

Sudden Shock!
Female Investigator
Asuka

中海美影

The government has started an investigation to find the source.

Modern day. A new drug, High-Potency, has hit the streets. It has a 98% fatality rate.

In most cases, the government sends agents with special abilities.

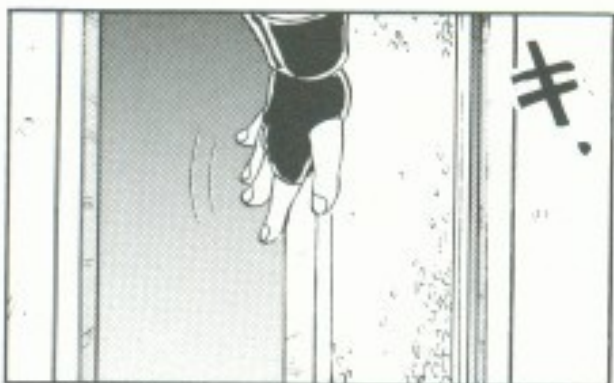

This is definitely it; three other investigators have disappeared from this location.

This is the place...

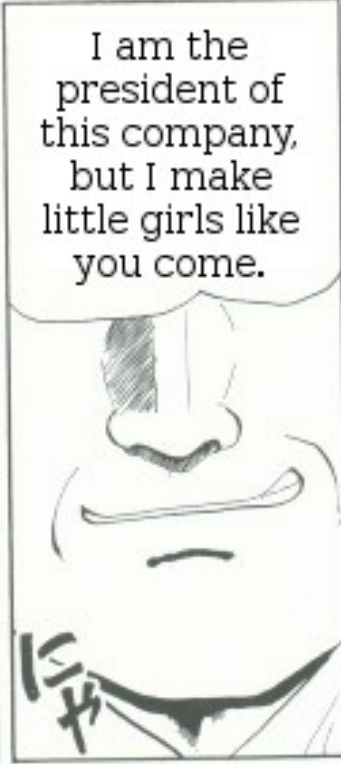

I've been waiting for you, Investigator Asuka.

There must be a leak in our operation.

There must be.

I am the president of this company, but I make little girls like you come.

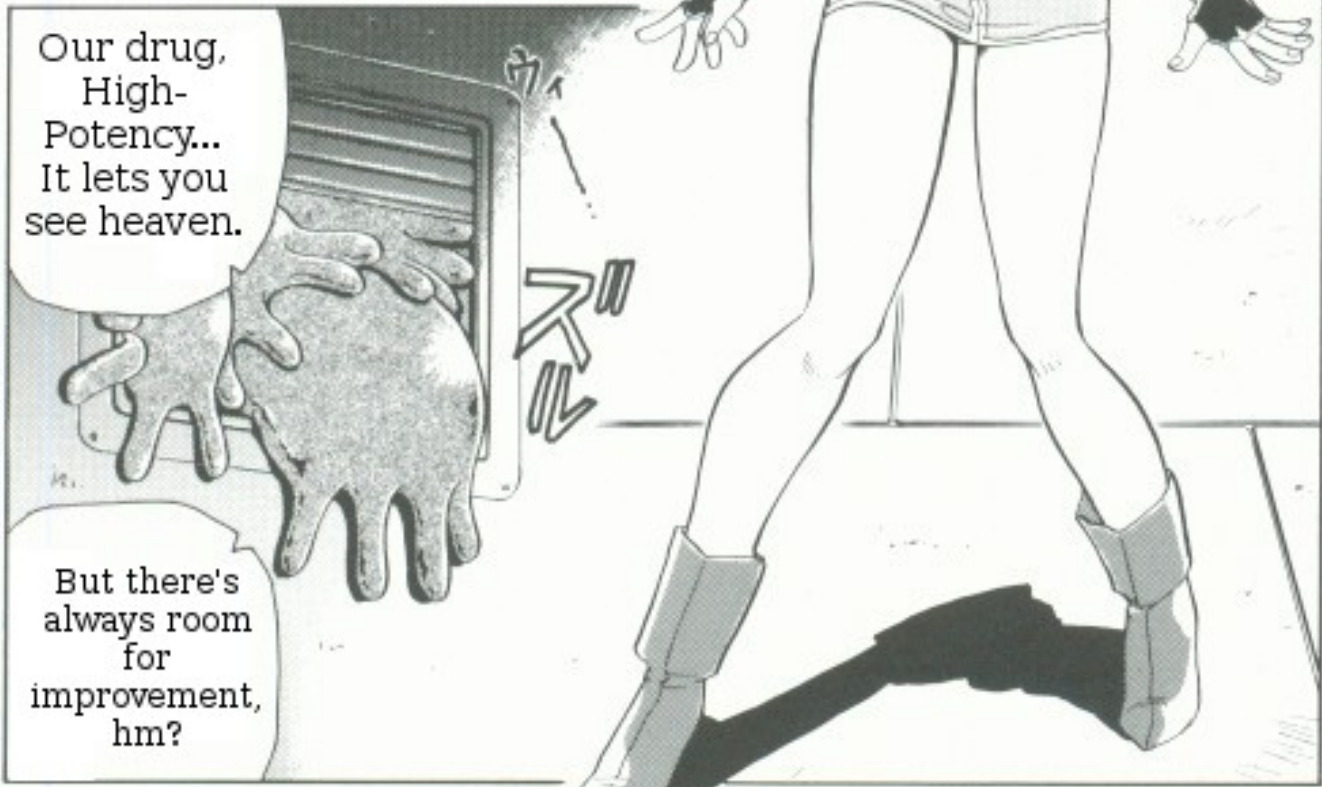

Who are you?

