The hearts! The hearts! Make it stop! Well, it was pretty typical for Chinzuriina, so it's not like I can say I wasn't expecting it, but damn. At least the story and trap were cute enough to give my heart a boner. Also typical for Chinzuriina. In what could be considered my first step toward anarchy, and complete global domination, I didn't even center the hearts! Even when there was a cast number of them. Mwahahaha! Or it could be that I'm too lazy and I don't care. Whatever.

Translation notes. Okay, well, the first one is that the word "mesu" is used a lot again. If you've read my Yuunagi ones (or did he only use it in two of them?), you know that it means "female animal." Depending on the context, it could be translated into "bitch" pretty easily. I didn't do it for much of the Yuunagi stuff because it didn't fit. Here it did, so I used it. It may also have had to do with the fact that "bitch switch" rhymed and sounded really cool. Anyway, the other one is that most of the stuff that sounds weird was done on purpose. The sloppy sounding words at the cumshot scene, the "inside masturbation", "shithole", etc.

The editing, excluding any HEART REARRANGEMENT was fairly vanilla. That was actually probably why I chose this one quite a while back.

I'll be honest, I have no idea what my next one will be. I might do a CG one that looked really fucking good, but it depends. I wouldn't have to clean it or anything, so that'd be a plus, but I don't know. I may just try and find another manga chapter or doujinshi. We'll see. Until next time.

HAPPY FAPPING!
