MISS 130

CH I Y O J I

In this story, Reiko is a heartbroken widow who uses a hose to console herself. "If my husband could lift his head and see me, he'd fuck me!!".

A guy sees her through her front window. He is also a widow and understands how she feels. Especially when she orgasms.

Reiko knows that he is watching. He knows that she knows. He also knows that, despite knowing, she continues using the hose in front of his binoculars. So the widower shows up at her window and proposes that they give each other a good tumble. Said and Done!