That's our company's #1 product...

Then... The drug is here...

It's a big hit.

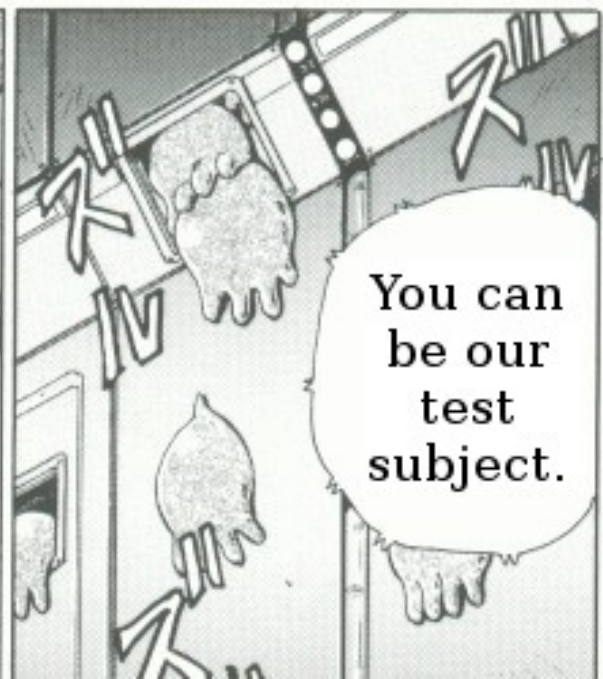

Our drug, High-Potency... It lets you see heaven.

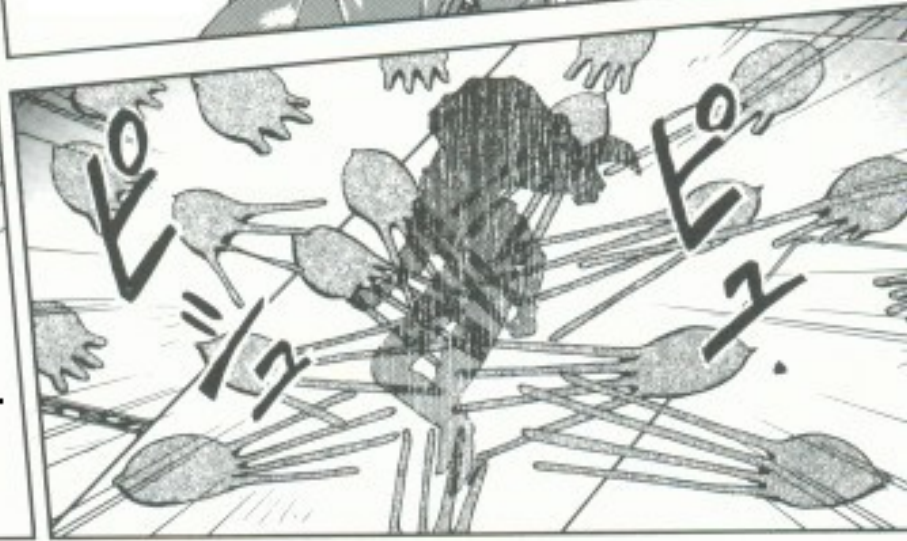

But there's always room for improvement, hm?

Everyone before you has died.

You can be our test subject.

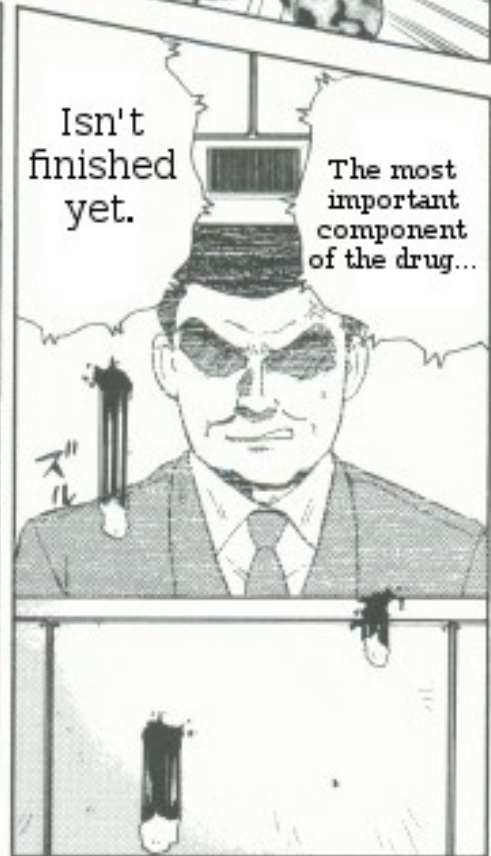

Pathetic!

Is that all you've got?

Isn't finished yet.

The most important component of the drug...

- must make you feel like your body's melting with desire...

Good luck; please, try your best.

But... can Elite Investigator Asuka resist it...

Hnn-!

You're not looking so good.

Uh-huh...

Nn... Huh...
