So help me God, I will burn your house to the ground.

If you do decide to open that big mouth of yours, I won't just distribute the photos...

Not your parents, not your friends, not even your teachers.

Do not tell anyone what happened here today.

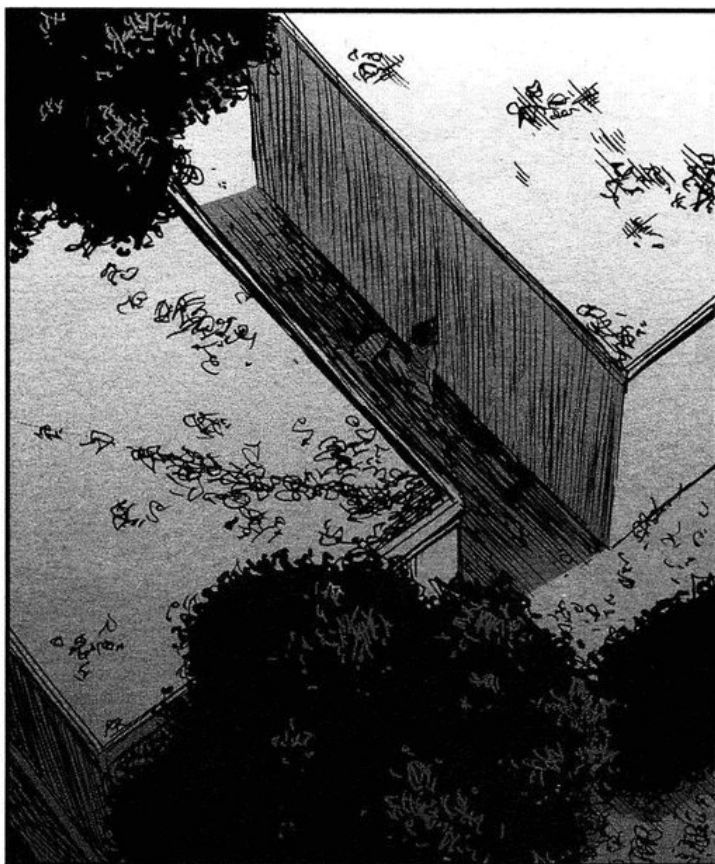

No, you don't. so keep your mouth shut!

Ah~! You think your pet, at least, would manage to escape? No, he'd burn with the house. You don't want that, do you?

Your mom and your dad would both burn to death.

I've been following you for a year.

I know where you live...
