

What should I do with my future?

...I'll skip class for now.

Well, since the weather's nice..

So, I want to be like that paper airplane for now.

I've had enough of being an honors student.

After all...

...it's not like grades are everything.

I'm totally free underneath this sky...

I've gotten used to skipping class up here on the apartment complex's roof, bathing in the sunlight.

Stepping down on the heels of my school shoes... under the blue sky, just before the rainy season.

Someone's there? A boy?

HEHE
...Hey, do you live here?

Uh
Yes

Don't you have school?

It's, uh ...
a holiday

Hmm

Ooh!

I didn't think there'd be anybody down there.
