... they're the ones we're going to use.

...Yes, both of them are good enough...

Wa-wait! ...ahhh...

...Hey, deputy homeroom teacher. We got the data, right?

We're going to leave.

Adapting simulation results of personality data....

Body information is being constructed from scan results...

...reconstruction is complete. Start with the base personality...

Here it comes!

Started reconstruction.

Awesome!!!

I can't quit teaching at this school because of this~

Yeah it's really bad enough to be able to fuck your favorite girl as many times as you want.

So it's no wonder I look at my students so erotically, and they hate me for it!

Transformed

...boot up complete.

Good morning, Master... orders please.

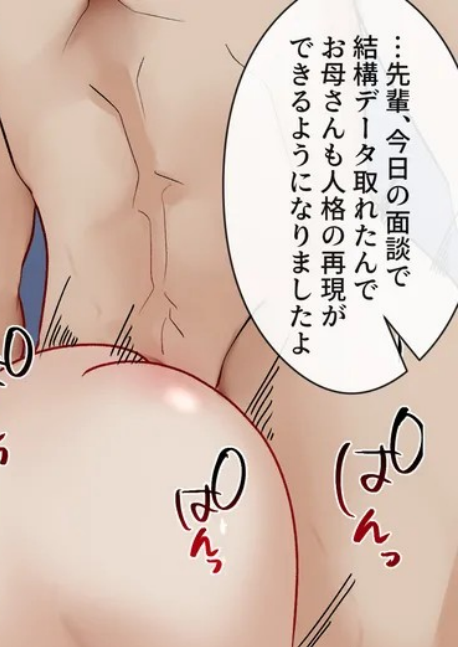

Run a teacher comfort program in an up-to-date environment. Collect the personalities data in parallel from today's interview.
