I wonder
how long
it's been
