This time we have Fukuyama-san 7. Last time I thought I would just end it there but there wasn't any other doujin I really wanted to do so... In the end, I wanted to do something I wanted to do! And that's just what happened.

Since I was making an original work I thought I would do a thorough job of it. I did a lot of practice runs to figure out what I wanted to do, too.

By some miracle I haven't run out of material so... once I got to work on it it was really fun. Giving everything one has to drawing the certain degrees of change in a couple's physical relationship, their circumstances, as well as their feelings is great, isn't it.

I'll do my best to draw without letting my ego get in the way. I'll be really happy if you see my work and feel that to be the case.
